TOLD A DIFFERENT STORY

JOHN KELLY GOT DRUNK ON WHISKEY, NOT TWO PER CENT.

James Devine Got Under the Influence on Some Liquor He Stored Away Before "Dry" Spell Hit Kingston.

The story that John Kelly told in the Police Court on Wednesday morning about having got drunk on two per cent. beer, was just a little pipe-dream John had after he had quenched his thirst with several drinks of good Irish whiskey. John's memory was clearer when he came up before Magistrate Farrell, on Thursday morning, and he gave a correct version of the affair, even to the most minute details. Wednesday he was so tipsy while in court the Magistrate reminded him to jail, in order to give him time to sober up and to put his "thinking cap" on. Kelly's story was, in brief, that he had put an order through McParland's liquor store in the usual way and secured his liquor from Hull, Quebec. A small box with two empty whiskey bottles found in Kelly's suit case corroborated the latter story. After hearing all the particulars, Magistrate Farrell imposed the usual fine of $10 and costs.

James Devine showed forethought and got in a supply of liquor before the dry spell, which commenced on or about Sept. 1st. His well-earned thirst would return sooner or later, and more likely sooner, so he hid himself off to Beapre's liquor store, secured a couple of bottles of his favorite brand and tucked them away in a safe place. It was sure a long time to stay on the "water wagon" from Sept. 15th till Nov. 1st, but something had to happen and Devine made the tumble off the wagon Wednesday. His thirst came on and he made for the two bottles. The penalty was severe, but he had to have it.

Magistrate Farrell wanted to make sure that the supply was exhausted so that Devine could not tell a similar story the next time, should there happen to be a "next time."

"This is the last time you will be able to have anything out of these two bottles?" asked his worship.

Devine intimated that his supply was used up and that he was now in the "dry" area.

After all had been said and done, Magistrate Farrell imposed a fine of $10 and costs or one month. The accused asked for time to pay, and the Magistrate said that his request would be considered.

Had Violent Coughing Fits.

LOOKED LIKE CONSUMPTIVE.

Mrs. Mary Wheten, North Forks, N.S., writes: "Having taken five bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, during the past few weeks, to relieve a chronic cough and general throat trouble, allow me to express my unbounded satisfaction and thank you as to its sterling qualities. A short time ago I became subject to violent coughing fits at night and directly after rising in the morning. I began losing weight and all my friends cheerfully informed me that I was going into consumption. After taking the "Dr. Wood's" I am pleased to relate that the cough has entirely disappeared and I have since regained the lost weight. I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup."

There are many imitations of "Dr. Wood's" on the market so see that none of these so-called "pine syrups" are handed out to you when you ask for "Dr. Wood's." It has been on the market for twenty-five years, is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, price 25c and 50c.

Manufactured only by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CONSTABLE TOOK BOY TO SCHOOL TEACHER

Constable Arnel Applied Up-to-Date Methods in a Truancy Case.

Boys who play "hooker" from school had better keep out of the way of Constable Samuel Arnel, for he is the most up-to-date truant officer in the country.

On Wednesday he got hold of a boy who had been from his classes, and, taking him by the hand, escorted him to Central school, and handed him over to the teacher.

"Give me a chance and I will go to school all right," said the youngster to the officer.

Everyone knows that Constable Arnel is a good-natured chap, but he would not fall for any little scheme of this kind.

"No, my boy, there's nothing doing," said the officer. "I'll just take you right over to the school, and then I will know that you got there. If I let you go, you may never get to school."

So the officer and the "kiddie" walked to school together, and the wayward lad has now been given a new start.

PEAKS 11,000 FEET HIGH.

Made Accessible by Kootenay Central Branch, C.P.R.

The wonderful icefields and eleven thousand feet high peaks of the Purcell range, which the construction of the Kootenay Central branch has rendered accessible to mountain climbers are described and illustrated by Mr. C. W. Stone in the Canadian Alpine Journal for 1916. The approach to Mount Ethelbert, a peak which arrests the attention at Spillimacheen Station, seems almost to have overwhelmed the writer with its beauty.

"Before us," he says, "lay a lake of exquisite blue color resting like a jewel in a setting between two rugged peaks, which mirrored in the clear water, rose abruptly thousands of feet on either hand like grim guardians of a lovely treasure. Beyond the lake the lifted eyes rested on a terrace stretched across the valley like a giant curtain eighteen hundred feet above the lake, above whose verdant slopes two gleaming cascades traced their foaming course and filled the whole amphitheatre with the sounds of falling water. Still farther and higher in the background, great snow crests appeared, inscrutably looking down upon us."

Three considerable parties of Alpine climbers, numbering nearly forty in all, mostly from the United States, made ascents in this region during the past summer on the invitation of Mr. A. H. MacCarthy, an enthusiastic member of the Canadian Alpine Club, who has a fine ranch at Wilmer in the Windermere district.

Under Mr. MacCarthy's leadership important explorations have been made up the various creeks piercing the eastern slopes of the Selkirk and Purcell ranges, Mr. MacCarthy being of the opinion that interest and variety and spectacular beauty this mountain region is with out rival on the North American continent, and as soon as roads and trails are built will attract many tourists who have hitherto been content with the more beaten path of the C.P.R. main line.

SOCCER MATCH A TIE.

What was to have been the championship game of the soccer series in the faculty of Arts was played on Wednesday afternoon between '17 and '19. The game ended 0-0, however, and it will have to be played again in the near future.

FRONTENAC CHEESE BOARD.

Sales Made at 22 5-16 Cents at the Meeting on Thursday.

Cheese brought a good price at the meeting of the Frontenac Cheese Board on Thursday afternoon, when sales were made at 22 5-16 cents. Asa Rough, the vice-president, occupied the chair. Next week's meeting will probably wind up the season's business. The following factories boarded:

KINGSTON INDUSTRIAL FAIR

Will Have Overdraft if City Does Not Help With Grant.

The directors of the Kingston Industrial Fair are looking for the Civic Finance Committee, which meets to-night, to give the Fair Association a grant. A request was made to the City Council at its last meeting for $500, and the matter was sent to the finance committee.

R. J. Bushell, the energetic secretary, stated to the Whig on Thursday morning that the Association would have an overdraft if the Council did not help out with a grant. "If the fair is worth anything to the city it should be worth $500," he said.

The Association is endeavoring to build up the fair by gradually increasing the price list.

ABANDONED TILL SPRING

NO ATTEMPT TO BE MADE TO RE-LEASE SEAMER THOM.

Vessel Went Aground on the Western End of Corrigan's Island, Near Waddington—Scow Has Trouble in Lachine Canal.

The steamer John F. Thom, belonging to the Thom Transportation Company of Quebec, which recently went aground on the westerly end of Corrigan's Island, near Waddington, will be left in its present position until the spring. The underwriters have decided to do this, on the suggestion of Capt. John Donnelly of this city, who was consulted in regard to the matter.

The steamer had discharged a cargo of pulp at Ogdensburg and was going down the river late at night when she went on. The boat is in a difficult position, surrounded by swift water. At the time of the accident there was a swift wind blowing. Owing to the conditions Capt. Donnelly suggested that no action be taken to release the vessel this fall.

Capt. Donnelly has been asked to make an inspection of a scow which went on in the Lachine Rapids, and which belongs to the Montreal Sand and Gravel Company.
