

News From Eastern Ontario Points

Gananoque

(From Our Own Correspondent)
 Oct. 29.—The funeral of the late Henri P. Lariviere was held on Saturday morning from his residence, Stone street, to St. John's church, where mass was sung and the remains were forwarded to his former home at Plantagenet for interment.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Davis are mourning the loss of their little daughter, Anna, who passed away on Saturday morning. The remains were interred at the Roman Catholic ground yesterday afternoon.
 Grace church corps of boy scouts in charge of Rev. W. S. Lennon, had a "hike" with lunch trimmings up the bank of the St. Lawrence on Saturday afternoon.
 Yesterday was "Laymen's Day" in the district missionary campaign. In the morning Judge Lavell of Kingston was the preacher, and at the evening service Elmer Davis of Kingston was in charge. At the latter service the singing was led by the choir of male voices.
 The farmers of this section had another large offering of live hogs at the market on Saturday and disposed of the entire lot to local buyers.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Britton, who spent part of their honeymoon in this vicinity, have returned to their home at New Britain, Conn.
 Dr. Murphy of Smith's Falls was in town for a short time during the past week and on his return was accompanied by his wife, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Clarence Skinner, Princess street.

GORED BY BULL

Perth Man was Wounded by Horn of Animal.
 Perth, Oct. 27.—While R. T. Parkes was engaged on some carpenter work at P. W. Hall's, he had occasion to enter the paddock where the Jersey bull is kept. He was unaware of the animal's presence until it rushed upon him and threw him with considerable violence for some distance. Fortunately Mr. Parkes was able to scale the fence and reach safety before his assailant could make another attack. Dr. Fowler was summoned, and it was found that while Mr. Parkes had received bruises and a wound from the horn of the animal it was not serious, though he has been confined to the house for a few days.

Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary.
 Picton, Oct. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. John Ketcheson, of Philipston, Hastings County, celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary on Oct. 19th. Mr. Ketcheson is 86 years of age and his wife 79. Their family of five sons and three daughters were all present on this occasion, also sixteen grandchildren.

Two Renfrew Plants to Close.
 Renfrew, Oct. 27.—The Energetic plant at Renfrew will shortly close its doors, throwing from six to seven hundred men out of employment for the time being. The O'Brien munition plant, also of Renfrew, are ceasing operations temporarily, for the same reason—no contracts.

Lindsay Hotelman Fined.
 Lindsay, Oct. 30.—The proprietor of the Pym House was fined $203.43 for storing a quantity of liquor in a place other than his private dwelling house.

This Ointment Possesses Power to Heal the Skin

Two Cases Which Prove the Extraordinary Healing Power of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

The use of Dr. Chase's Ointment is wonderfully satisfactory because you can actually see the results accomplished. It is surprising what change can be brought about in a single night by this great healing ointment.
 Mr. George Benvis, 119 James street, Peterboro, Ont., writes: "As a healing ointment, I consider Dr. Chase's the best obtainable. I had a large running sore on my leg, and although I had tried all the prescriptions of conventional medicine, I was unable to get any relief from the pain or to get the sore healed. One day my druggist handed me a sample box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and I used it with such good results that I decided to give the ointment a fair trial. Altogether I used four boxes, and am glad to be able to say that the sore on my leg is entirely healed up. Since this experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment I have recommended it to many people."

Mrs. W. W. Oliver, Port George, Annapolis Co., N.S., writes: "I am going to tell you my experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment. There was a spot came on my face something like a mole, but it kept getting worse, and several doctors whom I consulted said it was skin cancer, and that it would have to be cut or burned out. I intended having this done, but changed my mind when my brother recommended Dr. Chase's Ointment. Before I had finished one box of the ointment this skin trouble had gone, and has not bothered me since. I cannot praise Dr. Chase's Ointment too much, and you are at liberty to publish this letter."
 If you have never used Dr. Chase's Ointment send a two-cent stamp for a sample box, and mention this paper. Price sixty cents a box. All dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

CATTLE SALE FOR CHURCH

Roman Catholics of Lanark Realize Goodly Sum.
 Lanark, Oct. 27.—A novel method of raising funds was adopted by the parishioners of Sacred Heart Church, Lanark, over two years ago. Each farmer undertook to raise a calf and last Friday afternoon there was sold by public auction sixteen two-year-olds at prices ranging from $50 to $68.50. The stock was all good and the amount realized from sale, in addition to donations from those who did not bring cattle, will total about $3,000, this sum to be applied to the building fund of the splendid new presbytery just completed. The hammer was wielded by Mr. Chas. Hollinger. Prizes were given for the best cattle and were won by: 1st, Hugh Hagan, $25; 2nd, Pat Murphy, $5; 3rd, Thomas Phalen, $3. The judges were Messrs. Brown and McLean, Perth, and Blackrock of Kingston.

PHYSICALLY UNIT

And Cornwall Young Man is Very Sorrowful.
 Cornwall, Oct. 27.—A young man named Pte. Roy Larue, of 154th Battalion, Glengarry and Stormont Highlanders, who passed all summer with the battalion and was ready to go overseas with his comrades was waiting on the train at Kingston, when an officer came in and called his name and sent him back to Barrieheld Camp as physically unfit. He was a pretty sorrowful fellow, when he heard the news that he could not go overseas. Two of his brothers are now overseas and that is one reason why he was anxious to go over and do his bit. He is now with the Special Service. Pte. Roy Larue is a son of Mr. Joseph Larue, Eighth Street, Cornwall.

STR. ST. LAURENT SOLD

Purchased by the Montreal and Cornwall Navigation Co.
 Cornwall, Oct. 27.—The Montreal and Cornwall Navigation Co., of which Arnold N. Smith is manager, has purchased from J. A. Lamaire, of Montreal, the steamer St. Laurent, which has been operating on the Lower St. Lawrence ferry service recently. The boat is 127 feet long, 25 feet beam, and 8 feet deep. The gross tonnage is 394, net tonnage, 189.
 The St. Laurent was built in 1900 and rebuilt at Sorel in 1905, and has a carrying capacity of 800. She will be rebuilt at Cornwall this winter, when two new boilers will be installed, and will be fitted up for package freight and passenger service at an expenditure of at least $5,000. The St. Laurent will run twice weekly between Cornwall and Montreal on the Filgate service.

Trenton Memorial Service

Trenton, Oct. 27.—In the casualty list on Tuesday appeared the name of D. A. Parks, Trenton, Ont., "killed in action." Mr. Parks before enlisting had a blacksmith shop near Whites Church. He enlisted at Belleville and went overseas with the 80th. Much sympathy is expressed for his widow and parents. Memorial services will be held under the auspices of the Orange Lodge, at Whites Church, Bayside, on Sunday afternoon Oct. 29th. The Rev. A. C. Clarke, Chaplain of the 255th Battalion will conduct the services.

Death Was Hastened by a Fall From an Apple Tree

Brookville, Oct. 28.—The death is reported from Westport of Capt. Thos. Lynch, a well-known mariner of the Rideau and St. Lawrence waterways. Though in ill-health from an affection of the heart, the end was hastened by a fall from an apple tree, resulting in the fracture of two ribs. For years he owned and commanded the steamer Freemason, which ran between Bay of Quinte points to Montreal, thence up the Ottawa to the Rideau and Westport and Kingston. He last commanded the steamer Rideau King, which he relinquished four years ago, when he retired. Capt. Lynch was in his 69th year and a native of the Township of North Crosby.

Brookville Cheese Board

Brookville, Oct. 27.—There was no cheese sold at the meeting of the local board yesterday afternoon. The bidding was very slow, only six offers being made at prices ranging from 2 1/2 to 2 1/4. These prices the salesmen refused to accept, although on the street the high figure ruled. The board offerings were 2,365 boxes and the regular possibly represented nearly as many more. Considering the lateness of the season, the volume of the make is keeping up remarkably well due largely to farmers supplementing the grass with liberal stall feeding. Efforts along these lines are being stimulated by high prices.

Renfrew Growing Rapidly

Renfrew, Oct. 27.—The municipal statistics issued by Town Clerk J. A. Devenny, show that the town has grown in population in the past year by 1,242. The total assessments also show an increase over last year to the extent of $55,921.

The application of the Mallorytown Rural Telephone Co. Ltd., for permission to raise the rates of subscription from $10 to $15 was heard Thursday before a representation of the Ontario Municipal Board and judgment in favor of the application was handed down.
 The death occurred on Oct. 29th at Long Branch, N.J., of James F. Birks. He was the eldest son of Mrs. George Birks, Prescott. He had been in business in Long Branch for twenty-five years.
 The marriage took place at Banff, Alta., of Miss Bessie May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wilson, to William Francis Dier, of Itanacy, Alta., formerly of Westport.
 Pte. Ronald Scriver, Norwood, one of five brothers with the Canadians, and famous in Trent Valley hockey circles, is reported wounded.

Can't Find Dandruff

Every bit of dandruff disappears after one or two applications of Banderine rubbed well into the scalp with finger tips. Get a 25-cent bottle of Banderine at any drug store and save your hair. After a few applications you can't find a particle of dandruff or any falling hair, and the scalp will never itch.

THE VILLAGE OF YARKER.

Fuel Hard to Get—Change in C. N. R. Time Table.
 Yarker, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Samuel Winters spent a few days in Kingston with her daughter, Mrs. Comin, Watertown, N. Y., who came over to undergo an operation on her eyes. Colebrooks held their anniversary services in the church last Sunday evening. Rev. Brock, Selby, preached. [The service was in the afternoon here at 3 o'clock. Mr. Cook was to take charge, but W. D. P. Wilson, being present, was requested to take the pulpit, which he done very ably. All were glad to see Mr. Wilson, as he was former pastor. The high cost of living has nearly gone beyond the reach of the ordinary person. Fuel cannot be obtained in the village. Mrs. Storey, Moscow, visited Mrs. William Smith recently. Mrs. T. Edgar is confined to her bed, and is very low. Mrs. John G. Ewart, Resby, "Pat" Sullivan, have returned after visiting Mrs. "Jack" Watt at Smith's Falls.
 Gerald Warner is at his home here from Kingston with blood poison in his finger. Mr. and Mrs. George Curran, daughter of Toronto, visited Mrs. Raeburn Curran, Messrs Thomas and Andrew Warner, Kingston, accompanied by William Warner, of the city, spent over Sunday at J. Warner's. William Smith was with his family. Mrs. Bostie Babcock, Woodstock, have moved into a house on Water street for the winter. James Freeman made a business trip to Toronto recently. Mrs. Hugh Cambridge is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Matilda Lake, at Lake Farm. Misses Long and Merrill attended the teachers' convention in Napawan last Thursday and Friday.
 It is understood there is to be a change in the time on the C. N. R. Keith Walker has secured a position at the C. N. R. station as baggage-man.
 William Dunn and family have returned from Toronto where they spent their holidays. Joshua Switzer is moving on John Lowe's farm, and John Brown is moving on Mrs. Albert Williamson's place. Mr. and Mrs. George Deane attended the golden wedding anniversary in Napawan of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pylus. Bishop Bidwell will visit St. Anthony's church next Sunday.
 Potatoe digging is the order of the day. Poor crops are being realized. John Wright is making improvements in his building on Water street. The stage, which ran to Napawan and Kingston, has been cancelled. Miss H. Charlton, Sydenham, is visiting at Robert Boulton's.
 Some of the village people have received word from their sons in the 146th that they have arrived in England and are feeling fine.

A CARTER'S MISTAKE

Wanted to Deliver Case of "Wet" Goods at the Wrong House.
 Carters will make mistakes, and sometimes they are of a most embarrassing nature.
 A few days ago a carter called at a well-known residence and dumped off a case of "wet" goods, and then rang the bell to render the bill for the same, as the goods had been shipped in from the province of Quebec, where the "dry" regulations are not in effect of the house happened to open the door, and she was quite shocked to see a case of liquor on her front door step.
 "You have made a mistake sir, this liquor is not for this house. My husband doesn't drink, I don't drink, and in fact there is not one person in the house who takes anything strong."
 The poor carter endeavored, as best he could to stammer out some sort of an excuse, stating that he thought he was in the right place.
 "Just let me see that bill," said the lady, and as she scanned over the document she found that the case of "wet" goods belonged to her neighbor.
 The carter went to "the house next door" in quick order, taking his small cargo with him.

A MEMORIAL AT COOKE'S

FOR MEMBERS WHO HAVE FALLEN IN ACTION.

Rev. E. R. McLean Made Reference to Six Church Young Men Who Have Made the Supreme Sacrifice.
 At Cooke's church on Sunday morning a special memorial service was held for fallen heroes who were members of the church, and the service, conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. R. McLean was a most impressive one. So far, the congregation has had six men in the casualty lists, and it was indeed a most fitting tribute that the pastor paid to the men who so nobly responded to the call from King and country.
 In his address, Rev. Mr. McLean gave the names of all the men of the casualty list, at the same time giving a short history of each one. He drew attention to the fact that each one had enlisted as a private.
 "They were no insignifant rank upon their enlistment," he said, "but in the book of the recorded dead is written that they were heroes' hearts within."
 Rev. Mr. McLean made reference to the following who had gone to the front:
 William Cassels Buchanan, who died as the result of an accident, was the son of a foreign missionary of the Presbyterian Church, and it was noted that all the sons of foreign missionaries in the Presbyterian Church had enlisted, a most worthy showing. Mr. Buchanan went overseas with Queen's Engineers, and was one of the first of his race to seek education. He attended Queen's University. He was killed in action in September last. He was quite an active member of Cooke's church. He was in Arta '16 at the college. He went overseas with Queen's Engineers under Major McPhail.
 James Hawkins paid the supreme sacrifice just recently as a member of the 21st Battalion. He came here from the Old Country, and his wife and children still reside in the city.
 Lloyd Fleming, son of Rev. D. F. Fleming, Presbyterian minister at Dauphin, Man., was in his second year in theology at Queen's when he enlisted. He died in a western hospital before he left for overseas.
 Frederick George Martyn came from Mitchell, Ont. He spent two years at Queen's University, and enlisted in May, 1915, with the Princess Pats Regiment. He was killed in action on June 2nd, 1916. He was hit by shrapnel, and afterwards was buried by a shell, and his body was never recovered.
 John Esson responded to the call for recruits shortly after war broke out. He enlisted with the 5th Royal Highlanders, of Montreal. Rev. Mr. McLean referred to him as a "lad of means laid to take a course in civil engineering. He was last seen at St. Julien April 23rd, 1915, and has now been recorded as dead."

CAPT. A. H. MCGREER

Who Won the Military Cross For Bravery Under Fire.
 Montreal Gazette.
 Captain the Rev. A. H. McGreer, M.A., who has been awarded the military cross for bravery in tending the wounded under fire, is a native of Napawan, Ont., where his parents reside. He is an honor graduate of Trinity College, Toronto, and, following graduation, was appointed to the parish at Barrieheld, near Kingston. He came to Montreal in 1911 as assistant at Christ church Cathedral and at the outbreak of the war was appointed chaplain to the 3rd Field Artillery and left with the First Contingent in September, 1914. Soon after his arrival at the front he showed a great capacity for entertaining the men and providing for their spiritual welfare. As senior assistant at Christ Church cathedral he was looked upon as one of the most promising men in the church. When Rev. Dr. Symonds was seeking an assistant he wrote to a friend in Ontario asking him to recommend the best young clergyman in Ontario and Rev. Mr. McGreer of Barrieheld was mentioned and came to the cathedral at once.

BRITISH-AMERICAN NO MORE

No Moaning and Very Little Foaming at the Bar.
 The historic British-American hotel closed its doors forever to the travelling public on Saturday afternoon. There was no moaning at the bar, and very little foaming, when the hotel passed out.
 A. B. G. Tisdale, of Brantford, had the melancholy honor of being the last guest to pay his bill.
 Andrew Gamble, the popular day clerk, has accepted a similar position at the Hotel Frontenac. Most of the other members of the staff of the British-American have been given positions by the management of the Frontenac.

Trained in Kingston

Lieut. Melbourne O'Halloran, who trained in Kingston as an artillery officer, and left for England last December, and going to the front almost immediately, was wounded, but has returned to duty. He is a son of G. F. O'Halloran, deputy minister of agriculture, Ottawa. He enlisted a year ago last May, after receiving his B.A. degree at McGill University.

R.M.C. Graduate Wounded

Lieut. D. C. Greay, a graduate of the Royal Military College, has been wounded at the front. He was a son of J. G. Greay, of Toronto, twenty-three years old, and went overseas with the Fourth Brigade. He was wounded in the arms and head on October 22nd.
