THEATRICAL NEWS

To-night "When Dreams Come True."

"When Dreams Come True" the new musical play by Philip Bartholomae comes to the Grand to-night direct from long engagements in New York, Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia. "When Dreams Come True" is described as a musical comedy of youth and twenty-four members of the chorus are still in their teens, and the majority of the principals still under the thirty mark. The story of the play traverses the adventures of a young American, Kean Hodges, who has found Paris so enchanting that his father has called him home. Being short of funds, he embarks for America in the steerage and there meets his dream girl. The scenic investiture of the play is elaborate. There are nearly a score of dancing numbers. The song numbers introduced are all of the popular and pleasing variety.

Thursday Matinee at Grand.

The last half of this week, excepting Thursday night, will see another excellent programme of vaudeville and photoplays at the Grand Opera House. William Farnum, who has become so popular with Kingston picture fans, will be seen in a drama of the northern snows, "The End of the Trail." The snow-clad regions of the Great Northwest furnish the settings for this picture, which tells the story of the fight made by one man for his home and happiness. A picture of the same nature, a comedy picture and the ever popular Pathe News will also be shown. The vaudeville will consist of Marion Drew in a novelty hoop rolling act, and Paden and Read will present a black face comedy singing and dancing specialty. This excellent programme will be shown on Thursday afternoon, and also on Friday and Saturday, matinee and night.

"Some Baby."

When the eccentric old professor in the farce comedy, "Some Baby," which is to be seen here at the Grand on Monday evening, Oct. 30th, shouts, "Eureka! I've got it! I've found it!" in the first act, and when interrogated with "What!" he answers, "The secret of a lifetime—the invention of the age. My work, the marvel of the time!" Right at that moment, complications begin and a whole lot of them are evolved, for the old professor is proclaiming that he has discovered the Elixir of youth—the moving cause of all the mirth in this play of such hilarious tendencies. It is a good, clean, wholesome laugh getter, and its several characters will be interpreted by the very clever actors, headed by the clear actress, Grace Merritt, who will be seen as the daughter of the aged discoverer of the destroyer of old age.

Last Chance to See Shell 43.

Shell 43, the wonderful five-act Triangle play which has drawn capacity business at both evening shows and which is the talk of the city since Monday, will be shown for the last time to-night at the Strand Theatre. It is a marvelous production, and must be seen to be appreciated. For the last half of the week the feature de luxe is another sport Triangle-Ince production, entitled, "Home," in which four big stars appear, including Bessie Barriscale, Clara Williams, Louise Glannin and Charles Ray. A two-reel Keystone comedy, "The Girl and the Mummy," and other good photo plays, along with two good acts of vaudeville, complete the bill.

Ideal Theatre.

"Liberty," or "A Daughter of the U.S.A." is coming to the above theatre on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The first and each following episode shows the thrilling rides of the cavalry or Mexicans down the steep slopes of the hills, exciting rescues of the heroine, Marie Walcamp, who is supported by Eddio Polo and an all star cast. This is the first serial ever written which has capitalized a national or international situation. It is a thrilling serial from beginning to end. Ladies and children kindly come in afternoons and avoid the rush at night.

Lieut. McCammon in Hospital.

According to word received in the city, Lieut. Edward McCammon, of Portsmouth, who is with No. 1 Tunnelling Company of the Imperial Army, is confined in a hospital in France. McCammon was in a hospital some months ago, suffering from shock.

Owen Sound Utilities Commission decided to reduce the Hydro-Electric light and power rates 10 per cent.

FIREMEN WILL PETITION

TO HAVE REQUEST OF SALARY INCREASE RECONSIDERED.

They Will Not Accept Present Schedule as Passed by City Council—Will Submit Letter to Chairman of Committee.

Contending that the increase of wages as decided upon by the City Council at its meeting on Monday night, is not a substantial one, in view of the high cost of living, the members of the Kingston Fire Department will petition the members of the Fire and Light Committee to reconsider the matter.

The Whig learned on Wednesday afternoon that it was the intention of the men to submit a letter to Fire Chief Armstrong, pointing out their case, with the request that the letter be handed to the Chairman of the Fire and Light Committee, Ald. O'Connor, for his committee to take up.

The members of the Department are very much disappointed over the schedule decided upon, but feel that when the committee gets down to work again, it will realize the situation the men are in, and will give their salaries the much-needed boost. The men also feel that the citizens are back of them in their request.

It is understood that the men will not accept the schedule at present proposed, and that if the wages are not given a hoist, the city will lose all the members of the department. The firemen do not want to leave the city without a department, and are game, but are again putting the matter up to the committee, feeling that when their case is given all the consideration it should receive, that the increase will be forthcoming.

OBITUARY

Late Mrs. M. A. Flanagan.

Many regrets were expressed when it became known that Mrs. M. A. Flanagan, widow of the late John Flanagan, had passed away on Sunday afternoon after a lingering illness. The deceased was well known and highly respected by her many friends, who sincerely sympathize with her sorrowing family of two sons and two daughters, Arthur, John, Agnes and Kathleen, who are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother. Deceased was also survived by her mother, two sisters and two brothers. Many floral and spiritual tributes testified to the high esteem in which she was held.

It will be remembered it was on January 2nd last that her eldest son, the late Pte. Thomas M. Flanagan, paid the supreme sacrifice "somewhere in France," while a member of the 21st Battalion.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place Wednesday morning from her late residence, 130 Lower Bagot street, to St. Mary's Cathedral, and then to Wolfe Island, the home of her girlhood, her remains to be placed beside those of her husband, who predeceased her over six years ago.

Late H. Halliday, Wolfe Island.

The deceased has lived on the island for the last fifty-three years, being born there. Some time ago he had his first operation for appendicitis, and this was followed by complications which resulted in two more operations, the last being fatal to him. He is survived by two brothers, Richard, of the island, and Charles, of Linnetrick, N.Y., and one sister, Charlotte, of Manitoba, also by his wife, two sons and one daughter. The funeral service will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Leach, of the island Anglican church. The deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge.

Late F. H. Gardiner.

After an illness extending for some time, death claimed on Tuesday Francis H. Gardiner, aged twenty-six years, nephew of Mrs. S. F. Campbell, 229 Alfred street. The deceased came to the city in April with his mother, Mrs. J. H. Gardiner, 196 Delaware avenue, Toronto, and had been living here since. The remains will be taken to Toronto by Mr. Campbell for burial in Mount Pleasant cemetery, where deceased's father is buried. The late Mr. Gardiner is survived by his mother and one sister, Miss Elsie Gardiner, Toronto, and one brother, Dr. W. H. Gardiner, now in Peru.
