

Christmas

We point with pride to our very choice and exclusive selection of Men's Furnishings for the holiday trade. We've elegant neckwear, the best makes of gloves, perfection in shirts, the best brands of underwear, choice hosiery, night robes, pyjamas, umbrellas, house coats, dressing gowns, bath robes, etc., all fairly and reasonably priced. If you're still undecided as to just what to buy "Him" for Christmas, we'll take pleasure in showing you a host of things "He" would be delighted to have. We've the sort of gifts men like!

Prices Are Moderate and Pleasing

Livingston's

75-79 Brock Street.

A little out of the way, but it will pay you to walk.

For the Woman Who Has Yet to Buy Her WINTER COAT

We have just received a special lot of new model coats, that were delayed in shipment. These come in the very newest styles and the popular materials, tweeds, velours, broadcloths, and Seal Plush and the prices are much lower than we could duplicate this now. $8.75 to $35.00.

Girls' and Misses' Coats

We can fit all sizes from 2 to 16 years with the new youthful styles; a full assortment of colors in every size and priced at less than the cost of materials. $3.98 to $12.00.

New Dresses That Attract Attention

Serge Dresses in the new pleated effects. Peter Thompson dresses for misses. Silk dresses, the very latest New York styles.

Waldron's

MILITARY CIRCLES

On Tuesday evening Dr. E. J. Lake delivered an interesting lecture of a tour through the beautiful valley of the Rideau at the Military Y.M.C.A. During the evening the lecturer showed over two hundred and fifty pictures.

The Bishop of Ontario has shown his personal interest in the work of the Military Y. M. C. A. by presenting a number of recently published books for the library. Other recent gifts of books are from Mrs. Ellis, Albert street, and R. Uglow.

Lieut.-Col. P. G. C. Campbell, commanding Queen's Battalion, stated that ten recruits were signed up on Tuesday morning, due probably to the recruiting meeting on Monday evening. Ten students offered their service for other branches of the service.

A local cab driver has offered a British bull dog to the battalion as a mascot.

Major G. I. Campbell, chief recruiting officer for this military district, has left for Lakefield to organize a campaign for the 247th Battalion, with headquarters at Peterboro. Major Campbell is doing excellent work for C. R. O. In an interview he stated that there were three points, in his opinion, that should be emphasized by those interested in recruiting work, and they should form the basis on which all work should be done. One was organization, the second, education, and the third co-operation.

Lieut.-Col. P. G. C. Campbell will leave for a trip to Vancouver, B. C., as soon as the Fort command is transferred to Major Date, or whoever his successor will be. The colonel will look over the ground and establishing recruiting depots at promising places.

Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, G. S. O., has drawn up instructions for use in training the soldiers of the district during the coming winter. A progressive plan of instruction will be used, and every effort will be made to combine efficient training with recruiting work, so that when the troops come into camp in the spring they will be well advanced in the elementary work.

Sergt.-Major W. Boss, clerk to Lieut.-Col. H. R. Wilson, D.A.A. and Q.M.G., has been granted the warrant officer rank. He is considered one of the best clerks at headquarters.

Staff-Sergt. Mayer, pay staff at headquarters, has been recommended for the position as paymaster of the Special Service Company. He has been fourteen years in military service.

A Russian was among the recruits enrolled with the 253rd Queen's Rifle Battalion on Wednesday morning.

Major John W. Sifton, inspector of gunnery for western Canada, was in the city on Wednesday. Major Sifton is one of five sons of Hon. Clifford Sifton who are serving their country.

Lieut.-Col. R. J. Gardner, A. D. M. S., is in charge of an Army Medical Corps course which opens on Wednesday at Queen's University for sixty students who wish to qualify as A.M.C. officers. Lieut.-Col. J. C. Connell, Lieut.-Col. W. T. Connell, Matron Bradley and Q.M. Sergt. Robinson are also giving instruction to the class. The course is for three weeks.

CONSTABLE GOT AFTER UNRULY SCHOOL BOY After Lady Teacher Did All She Possibly Could to Conquer Lad.

Constable Samuel Arnel is certainly doing his "bit" in an endeavor to have Kingston's "rising generation" get an education.

On Tuesday one of the teachers of Rideau school had some trouble with one of her youngsters. She had been having trouble at various times with the lad, and it seemed impossible to get him interested. At last she decided to give an application of the strap. The strap was produced, but just at the time it was to have made the acquaintance of the boy, he was conspicuous by his absence. He ran out of the school as fast as his little legs would carry him. When he next put in an appearance the police were notified, and Constable Arnel, who is the terror of all truants, appeared on the scene, and read the riot act to the boy, telling him that his was his last chance, and that if he misbehaved himself there would be serious trouble for him. The lad promised to be good, and was given a chance.

CONVICT MAY FACE A CHARGE OF ASSAULT

Guard Watson, Victim of "Pen" Assault Case, is Getting Along Nicely.

Benjamin Watson, the penitentiary guard, who was brutally assaulted by a convict named Roy, on Tuesday, was reported to be doing nicely on Wednesday morning, and it is expected that he will be able to be around again in a short time.

Roy has been taken to the stone pile and has been placed in close confinement. It is likely he will be charged before the county judge. Roy, so it is understood, is now serving his second term in the penitentiary.

Nothing official was given out regarding the details of the assault, but there is a report that after he had given Watson one severe blow that he made an attempt to strike him again, but that a couple of the other convicts working on the stone pile pulled the enraged convict away.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At the Grand.

To-night will be the last chance to see Grace Elliston in "Black Pear." For to-morrow and the remaining half of the week a high class bill has been secured. Dorothy Bernard and Glenn White will be seen in a feature picture "Sporting Blood," the story of which deals with a charming romance in connection with a race track. A two-reel Universal feature, a wide awake comedy, and the Pathe News will also be shown. On the boards two refined vaudeville acts will be seen. Mattie Lockett will present a singing and character change novelty. Taylor and Taylor are billed to do their unusual banjo specialty, which comes highly recommended.

"The Lodger" Coming.

Playgoers here doubtless will extend a hearty welcome to the two celebrated young English stars, Lionel Atwill and Miss Phyllis Repp, upon the occasion of their Kingston debut November 27th in the new London success, "The Lodger," at the Grand Opera House this will be the first American appearance of the distinguished co-stars of New York city. Miss Repp, in fact, never having appeared on this side of the ocean, except in her one notable engagement as supporting star for Sir Johnstone Forbes-Robertson during the Maxine Elliot Theatre run of "The Passing of the Third Floor Back." The success of both in London productions of the first magnitude has given them a fame not limited to the confines of Great Britain.

At the Strand.

Capacity business greeted a well-balanced programme at this popular playhouse last evening. The latest five-part Triangle photoplay, "The Thoroughbred," with Frank Keenan in the stellar role, is a story of the sunny south, with horse racing, church going and a love affair between a young parson and a pretty girl. This picture is without a doubt one of the best pictures produced by the Triangle Studio. A Keystone comedy, "His Lying Heart," with Ford Sterling and several other good reels were also shown. Two high-class vaudeville acts, Douglas and Douglas, are ventriloquists and magicians. Richard Harlin in a novelty act pleased all present. This programme will be seen for the last time this evening.

Died in England.

Mrs. Robert J. Snowden, 628 Princess street, received a message from England on Tuesday that her mother, Elizabeth Jackson, widow of the late Nathan Jackson, had died following a serious operation. The deceased was also the mother of Mrs. Peter Moore, 17 Upper Charles street. The late Mrs. Jackson was born sixty-six years ago in England, and had been living at Moss Side, Manchester, up to the time of her death on November 8th. She resided with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Birbeck. A son, Charles Y. Jackson, who is now at Wheatlands, Man., is well known here, having resided in Kingston before going west.

Ashdad Lady Dead.

Mrs. Catharine Collins, Ashdad Station, died in a hospital here on Tuesday after a lingering illness. The deceased was born in the county of Renfrew seventy years ago, and was the wife of Michael Collins, of Ashdad. The remains were transferred via the C. P. R. by Undertaker S. S. Corbett on Wednesday.

Late J. W. Lane, Denbigh.

John Wesley Lane, one of Denbigh's best known and most respected residents, died after three weeks' illness in the General Hospital at 2 a.m. Wednesday. The deceased was born in the vicinity of his home forty-seven years ago. The remains were transferred by S. S. Corbett, undertaker, to Denbigh.

Holiday Stationery.

The new Christmas paperies are put in very attractive holiday and presentation gift boxes, and make most acceptable presents. The note-paper and envelopes are of the highest grade of stock in the new shades and shapes. All beautifully boxed at prices from 50c to $5.00 each at Uglow's.

Lad Dies of Diphtheria.

Peter Sinclair, the six-year-old son of John Sinclair, 35 Pine street, died in the General Hospital on Tuesday. Rev. J. Boyd officiated at the burial service. The cause of death was diphtheria.

Major Gillies Returns to Front.

Major Austin Gillies, son-in-law of J. S. R. McCann, who has been in hospital suffering from shell shock, has recovered and returned to the front. He is with the 30th Battery.

Hear record number 85573, "Sing Me to Sleep," by Alma Gluck, at C. W. Lindsay, Limited, 121 Princess street.

At Montreal Major-General Lesard inspected the Irish-Canadian Rangers.

Cigars and cigarettes in Christmas packages at the Red Cross drug store.

Large munition plans are being erected and operated at Trenton and Renfrew, Ont.

Hood's Pills
Cure Constipation
Biliousness
Liver Ills

Madeira LINENS!

We invite every lover of this beautiful hand worked linen to see this collection.

IN DOYLIES,
IN CENTRES,
IN OVALS,

Every piece is genuine hand worked, on fine linen, by the native women of Madeira Islands.

The prices are astonishingly low and there are few gifts more acceptable for Christmas gifts or wedding gifts than

Madeira Linens

See These Tomorrow.

A large shipment just opened of fine cashmere stockings; also winter lisle and cotton.

- Women's Black Cashmere . . . . . 50c, 75c, 59c
- Women's White Cashmere . . . . . 50c, 75c, $1.00
- Women's Black Cashmerette . . . . . 25c, 35c
- Children's Stockings in Cashmere, in Worsted, in Wool.

John Laidlaw & Son

Military Equipment

We carry quite an assortment of military goods and the following are a few of the lines which we carry:
Sam Brown Belts; Slater Military Boots, English Leggings, Fox Puttees; Officers Haversacks; Steamer Trunks.

The Lockett Shoe Store