MASQUERADE DANCE HELD

AT WELLINGTON IN AID OF THE PATRIOTIC FUND

A List of the Costumes—John Hubbs is Very Critically Ill, With Stroke of Paralysis.

Wellington, Nov. 24.—The patriotic masquerade dance held at Hotel Alexander, last Thursday, was largely attended, and a decided success. Some of the many interesting costumes worn by the ladies were: Nitie Post, Mexican Cow Girl; Miss Blackhall, Nun; Allan Wilder, Miss Canada; Bernice Bush, Highland Lassie; Rosaline Allison, Ghost; Nellie Wilson, Quakeress; Thelma Demill, Witch; Miss Reta Tate, and Ellen McDonald, two big girls in blue; Madeline Haight, Perilote; Kathleen McDonald, Gypsy; Laura Shannon, Red Riding Hood; Vera McDonald and Edith Wilder, Red Cross Nurses; Reta McDonald, Red Riding Hood. The gentlemen in attendance were: Gerald Benson and Lloyd Divering, Mutt and Jeff; H. McCorky, Cow Boy; G. Ryan, Highlander; Wright, Coa Was; R. Young, Clown; Mr. Crellen, Sallor; G. Cossan, Highlander; G. Milligan, Sir Walter Raleigh; Mr. McCullin, Hindoo; Mr. De Groff, Indian Chief; Marshall Palmer, Clown; James Mondville, Darkey; D. R. Peat, Uncle Sam; Lorne Best, John Bull; Chris. Burgerer, Martha Washington; Keith Best, Tramp; J. S. Shurie, the man from Canada. After the masks were removed Col. Ferguson served a dainty lunch.

Miss Rena Tait and Ellen McDonald, spent Sunday at Hallway. Mr. and Mrs. John Brown and son, of Chicago, are visitors at Alexander Tait's. "Jack" Flynn, of Trenton, was in town over Sunday. Mrs. Ar-

A MOTHER'S TROUBLES

A mother's unending work and devotion drains and strains her physical strength and leaves its mark in dimmed eyes and careworn expressions—she ages before her time. Any mother who is weary and languid should start taking Scott's Emulsion of cod liver oil as a strengthening food and bracing tonic to add richness to her blood and build up her nerves before it is too late. Start Scott's Emulsion today—its fame is world-wide.

Nov. 27.—The opening of the Madoc-Canada Fair in Turner's Assembly Hall under the auspices of the ladies of St. John's Church, was held on Saturday. Tea was served and enjoyed by a goodly number. Dancing was enjoyed in the evening, the Citizens' band orchestra furnishing selections.

The fair will be continued this week. Another large offering of live hogs was made by the farmers of the surrounding rural section on Saturday at the market, and was taken by local buyers, the price still remaining at 10 1/2 cents a pound.

Mrs. Howard Taylor is in receipt of word from her husband, Major Taylor, of the 3rd Battery, to the effect that he is returning home on leave for three months to recuperate from his recent injuries.

The Thousand Islands Gun Club has arranged to hold their annual turkey shoot on Wednesday afternoon.

Word has been received here that W. C. McCarney, who has been undergoing treatment in St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Brockville, for some time past, is in a very critical condition.

At the family residence, Front of Leeds and Lansdowne Township, a few miles east of this town, Mrs. McNeely, wife of James McNeely, a prosperous farmer of this section, passed away after an illness of about eight weeks. She was a daughter of the late David York, of South Crosby, and was married thirty-three years ago. She leaves, besides her husband, two sons and two daughters.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at Lansdowne cemetery, where the Town Council, in accordance with an article of the Temperance Act, has ordered the striking off from their books of the business tax of Messrs. B. Shiel, A. A. Welsh, N. McCarney, W. F. Stevens, and Ashley & Brennan. To those who have paid, the amount will be refunded.

Town Clerk S. McCammon has called for applications for the combined positions of overseer of roads and bridges and caretaker of the town park. According to the instructions from the council, his duties will be no light ones, as he must be prepared to work on streets, sidewalks and bridges, keep the snow off crossings, keep walks in front of town property free of ice and snow, and in summer time cut weeds.

Miss Ernestine Bassett, nurse-in-training at Kingston General Hospital, spent the week-end in town with friends. Edgar Cook, of Ottawa, is visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Cook, John street.

This is a Record. Perth, Nov. 27.—Charles Meighen, now in his eighty-fourth year, will not be a candidate for public school trustee in the coming year. Certainly Mr. Meighen has earned a rest, after his fifty-one years of service on the Board of Education. During all this time, his years spent in the capacity of trustee was not a sinecure, nor would he be such. He attended to his duties zealously and faithfully, and with his practical and common sense mind, he was a valuable asset to the school board, whether as an ordinary member at meetings or chairman of the Board or of important committees.

Gifts for the Soldiers. Renfrew, Nov. 27.—On Saturday a number of the girls, together with the lady teachers, partially completed the work of sending khaki handkerchiefs with some of the school colors to the ex-students of the Collegiate now on active service. The colors were attached to cards, on which were written the addresses of the senders, and about half the number required were made ready for shipment.

Smith's Falls, Nov. 27.—The Liberal-Conservative Association has elected these officers for 1916-17: Hon. president, J. F. Montgomery; president, John Crane; vice-president, John H. Short; secretary, T. J. Maley; treasurer, William Robinson.

D. W. Budd has sold the John C. McNevin farm near Burnstown to Alex. and Samuel Leckie, of the Second Line. McNevin has gone out to the middle west, where he will homestead.

The Bromley township young man who in Renfrew raised an Energite cheque from $4.25 to $40.25 and passed it, with the result that he was sent to Pembroke for trial, has been allowed his liberty by Judge Fisher on assurances of future good conduct. The young man has since enlisted with the 240th Battalion.

Brockville Market Prices. Brockville, Nov. 27.—The Saturday market prices were: Potatoes, $1.15 and $1.50 bushel; onions, $2 bushel; cabbage, 10 cents small head; ducks, 65 cents to $1 each; chickens, $1 to $1.40 a pair; butter, 43, 45, 47 cents a pound; eggs, 40 to 50 cents a dozen.

Had Boils For Six Months B.B.B. DROVE THEM AWAY.

When the blood becomes impure the very first symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, sores, etc., and to get rid of these troubles you must cleanse the blood thoroughly with a good blood remedy.

The best blood cleansing remedy on the market to-day is Burdock Blood Bitters.

Thousands of people from one end of Canada to the other have used it during the past forty years, and have nothing but words of praise for its cleansing properties.

Mr. Rufus Beers, Upper Main River N.B., writes: "I want to say a few words about your medicine Burdock Blood Bitters. I had boils for over six months and sometimes was so bad I could not work. I tried lots of cures but nothing would drive them away for good until I took B.B.B. In a short time I was all better. It is a dandy medicine. I keep it in the house all the time."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont., but so well and favorably is it known that there are many imitations on the market. See that our name appears on the wrapper.

PATRIOTIC UNWIN FAMILY

WHOSE HOME IS NEAR CONWAY IN LENNOX COUNTY.

Five Sons Enlisted—Two Have Been Killed and Two Wounded—One Still in Trenches.

Napanee, Nov. 27.—Few, if any, Canadian families, have a nobler war record than that of William Unwin, a farmer residing near Conway, of this county, says the Beaver. No less than five sons enlisted as privates in His Majesty's service. Of this number two have been killed in action, and the fifth is still in the trenches. A brief record in the order of their ages is as follows:

Harry, the eldest, enlisted as a private in the 35th. He saw his first fighting in March last, and on August was promoted to the rank of lieutenant. He made the supreme sacrifice, and fell fighting at the head of his gallant followers, who also suffered heavily.

Valentine, the second son, joined the 47th, and crossed with the first contingent. He has participated in nearly all the great battles in which the Canadians have been engaged, but by marvellous good fortune he has escaped serious injury and is still at the front with the rank of sergeant, and wears a military medal for his gallantry.

Frederick, at the outbreak of war, was serving in a British regiment in India, and joined the expedition under Gen. Townsend, and saw heavy fighting in Mesopotamia, where he was seriously wounded, and is now recuperating at a six months' furlough.

Lawrence enlisted in a Cyclist Corps, but his merits as a soldier were soon recognized, and he was transferred to the 1st Battalion, with the rank of lieutenant. He has seen much service and acquitted himself creditably. His promotion followed, and he is now on a six months' furlough visiting his parents. He very modestly wears the uniform of major, which is his present rank, and upon his sleeve may be seen a strip of gold braid, indicating that he, too, has been on the casualty list.

William joined the 2nd Battalion of the 47th, and has been missing since the second battle of Ypres. He and a companion were despatched under a raking fire to restore telephone communication with the front line of trenches. When they were covered about half the distance he begged his comrade, who was a married man, to proceed no farther, and he volunteered to complete the task alone rather than expose his friend to the over-increasing hail of shrapnel and machine-gun fire. He succeeded in connecting up the line, thereby restoring the communication at a very critical juncture, which meant much for the successful prosecution of the battle and the safety of the men in the trench. The brave defender stuck to his post to the last minute, when over the line laid by Pte. Unwin came the order to retire, but he was not among the number who took advantage of the order, which his bravery had rendered possible. Many military decorations have been awarded for less conspicuous acts of bravery.

A sixth son, Victor, only sixteen years of age, would gladly persuade the recruiting officer that he is two years older if it were practicable to do so. Well may Mr. Unwin and his Spartan wife be proud of their gallant sons, and well may the old County of Lennox and Addington be proud of the record of this family of patriots. When the proper time arrives those in authority should see to it that their heroic sacrifices are suitably recognized. The Beaver extends to the survivors its congratulations as well as its sympathies for the bereavements they have sustained.

CAUGHT IN SNOW STORM SCHOONER JULIA B. MERRILL HAD TO RETURN TO PORT.

Got Half Way Across to Oswego, But Was Forced to Return—Oil Barge in Bad Shape Off Grenadier Island.

The schooner Julia B. Merrill started out for Oswego on Sunday, but got as far as Yorkshires, which is about half way, and ran into a snow storm, and was compelled to beat it back to Kingston.

Standard Oil barge No. 82, which was released by the tug Lutz in Friday's big storm, is in rather bad shape off Grenadier Island. The Donnelly Company sent a steamer to the scene, but could do nothing owing to the conditions.

The steamship Jeska arrived from Trenton, and will be laid up here for the winter.

The tug Gladys H., which was released by the tug Scymour in Friday's storm, did not suffer any damage. She stayed at anchor, and was afterwards taken on to Trenton.

A number of vessels which were held up owing to the accident in the Welland canal arrived in port during Sunday. The steamer Hamkinton passed down at 8:30 p.m.; the steamer Joyland arrived at 10:30 p.m., and cleared at daylight for Montreal; the steamer Bickerdike arrived at 11:30 p.m., and cleared for Montreal at daylight.

The steamer City of Ottawa passed up at 8:30 o'clock on Sunday night.

Mr. Hughes is Recovering. Joseph Hughes, Middleville, taken suddenly ill about three weeks ago, was rushed to Kingston Hospital, where an operation was performed, and his life was despaired of for a few days. He is now doing nicely. His daughter, Gertrude, graduate nurse, who had been in Muskoka since last April, attended him until danger was past. Misses Kathleen and Ada, nurses in training in Brockville, were also in attendance. They spent a few days at their home, Dalhousie Lake, before returning to their duties in Brockville.

OBITUARY

Funeral of Late John S. Smith.

The many floral offerings at the funeral of the late John S. Smith testified to the high esteem in which he was held by a large circle of friends. The funeral on Monday afternoon was of a simple but most impressive character, and was conducted by Rev. Alfred Brown, of Sydenham street church, of which deceased was a member. The service took place in the house on Johnson street, and the funeral was to Caturra cemetery. D. M. McIntyre, James Crawford, C. Livingston, Prof. M. Baker, Charles Taylor and W. H. Dyde were the pallbearers.

The Late Joseph E. Frye. S. S. Corbett received word on Saturday that his uncle, Joseph E. Frye, had died in Cambridge, Mass. The deceased was a retired business man, having been a number of years in the insurance business. A number of years ago he married Miss Abbie Corbett, of this city.

The Late Miss Sarah Campbell. As a result of a fall some weeks ago, in which her hip was broken, Miss Sarah Campbell died on Sunday at her residence in Battersca. The deceased was eighty-seven years old, and was a native of the county. She was well known through the district. The deceased was a Methodist in religion. Two sisters survive.

Late Miss Susie Jenkin. The funeral of the late Miss Susie Jenkin took place on Saturday afternoon from the home of her brother, Isaac Jenkin, 27 University avenue, to Sydenham street Methodist church, of which the deceased was a member. Rev. Alfred Brown held a service at the house for the members of the family. A large number of friends gathered at the church to pay their last tribute of respect to one who held the love and esteem of all her acquaintances. In addition to the services conducted by Rev. Alfred Brown, addresses were delivered by T. E. Harrison, of Cobourg, who was for many years superintendent of the Sunday school at Sydenham street church, and Abraham Shaw, both of whom spoke of the Christian work in which the deceased had been engaged. The pallbearers were Harvey Milne, Frederick Briggs, William Campbell, and three brothers of deceased, Albert, Samuel and Isaac.

The floral tributes were very beautiful and included the following: Sprays—Mr. and Mrs. W. Vince, Mrs. R. McKeelvey and Mrs. Wilkinson, Sydenham street Bible school, Mrs. S. Birch, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Catlin, Mr. and Mrs. James Newman, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Minnes, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Shaw, the Dickens' Reading Circle, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jenkin, Mr. and Mrs. R. Crawford, Misses Wilton, Mrs. Hiseck and family, Mrs. G. F. Emery, Miss Lorraine Minnes, Mr. W. Campbell, Mrs. M. S. Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jenkin.

Pillow—Sunday school class. Wealth—Miss Emma Driver.

Their Removal Regretted. Mr. and Mrs. Holland Conner and the Misses Conner left on Wednesday for Kingston to take up their residence, says the Gananoque Reporter. A new home at 157 Frontenac street has just been completed for them. They formerly resided at Gananoque Junction, and their removal will be regretted by a large circle of friends in town and country.

Power Contract Here. Engineer Kribs, of the Hydro-Electric Commission, presented the power contract to the Utilities Commission Monday afternoon. A deputa-tion from the fire and light committee waited on the commission in regard to a reduction in the street lighting bill.

Might Use the Old B.A. Officers of the Military Hospitals Commission on an inspection of the British American Hotel on Sunday, and there is a rumor that this property may be valuable for the new military hospital to be established here.

HOW TO GAIN FLESH Remarkable Statement of a Woman Who Was Nothing But Skin and Bones.

Laugh and grow fat is a homely saying, but Mrs. Elizabeth L. Morris of Hammond, La., tells of a more reliable method. She says: "I cannot say enough in praise of Vinol, for it saved my life. I was weak, nervous, run-down, could not sleep, was unfit for work and was nothing but skin and bones. Three doctors had all failed to help me. One day I saw Vinol advertised, took courage and bought a bottle, and it soon made me feel better. I continued its use and such a change! I have regained my strength, flesh and health, am perfectly well, and the doctor was surprised to see such a change in me in such a short time."

The reason Vinol proved such a wonderful strength creator in Mrs. Morris' case was because of the beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese, potassium and glycerophosphates, combined in a pure native tonic wine, which makes Vinol a most wonderful tonic.
