OBITUARY

The Late John Holder. At the grand old age of ninety years, John Holder, a former resident of Fort Dalhousie, died on Friday last, and is interred in Sand Hill cemetery on Monday.

The late Mr. Holder was born in Leeds, England, and came to this country when nineteen years old. He lived at Battersea until six years ago, and proved himself an industrious farmer. He then moved to Fort Dalhousie, and was there at the time of his death. Deceased was ill for about six months. The funeral was from James Reid's undertaking rooms on Monday morning to the cemetery, where Rev. Mr. Stewart, of Battersea church, conducted the burial service.

The surviving children of the deceased are Robert and Walter, in the west; Margaret, in Spokane, Washington; William, in New York; and Marian and Hannah, at Battersea. Two brothers, Isaac, aged eighty-eight, and William, aged eighty-one, both living near Battersea, also survive.

Late Mrs. M. A. Flanagan. Mrs. Mary Ann Flanagan, 130 Lower Bagot street, died on Sunday after a lingering illness. The deceased was born forty-seven years ago on Wolfe Island, and the funeral will be to that place. Her husband, John Flanagan, died some time ago, leaving her with three sons and a daughter. It will be remembered that Thomas Flanagan, her son, was one of Kingston's first war victims. Beside her children, she is survived by one brother, M. Johnston, of the city.

Late Miss K. Tetro. One of Kingston's most popular young ladies in the person of Miss Kathline Tetro, Redan street, died on Sunday after four months' illness. The deceased was born in the city, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tetro. She was a member of St. Mary's Cathedral.

Late Kenneth Taylor. Word has come to this city of the sudden death of Kenneth Taylor, manager of the Merchants' Bank, Walkerton. Deceased had only been ill for a few days, death resulting from typhoid. The late Mr. Taylor was the youngest son of Henry Taylor of Perth, and brother of Mrs. Felix Shaw.

THEATRICAL NEWS

To-Night at Grand. An excellent bill has been secured at the Grand for to-night and tomorrow afternoon and evening. The programme includes Lionel Barrymore, the gifted stage and screen artist, and Grace Valentine, the charming and talented young actress, are co-starred in a five-part wonder-play of the Metro Film Company, "Dorian's Divorce." A two-reel Universal photoplay, a comedy picture and the famous Pathe News, showing the latest war pictures, will also be presented. The vaudeville consists of LaCoty and Costello, an Italian musical act, that made a big hit here last week, and has been re-engaged for these two days. Another good double act is the Twirling Taitels. This bill is for Monday and Tuesday only, as Wednesday is booked for "When Dreams Come True."

"When Dreams Come True." "When Dreams Come True," which comes to the Grand on Thursday, Oct. 25th, bargain matinee and night, is by Philip Bartholomae, author of the farcical successes, "Over Night," "Little Miss Brown" and "Very Good, Eddie." The first act is on a shipboard, and shows the boy returning for the parental scolding as a steerage passenger. This setting lends itself to many singing numbers, the first ensemble showing a chorus of immigrants of all nationalities indulging in their native songs and dances. A smugling plot is interwoven in the story, to which the "Dream Girl" is an innocent party. All sorts of trouble is heaped upon the pair until "dreams come true" in the final act.

A musical comedy cast of more than ordinary ability will be seen in the principal parts, and a chorus of twenty-four capable and sprightly young women will sing, dance and lend an air of youth and gaiety to the performance.

Man of Mystery. What is announced as one of the most unusual photo dramas seen in months will be offered at the Strand Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, when Shell 43, featuring H. B. Warner and Enid Markey, will be presented. Shell 43 is a unique narrative of a man in the European war. It contains the adventures of a young man of mystery, who possesses papers which prove him to be the correspondent of a big American newspaper, others establish him as a German secret service agent, and still others vindicate his status as a lieutenant in the English army. The secret of his mission is not divulged until the last tragic scene, when the veil of mystery is lifted and he is shown in his true light. A two-reel Keystone, "Fills of Peril," and other good photo plays are on the bill. The vaudeville consists of Miss Rose Lyndon in a high-class singing and musical act, and Caplane and Wells, who are designated as talkative comedy jugglers.

At Griffin's. The Morocco-Paramount photoplay, "An International Marriage," coming to the Griffin theatre, is almost an advance fashion show. Countess Cippico, (Rita Jolivet), who plays the star, wears many charming models of Paris-made creations, the exclusive designs of which are an advance on anything ever shown in America. Bennington Brent, as he expresses it, is "rough dry." A chain of big modern laundries is his great achievement. This accomplishment is the breath of his life, and the standard of all his quaintly phrased conversations. For as he says, "Anything that goes through the wringer and comes out fast colors, is the real goods." This fascinating Broadway stage success is a superb vehicle for beautiful Rita Jolivet's charm and attractiveness.

We also have in addition to the above great feature photoplay an exceptional classy vaudeville act, Jack Lea and Lou Lawrence, in a bright and snappy sketch—and chapter ten of that every popular and remarkably sensational railroad serial, the Girl and the Game, and last but by no means least, another of those most amusing and highly entertaining comedies, featuring the well-known star, Frank Daniels. The above programme should prove an attraction to a discriminating public.

A Whirlwind Production. The rapid fire of electrifying adventures fairly staggers the onlooker, brilliant photography and great settings bring out the bitter clash of the foreign spies, the plot of the spies in the bomb makers' house, the capture of Cleon and her imprisonment, Cleon's struggle to save her, the destruction of the mysterious house and the unknown fate of all inside, a continuous struggle to win the secret of the Submarine at the King Edward Theatre Monday and Tuesday afternoons and evenings.

Ideal Theatre. "Liberty," or "A Daughter of the U.S.A." is coming to the above theatre on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The first and each following episode shows the thrilling rides of the cavalry or Mexicans down the steep slopes of the hills, exciting rescues of the heroine, Marie Wilcamp, who is supported by Eddie Polo and an all star cast. This is the first serial ever written which has capitalized a national or international situation. It is a thrilling scene from beginning to end. Ladies and children kindly come in afternoons and avoid the rush at night.

Brockville Forging Ahead. Brockville, Oct. 23.—The population of Brockville as shown by the assessor's figures has increased during the past year by four per cent, the total population being given as 9,473. The increase is not large, but it is infinitely better than a decrease, and shows that the Island City is forging ahead as it ever so slowly. The prospects of Brockville in an industrial sense are very bright for steadily increasing prosperity.
