

GERMAN PROTEST AGAINST THE DECREE OF NORWAY

The Norwegian Government is Urged to Stand Firm—Bad Blood Has Been Created by the Deliberate Murder of so Many of Norway's Sailors.

London, Oct. 23.—Nine Norwegian vessels have been sunk by German submarines within twenty-four hours, said a Christiania despatch to-day, in a campaign directed against Norwegian shipping as a protest against Norway's decree refusing submarines admission to her waters.

"The deliberate murder of so many Norwegian sailors inevitably makes bad blood between the two nations, and it will be a long time before they are forgotten in Norway," said the Verdensgang newspaper.

ARE PRESSING AHEAD ON RUMANIAN LINES

Loss of Douaumont is Slight Reverse Compared With the Victories.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—On their north-western frontier, the Rumanians are on the offensive. Here they have achieved some local successes, but the position of this whole northern Rumanian army becomes more perilous as Falkenhayn drives forward against its supply lines.

Striking southward with two columns, Field Marshal von Falkenhayn's Austro-German army threatens the early capture of the Rumanian railway towns of Sinaia and Campolung, seventy miles north-west of Bucharest.

London, Oct. 23.—The idea that German effectiveness have been removed from the western front for duty elsewhere is a mistaken one, said Major-General F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the War Office, in an interview.

CAN'T OFFER PEACE NOW.

"One must know us, however, in order to understand us. Our enemies counted upon the Germans growing tired of the war, the war of armies and of starvation. For two years they have waited for the critical hour. They hope for it now, in the third winter of the war.

TREMENDOUS OFFENSIVE PLANNED BY RUSSIA

London, Oct. 23.—A Wireless News Agency to-day gave out a Rome despatch asserting that news from German sources indicates the beginning of a tremendous new Russian offensive in Poland and Galicia. This report is not confirmed from any other source, but it is believed to mark the beginning of the Allies' attempt to relieve the pressure on Rumania.

victorious defensive war. We are at work on the Somme and in the Dobruja, in Volhynia, Galicia and Macedonia, as well as Bukovina, we are delivering strong counter-attacks. In Transylvania we are attacking successfully.

"Every new chapter of the gigantic fight reveals to the enemy the probability that even success can be purchased at a price too great from his standpoint. The work of our armies, in other words, is leading directly along the path of peace.

RUTHLESS PIRATES ARE MUCH SATISFIED

Berlin Gloats Over the Sinking of Norwegian Ships by Submarines.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—While the silence of the German press and public on the subject of sharpened submarine warfare may be attributed in some measure to the stand of Hindenburg and Ludendorff against it, much more significant is the growing popular realization that sharpened submarine warfare is actually in force.
