Child Was Nervous, Irritable, Tired Out. She Had No Appetite, and Her Complexion Was Pale and Sallow.

How many parents realize the strain which going to school means to the child who is naturally nervous and of delicate health? You see them come from the schools daily with pale faces, many wearing glasses, and looking tired and worn. At home they are irritable, and do not sleep well at nights, and are upset by a little extra excitement.

If they are to grow to healthy manhood and womanhood their systems must have attention now. Such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food does wonders for children in this condition. We are constantly receiving letters from grateful parents, telling what the Nerve Food has done for their children. This one is a fair sample:

Mrs. Stephen Hartman, Italy Cross, Lanesburg Co., N.S., writes: "My little sister at eleven years of age became nervous, irritable and seemed all tired out. She had no appetite, was lifeless and drowsy and her complexion grew pale and sallow. Finally she had to keep her bed and have somebody with her all the time. She was afraid of everything, would get excited and tremble till the bed would shake. As she seemed to be getting worse under the doctor's treatment, mother decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. After she had used about four boxes, improvement was noticeable and it was wonderful to see how much brighter and stronger she grew week by week. She used ten boxes altogether and they cured her. She got fat and rosy and went to school every day with an ambition that she never seemed to have before. I do not hesitate to recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to anyone, for it was indeed wonderful what it did for her."

UNCERTAINTY ABOUT 235TH. Order to Go to Cobourg Cancelled Until Further Orders.

Belleville, Oct. 31.—It is not yet definitely known whether the 235th Battalion of Northumberland and Durham will spend the winter in this city. Cobourg and other municipalities registered strong objections to the removal of the battalion from the United Counties to Hastings county, and on Friday evening Lieut.-Col. Seobell received orders from Kingston Headquarters to leave Belleville with his unit to enter winter quarters at Cobourg on Saturday afternoon.

Hon. Sir MacKenzie Boydell and W. B. Northrup, M. P. for East Hastings, took the evening train at once for Ottawa, where they interviewed Lieut.-General Sir Sam Hughes, with the result that he at once telegraphed cancelling all orders to move until further orders.

London, Oct. 31.—The British steamer Rowanmore was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine on Oct. 26. Seven Americans, including five Filipinos, were on board the vessel. What Germany Will Do. (Special to the Whig.)

Washington, Oct. 31.—If the British ships Marina and Rowanmore were sunk by German submarine commander or commanders in violation of Germany's pledges regarding submarine warfare, the German Government will disavow the act, offer reparation and punish the commander or commanders, German officials in Washington said to-day.

Secretary of State Lansing said to-day official reports regarding the sinking of the Marina are not conclusive. He was unable to state definitely whether the ship was torpedoed or sunk by shell fire, whether it had been warned or not. DIED ON EVE OF ARMY PROMOTION

Cyril Maude's Son-in-law Would Have Been Youngest General in Army.

London, Oct. 31.—Had Battalion Major William La Touche Congreve, to whom yesterday was awarded posthumously the Victoria Cross, lived a few days longer he would have been promoted to the rank of Brigadier-General at the age of twenty-five, which would have set a new record in the history of the British army.

Major Congreve was the son of General La Touche Congreve, who had a brilliant record in the South African war. General Congreve himself won the Victoria Cross at Colenso in a vain attempt to save the life of Lord Roberts' son, who was killed in that battle.

Major Congreve gained the coveted decoration for a series of acts of wounded soldiers under a terrific fire from the German guns. Seven weeks before his death he married Miss Pamela Maude, a daughter of Cyril Maude, the celebrated English actor who is touring Canada and the United States.

Major Congreve enlisted at the outbreak of the war as a private in an Highland regiment.

MYSTERY STILL SURROUNDS

THE CANADIAN MEDICAL SITUATION IN ENGLAND.

Sir Sam Hughes Will Not State How Matters Stand—An Overseas Canadian Minister of Militia Likely to be Appointed.

(Special to the Whig.) Ottawa, Oct. 31.—Impenetrable mystery still surrounds the Canadian medical situation in England so far as Ottawa is concerned. Gen. Hughes is as uncommunicative on the question as ever.

"Surgeon-Gen. Jones is not coming back just now," was all he would vouchsafe when questioned about the situation. But he would not state how matters stood.

As a matter of fact there is every indication of a conflict of jurisdiction between the Minister of Militia and the Prime Minister. Surgeon-Gen. Jones is a Halifax man, and though a political opponent of the Prime Minister has always been a close personal friend of his. As a matter of fact the whole Canadian organization in England appears to be in somewhat chaotic and uncertain condition.

Gen. Hughes' proposed overseas Militia Council, headed by Col. McRae, has been held up by the Government here. The auditor-general, John Fraser, has been several weeks investigating the financial affairs of the various Canadian militia organizations in England.

Sir Thomas White is also now in England, and will probably take a hand in looking into things. In fact, it is considered to be merely a matter of time before an overseas Minister of Militia is appointed by the Government and a complete reorganization of all the militia affairs undertaken.

F. B. McCurdy is back on the job here. Gen. Hughes is also still at his office. Last night he intimated that he might take a holiday in order to get rid of a cold. Everything is uncertain in the Militia Department these days.

PLENTY OF DYNAMITE. Was Found in a House Left by a German.

(Special to the Whig.) Ottawa, Oct. 31.—Enough dynamite to blow up half of Ottawa's suburb of New Edinburgh was discovered to-day in an empty house, the German section, the previous occupant of which had been a man of German birth and leanings. A thorough investigation was ordered, and it is believed that startling developments will result.

Remains Picked Up. (Special to the Whig.)

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 31.—The steamer Huttler arrived in port to-day bringing the body of Cornelius E. VanEdmond, a sailor on the steamer Colgate, which foundered with all on board in Lake Erie ten days ago. The body wore a Colgate life preserver.
