OBITUARY

The Late Kathleen Tetro. The funeral of the late Kathleen Tetro, who died on Sunday last, took place on Tuesday morning at 9.30 o'clock from her father's residence, 15 Reden street, to St. Mary's cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass was sung for the repose of her soul.

Besides the mourners, a number of friends and acquaintances attended the mass. Her parents have the sympathy of all their friends in the loss which they have sustained. The deceased was an amiable and very energetic and was beloved by all who knew her. She is survived by her parents, one sister, Gertrude, and two brothers, George and Bernard. Many tokens of sympathy were received from friends far and near, and also many floral and spiritual offerings.

The pall-bearers were Vincent Fowler, Mack Lemmon, T. Martin, Mich. Brady, Edward Diamond and George Belganger.
