NOTICE TO MARINERS The attention of mariners is called to a notice issued by the Department of Public Works of Canada to the effect that as the 142 ft. Basque Span is now in process of erection in Cataract Bridge, the opening for vessels to pass through is temporarily narrowed to 45 feet, and that all vessels must stop at the entrance to the approach and put out a stern line before the bridge in the temporary bridge will be opened.

Any accident to the steel being erected or to the temporary bridge would be a serious matter and strict compliance with the Department's requirements is desirable.
