Realm of Woman

(By Frances Walter)

I BEGIN TO FIND A

LITTLE JOY IN LIFE.

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate). noticed the absence of Mr. Pendelton Tomlinson. I would have liked the and me. I inferred that this was because Mr. Tomlinson had not per- ning" had not qualified it, but even mitted any one to interrupt his dis- as it was I accepted it with comfort course on the fair sex, and I believe Arthur had noticed it only because linson's pompous remark. the room. Thus it is always with a eyes as she could. man who is gifted with the power to "I spoke jokingly just now to Mi cannot see his own. Arthur would Mr. Pendleton was saying.

Mr. Pendleton's seat was at my right. This had not been prearranged. Mr. Tomlinson was to have sat a result the dinner was the only enjoyable one I ever had eaten with Arthur's friends. Every one present noticed the change in me, but no one apparently suspected its cause. Mrs. Tomlinson confided to me after dinner that I was looking extremely well. Evelyn, with her usual good nature, told me she had never seen me levelier, while Mrs. Edwards patdeclared that I had the most beauti- his own." ful color she ever had beheld Arthur was plainly mystified. He had grown accustomed to seeing me very wonderful man." only partly conceal my ill temper day. But the change did not seem but I believe he really likes me." to please him. He looked at me sevtire evening.

But he did not neglect Evelyn. It had become second nature for them rity. to pair off after dinner, and this evening was no exception. Other 'regulars" of the party also had accepted it as the usual order of things, preserved their inseparable relations, your good behavior." Mr. Pendleton began to cast inquirto get the real situation. keep his observations to himself, I realized that he had learned more of serving an unaccustomed silence, acany stranger to know. My face room. flushed with shame, but a sudden the matter to the end. Bringing all ane," he said. my senses into play, I threw myself recklessly into the atmosphere of added much to the occasion, didn't comradeship which Mr. Pendleton he?" had created, and it was not long before the others were shyly observing us. Even Arthur lost his interest in Evelyn long enough to frown once evening isn't she? "I heard Mrs. Ed-Apparently no one but Arthur had | wards say in an undertone to Mrs. compliment more if the "this eve-"Very handsome," was Mrs. Tom-

Mrs. Edwards had cornered Evelyn I looked across at Evelyn, whose and had not permitted him to have exotic beauty has always frightened a word with her. As we filed out me, and then glanced at my own reto dinner Arthur gazed frowningly flection in a mirror opposite me. For at me, but I did not give him an op- the first time since I had met Miss portunity to speak. I knew that had Phillips I was not jealous of her. he had the chance he would not have Even allowing for my own vanity, hesitated to condemn me for leaving felt that I might attract as many see the faults of others, but who Tomlinson about joining the club, have criticised me for doing precisely course, he did not understand me at what he had been doing for several first, but he finally was compelled to months, and the injustice of the crit- give his assent. He thinks I am a icism never would have occurred to rake and a roue, and he probably as a collar. Much variety can be givwill you so directly or indirectly before long.

"Why should he speak ill of you?" there, but Mr. Pendleton deliberate- always led such a methodical life aightgowns, especially in colors. The ly took possession of the place. As himself that he thinks any one less pale pink and blue shades of this mamethodical than he must be funda- terial, which can be had for about 20 mentally wrong."

"I should think his respect for your uncle, Mr. Henderson, would make him be more considerate. "It does, but only on the surface, He cherishes a very strong contempt and dislike for me in secret, and imagine he has tried many times to pretty and durable nightgowns. convert my uncle to his view. Howted my hand in motherly fashion and ever, Uncle Edward has a mind of

"He is, and to me the most wonwhen his friends were dining with derful thing about him has been his us. He seemingly did not connect kindness to me. He has cared for Mr. Pendleton's presence with my me ever since my parents died, which changed mood. All that he knew was when I was very young. He is was that I was gayer, brighter and not the sort of man who could be happier than I had been in many a associated with the gentler emotions.

Mr. Phillips rose and came toward eral times as though wondering what us. "My daughter and I would like then whipped with thread of color, had happened to me. He could not to see more of you, Mr. Pendleton," first in one direction and then in the make it out, and as no one volunteer- he said. "We hope you will become other, forming a sort of cross stitch ed to enlighten him he puzzled him- a member of our little group and finish. seif at odd intervals during the en- join us at dinner Wednesday eve-

> Mr. Pendelton accepted with alac-"There now!" he exclaimed, when am almost initiated already." "By no means," I replied. "You and none of them saw anything ev- are merely on trial. When the pertraordinary about it. But as the jod of probation is over we will deevening passed and he and Evelyn cide your fate. Until then, be on

Mr. Phillips had turned away.

"Never fear!" he laughed. ing glances in their direction. Nor may have to turn hypocrite to be well did it require many glances for him behaved, but even so I shall watch Careful and tactful as he was to them before. I want to qualify."

my p's and d's as never man watched When they were gone, Arthur, pre-my affairs than I would have liked companied me to the door of my bed-"You seemed to enjoy yourself un-determination came to me to brazen commonly much this evening, Rox-"Yes," I replied. "Mr. Pendleton

> "Yes," said Arthur, absently, (To Be Continued.)

(Continued from Page 7.) ly Miss Eva Schmidt, held her first for Detroit, where she will spend the reception Wednesday afternoon in winter with her aunt, Montreal. Wearing her wedding gown of white taffeta with corsage guest of Miss M. Alford, Lakefield. bouquet of red roses, she was assisted i in receiving by her mother, Mrs. Wm. Misses Polson left for California to-Schmidt, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. day. Henry A. Christmas, The decorations were carried out in the drawing-room with yellow and pink chrysanthe- riage in England of Miss Rose Fleck, ingness. But, of course, every item mums, while the tea room was deco- eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. of apparel planned for the small citi- elearer, softer, healthfer-hued rated with white roses and lilies-of- W. Fleck, and grand-daughter of zen should wash. the valley. Mrs. Frederick Rogers John R. Booth, to Lieut. W. D. Herand Mrs. R. Greetham poured tea and ridge, eldest son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. coffee and Mrs. W. H. Schmidt cut W. T. Herridge, all of Ottawa. Lieut. the ices. Mrs. J. K. Drennan, Miss Herridge has been on the firing line May Schmidt, Miss Winnifred Bas- for over a year, and a few weeks ago sett, Miss Jeannette Johnson and the Miss Fleck left Ottawa for V.A.D. ser-Misses Margaret and Dolly Shallow vice in England. assisted in serving.

entertained at dinner on Thursday in Lappan, daughter of the late John choice, or should be, for the very young honor of her guest, Miss Agnes Par- Lappan, Lansdowne, to John Adams children. But plain and plaid serge mour, of Kentucky.

Mrs. Robert Crawford, Barrie street, gave a dinner party on Tuesday night to a group of her friends.

Miss Florence Potter, 152 Division Mrs. W. Melville Drennan, former-Istreet, will leave early in the week

Miss Treneer, Kingston, is the Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Polson and the ures are a feature.

Word reached Ottawa of the mar- for the tots is largely one of becom-

Announcement is made of the ap-Mrs. W. G. Mylks, William street, proaching marriage of Miss Agatha Tub fabrics are unquestionably first Bigger, Sask., the marriage to take and velveteen dresses for girls of eight place early in December.

The engagement is announced of Miss Florence Hurst, eldest daughter and detachable collars and cuffs of linof David Hurst and the late Mrs. The L.C. Reading Club will meet Hurst, Montreal, to W. E. Kinsella, on Monday at the home of Miss Crisp, Winchester, Out. The marriage will take place quietly early in December.

HOMEMADE NIGHTGOWNS.

Tips About the Newest Ways of Making Such Robes.

The day when a homemade night gown necessarily indicated weeks of hand embroidery or else a few hours' stitching on stiff, thick mustin bas. gone by. And now we can make a "Mrs. Pembroke is beautiful this hightgown in a few hours, with only a saving touch of hand work, and yet produce something that is charmingly

Sheer materials, of course, which are always used nowadays for nightgowns, have much to do with this change. The fact, too, that nightgown patterns now almost invariably show short sleeves and open necks also has much to do with their dainti-

The nightgown with an empire waist line is a favorite just now, and is deservedly so, for the long, full lines of the skirt are most becoming. Some sort of wide collar, too, is always becoming, but it wrinkles very easily in a nightgown. Reveres at the front are shown in some of the newer patterns, and those give softness and fulness and are not so easily wrinkled en by the use of slashed and puffed sleeves, and the use of cutts of various sorts is also worth trying.

"It is the nature of the brute. He | Batiste is a very good material for cents a yard, are especially attractive. Nainsook in a soft quality is also a good material. Figured dimity, too, can be used, and this season much figured cotton crape of soft quality and dainty design has been used for The use of much entre deux in the seams of fine nightgowns is a dainty touch, and especially in the night-"I think he has judging by what gown which shows much hand work I have heard of him. He must be a is this method of finishing seams advis-

> Hand embroidery can also be set into a nightgown with entre deux. In this way fine hand embroidered yokes and panels can be used.

The rolled hem that is so much seen nowadays-in handkerchiefs and fine blouses-can be utilized in the nightgown. The hem is finely rolled and is

A pretty finish for a white nightgown is a binding of colored bias folds of muslin. This folded bias finish can be bought both in plain colors and in Republican club. stripes and plaids. Sleeves and neck can both be bound in this way and a band of the colored fold can be placed at the line of an empire waist line, to have ribbon run under it. In the same manner chiffon or georgette crape underwear can be finished with ribbon used as binding.

SONNY BOY'S GARB.

Small Men Delight In This Masculine

Over a shirt of white silk, linen or poplin is this suspender suit of blue lis- tising for women to aid securing enen cut on loose lines. The jumper ton is buttoned on to the trousers with large white pearl buttons and conspicuous buttonholes. Side pockets for treas-

Fail Styles For Children.

The question of fashion in garments

Some of the smart little simple dresses for children shown this fall are plaited from shoulder to hem; some are in Russian blouse effect with plaited skirts. Suspended dresses with washable waists and little frocks equipped with washable guimpes are also in favor. to ten and twelve years are smart. For school wear bright colors and cuffs are used on dark color frocks. en, pique, etc., are also used very effectively on some of the school frocks.

Serge Frecks. The separate trock of navy serge will not lose any of its popularity. It is to be found mostly in princess styles or made on lines that give the shoulder to hem effect. Jumper frocks of serge to be worn with separate blouses of georgette crape are very handso One buttons down the back with black bone buttons. It has a guimpe of terra and its occasional use retards the cotta georgette crape, and stiff flaps growth, gradually killing the roots. A liquid compound containing soothing embroidered with terra cotta silk. The corselet effect is gained by pointed yokes on these serge frocks which point upward on the blouse and down-

"Low Cost of Living" Menu

Menu for Sunday

BREAKFAST Oranges or Stewed Fruit Whole Whent Cereal with Fruit Waffles and Honey Coffee or Cocon

DINNER Beef Broth Roast Rack of Pork with Hominy Apple Sauce String Beans Lettuce with Onion Dressing Grape Monsse

SUPPER-Mock Lobster Salad Cream Cheese Sandwiches Stewed Quinces Cocoanut Louf Cake. Ten or Milk

Grape Mousse.

Materials-One cup sugar, 1 cup grape juice. 1 rounded tablespoon granulated gelatin, 1 tablespoon lemon juice. 2 cups whipping cream ice and salt to freeze.

Utensils-Measuring cup, cream whip (all cream), tablespoon, mold, ice pick, large spoon.

Directions-Boil sugar and grape juice three minutes; add the gelatin. which has been soaked in 2 tablespoons cold water five minutes. Stir until dissolved; when cold add slowly to the cream, which has been beaten until thick. Rinse mold with cold water; put in mixture, cover and place in pan of ice and salt for sev-

Menu for Monday

BREAKFAST Ontment With Dates Crisp Fried Bacon with Cream Buckwheat Caken Coffee or Cocoa

LUNCHEON OR SUPPER Beef Hash Bran Muffins with Honey Tokny Grapes Milk or Ten

DINNER Corn Soup Lamb Stew with Rice and Peas Lettuce Taplora Pudding

Bran Muffins.

salt, 4 teaspoons baking powder.

spoon, eggbeater, bowl to beat egg in, gem or iron

Directions-Sift together flour, baking powder, sugar, salt and bran; add milk slowly, well beaten egg and melted butter; bake in hot oven in gem or iron pans twenty to thirty minutes.

Corn Soup. Materials—One cup canned corn. 2 cups milk, 1 cup rice or vegetable stock, 1 teaspoon salt and a dash of peppeg, 1 teaspoon butter, 1 teaspoon flour.

Utensils-Foodchopper, saucepan, small bowl, 2 measuring cups, teaspoon, tablespoon.

Directions-Put the corn through foodchopper and add to the heated Materials-One-half cup bran, 11/4 milk and stock. When it comes to ups flour, 1/4 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon a boil add seasoning and butter and butter, 1 egg, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon flour rubbed together; add to the soup; boil three minutes; flavor with Utensils-Mixing bowl, flour sifter, a little scraped onion or grated nut-2 measuring cups, teaspoon, table- meg. This is made in a few minutes.

THE ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

woman.

Thousands of women went to the rescue of the men in Kansas this year and helped them save their Pennsylvania State Federation of wheat crops.

Nashville, Tenn., has a woman's heatre in Waukesha, Wis.

Women in Holland are making a determined fight for suffrage. for society outside the family. More than 200,000 women are now fight for an eight-hour law in 40 States and Europe.

men in the United States is protect- the first woman to receive an ined by an eight-hour law.

The United States army is adver- law recently passed. listments for the army.

lic instruction in Indiana. parties on Long Island sound.

Women now have full suffrage in | 510 bushels to the acre during a year states and countries with a total pop- of severe storms. ulation of more than 28,000,000. Pittsburg have been granted a 45 per | the first wireless operator's license of cent increase in pay.

Miss Annie R. Roe has completed 50 years of service in the bureau of engraving and printing at Washing-

Cosmetics Not Needed; Peel the Skin Instead

One reason mercolized wax is strongly recommended is that it really takes the place of several different cosmetics, saving time, patience and expense. It is better than any cleansing cream, better than any massage cream, and better than any rouge, for accomplishing the results for which such articles are used. As the wax actually absorbs an old, faded or d scolorlying skin which gradually appears, is complexion. Spreading on a thin coat of this wax at night, washing it off marveious transformation. Just one at any drug store, will do the work. There's nothing better to remove freeremarkable astringent and tonic pro-

THE FAVORITE FOR TWENTY YEARS FINDTESS Instantaneou HAIR COLOR RESTORER mediately restores your hair to any lor desired with one application. nstantaneor SCIENTIFIC Descriptive Leaflet on Request.

Sold by L. T. Best, Prouse's Drug Store, Hong's Drug Store, The Red Cross Drug Store, Mahood's Drug

Three thousand women spend their lives in driving and steering the canal boats in Southern and Midland need.

you good.

The reason is easily understood

"Wincarnis" is a tonic, a restorative, a blood-builder and a nerve food-all in one-this four-fold combination gives it a four-fold power. It creates new strength, it helps make new blood, it builds up new nerve force and it surcharges the whole body with new vitality.

is why over 10,000 doctors recommend it.

"Wincarnis" is especially valuable after superintendent of public welfare in that city, receives a salary of $5. 600 a year.

Harry Thaw, is vice president of the Women's clubs. Mrs. Betsy Storey, aged 102 years

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson cares little lage an old lady of 70 years plies her calling with a razor and scissors. Heading a theatrical company of working in the French munition fac- about twenty leading Japanese play-

Mrs. Mary Lovejay of Frederick. Only one woman to every 1,000 | Md., who is nearly 100 years old, is creased pension under the pension

More than 14,000 women are not employed in the great British arsenal Mrs. Claudia Scott Schaad is a at Woolwich, manufacturing ord-candidate for superintendent of pub- nance and munitions for the British army in France. Mrs. Maurice B. Thayer of Baby- Miss Etta M. Burkhardt of Sherilon, L. I., conducts duck shooting dan, Wyo., is the champion potato grower of that state, having raised

Dolores Estrade, a mere slip of a Female telephone operators in girl, has the distinction of winning the first grade ever granted to a

that is so shaped as to fit closely to the head and delivers its contents in a narrow stream.

Almost all children love candies, and wholesome ones should have a regular place in the children's diet. Especially in cool weather, a reasoned cuticle, a little each day, the under- able amount of sugar can be made use of in the bodies of both adults more youthful than any cosmetic-made and children, and good home-made > bouche for their dinner. Candies should be made only in verized Sugar. before the candy quite sets.

> > Nut Squares.

Raspberry Creams. Teaspoonful Cold Water.

England. Mrs. Leonora Z. Meder, of Chicago,

Mrs. William Thaw, mother of and a resident of Ohio, attributes her Mrs. Flossie owns and manages a longevity to the fact that she never wore a corset. Woman barbers are very common in Northern France, and in one vilers. Mme. Kawakami, pioneer act-Women are now making a national ress of Japan, will tour the United woman in this country. A Detroit woman has invented a syringe for applying scalp lotions candies might well form a bonne ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable clear weather. One of the reasons why the home-made ones are so often kles, moth patches, liver spots, sallowness, blotches, pimples or blackheads.

For wrinkles and loose, saggy skin.
a face bath made by dissolving one ounce of powdered saxolite in a haif a failure is that a cloudy or wet day pint of witch hazel, is the best thing pheric conditions have much to do that can be recommended. This has with the success of candies, especially boiled ones, and clear sharp weather is an important factor.

> White of 1 egg, 1 Tablespoonful Cold Water, Vanilla Flavoring, % Cupful Chopped Nut-meats, and Pul-

A case for Wincarnis Grippe because it speedily overcomes that terrible weakness and lassitude grippe W/HAT a blessing new health would be to you leaves behind. Also "Wincarnis" is safe for even the who are weak, anæmic, nervous weakest invalid to take. It is not a patent medicine. It contains no drugs. "Wincarnis" is an elegant combination of Choice Wine, or run-down-what a comfort to know that "Wincarnis" can give prime Extract of Meat, and finest Extract of Malt—each ingredient selected with scrupulous care, and blended together by a you the new health you so much secret process whereby the value of each ingredient is intensified, thus producing a delicious life-giving medicine.

The health that "Wincamis" promoter is lasting health-not a temporary "patching up '-not a mere "flash-in-the-pan' but real, new, vigorous health that makes you feel it is good to be alive. Wil you try just one bottle? Begin to get well now. Buy a bottle to-day. Imported only in two sizes - 90 cents and $1.50 per bottle.

That is why "Wincarnis" makes you feel well so quickly. The benefit begins with the very first small wineglassful. You can feel it doing

ASK YOUR DOCTOR That is why thousands of people are to-day enjoying "Wincarnis health." That GET IT AT YOUR

DRUGGIST'S

FRANK S. BALL, Canadian Agent, 67 PORTLAND ST., TORONTO

white of egg stiffly with the cold water, add to it enough pulverized sugar to stiffen and roll each of the little raspberry balls in a small quantity of the plain mixture. With the hands form into round or oval shapes and set aside to become firm.

EAT CANDY AND FORGET BOOZE A Fine Remedy for the Habit of Drinking.

Episcopal Recorder. The man who puts lots of molasses on his wheat cakes at breakfast will Beat the white of the egg with the find himself gradually forgetting to water until quite stiff, then stir in step in for his customary drink on enough pulverized sugar to make a his way to his work. If the man who stiff paste-the exact quantity can "goes out" between times for liquid not be given, as it depends on the refreshments will go into a candy size of the egg. Flavor with the store instead and get 5 or 10 cents' vanilla, beat into the mixture the worth of candy, and eat it, he will chopped nut-meats, spread the mix- be surprised at the effect, for it will ture thinly on waxed paper and set not be very long until he will have a aside to harden. Cut into squares box of candy in his pocket or desk. It has often been noted that in theatres where candy is sold during the intermissions, "going out to see a man" does not prevail to anything 1/2 Cupful Raspberry Jam, Con- like the extent it does in other theafectioners' Sugar, White of 1 egg, 1 tres where no candy-selling is permitted. Not one man in a hundred Mix with the jam enough confect- knows why he forgot to "go out and oners' sugar to stiffen it. Form see a man" after he had bought a box a little of it himself for politeness this into small round balls, beat the of candy for his companion and eaten sake.

WHENEVER I see the word YCLEPT IN print I want to PULL SOMEBODY'S hair. 1 DON'T BELIEVE in using the DICTIONARY AS a STUMBLING BLOCK for the FOLKS AT home or elsewhere. I HEARD a woman say

"I USE a preparation. YCLEPT HERPICIDE." HER HAIR was really beautiful BUT HER language

MADE ME sick. Yours for beautiful hair,

Herpicide Mary

