NAPANEE LACKS RESIDENCES

THE DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION TO MEET IN JANUARY

Memorial Service For The Late E. T. Corkill of Queen's Battery—Lance Corporal Frank Davern Receives Military Medal.

Napanee, Nov. 25.—The 41st annual convention of the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's convention will be held in the Armouries, Napanee, January 4th and 5th, 1917. This was officially announced by Sec. T. A. Thompson, of Almonte, who visited Napanee, November 20th and 21st, and with G. B. Curran, of the local Department of Agriculture, visited the prominent business men of Napanee to ask support.

Just now there is a great demand for houses to rent in Napanee, and every day people are looking for some place to locate their families. Even flats are all fully occupied. A gentlemen was talking of purchasing houses in some of the near by villages and moving them to Napanee. The sooner this is done the better.

A letter has been received from Dr. J. C. Connell, Kingston, saying that he has been officially notified that the Lennox and Addington Motor Ambulance, immediately upon its arrival in England, was sent to France, and is now one of a convoy of fifty similar cars stationed at Etaples.

Lance Corp. Frank Davern, of Napanee, has been awarded the Military Medal for his splendid work during the Battle of the Somme.

A memorial service, at which the Masonic Order will be present will be held Sunday afternoon, in St. Andrew's Church for the late E. F. Corkill of the 46th (Queen's) Battery who was killed in action.

Mrs. J. R. Shaver, of Napanee, passed away on Sunday evening at the hospital, Calgary, following an operation for tumor. Mrs. Shaver left Napanee last spring to visit her daughter, Mrs. Roy Smith, Bassano, Alta., where she was taken ill and went to Calgary hospital for the operation. Mrs. Shaver came to Canada from the United States with her parents when a small girl and had been a resident of Napanee for a number of years. She was a consistent member of Grace Methodist Church, and her many friends will be pained to hear of her death. She was 65 years of age and leaves two sons, W. T. Shaver, Napanee, and Kenneth Shaver, Mrs. R. S. Ham, Napanee, and Mrs. Roy Smith, Bassano, Alta. The remains were placed in a vault at Calgary and will be brought to Napanee next spring.

LIGHTING IS RESTORED

Regulations Put in Force Month Ago Suspended.

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 25.—The regulations by which lights were ordered extinguished or dimmed and the port of St. John's closed a month ago "as precautionary measures taken against the incursions of hostile ships of war," have been suspended by Gov. Davidson. The notice of this suspension, published over the name of Arthur Mewa, deputy colonial secretary, gives no indication of the developments responsible for the return of normal conditions. During the period of restriction lighthouses were out of commission, shops were closed early or conducted behind shuttered windows, automobiles showed only faint sidelights and streets were kept dark.

McGee Family Hard Hit.
Ottawa, Nov. 25.—The famous McGee family, of Ottawa, have been hard hit by the war. Two brothers, Capt. Charles McGee and Capt. Frank McGee, the great hockey player, have already been killed. Word has now come that Capt. W. R. McGee was wounded in Saturday's fighting. They are nephews of D'Arcy McGee, the Irish-Canadian statesman.

LUMBER CONTRACTOR DEAD

THE LATE W. D. WILSON OF CALABOGIE PASSES AWAY

Was A Very Prominent Resident in That Part of the Country—Injured His Heart While Carrying a Deer. Battered, Nov. 24.—There passed away at Renfrew hospital on Sunday November 19th, W. D. Wilson, general merchant of Calabogie, aged 54 years. Mr. Wilson lived nearly all his life in Matawatchan section of Renfrew county, having moved into that part when but a lad, with his parents who were attracted by the lumbering and agricultural prospects of that part of the country. He grew up closely associated with the lumbering industries of Renfrew county, and later became a contractor, giving employment to a large number of the settlers in cutting and driving logs for mill purposes. Limited, of Brantford. Mr. Wilson became a leader around which a community revolved; a business man of no mean ability; benevolent, kind, a man who spurred that which was unmanly or selfish, always considering others before himself.

The writer, who was closely associated with him, as his clerk and book-keeper for some time, knows of few men who had higher ideals of that which was right and pure and good. Some few years ago having completed his contract with the firm, he decided to move, and from Matawatchan to Calabogie for the past six years did a large business there.

A number of years ago, while hunting, Mr. Wilson endeavored to place a deer upon his shoulder in order to carry it some distance, and in doing so he injured the action of his heart and later complications set in which proved fatal.

About ten days ago he was removed to Renfrew hospital where kind hands and hearts ministered to him. He passed away peacefully on Sunday afternoon surrounded by members of his family. A widow and large family are left to mourn. A wide circle of friends and acquaintances also mourn for one who in many cases was a help and inspiration to their lives.

The funeral service was held in the Presbyterian Church at Calabogie on Tuesday at 1:30 p. m., Mr. Wilson being an elder of that church. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist Church, Renfrew, assisted by Rev. A. W. Stewart, Battersie, cousin of the deceased. The body was laid to rest in Calabogie cemetery.

ALL THE HOSPITAL MARKS.
Matron Who Has Many Medals Tells Experience.
London, Nov. 25.—The Daily Chronicle's Athens' correspondent quotes the matron of the Britannic, Miss E. A. Dowse, who carries many war medals on her uniform—she went through the siege of Ladysmith—as follows:

"The ship had all the hospital marks and was fitted up like the best shore hospital. It is impossible to understand why the ship was attacked. We were bound for Mudros, when the disaster occurred we had everything ready to take the sick aboard there. I had with me seventy-six nursing sisters, mostly belonging to Queen Alexandra's nursing staff, together with four stew-ardesses. They were all English, and happily are saved. We had no patients aboard, excepting a few of the staff who were slightly ill. We were able to carry these on deck and got them away."

"The explosion occurred when we were at breakfast. We heard something, but had no idea the ship had been hit or was sinking. Within an alarm we went on deck and awaited the launching of the boats. The whole staff behaved most splendidly, waiting calmly lined up on deck. We were two hours in the boats. The Germans, however, could not have chosen a better time, for we were given an opportunity to save those aboard, for we had all arisen. We were near land, and the sea was perfectly smooth."

How Far is It To Christmas?
How far is it to Christmas? It's across the Land of Dreams,
Where are the laughing lakes and the evening streams,
And up the Hill of Doubting and along the Road of Smiles
Until you reach the border of the Land of Otherwhites.

It's far away, and near us; it is there, and close at hand—
Oh, earnest little fellow, can I make you understand?
You lie awake and whisper, you count and count the days,
And try to bring it nearer in a hundred varied ways!

Already you have seen it in a gleam of joy afar,
Have seen its joy approaching in the twinkling of an eye,
You hear the bells that jingle and the clatter of the hoofs
That time a song of gladness as they gallop on the roofs.

How far is it to Christmas? It's not so far away,
For all I know, already you have and hold the day;
It has no time nor season; it is not set apart;
But sends its blessed sunshine to every little heart.
