MORE LIQUOR CASES ON

THE TEMPERANCE ACT MAKING WORK FOR THE MAGISTRATE.

Canadian Northern Express Company is charged with receiving an Order for Liquor.

Magistrate Farrell is having a busy time dealing with liquor cases these days, arising out of the Ontario Temperance Act. He had three more cases before him on Friday morning.

The Canadian Northern Express Company of Kingston is charged with having "unlawfully received an order for liquor for beverage purposes from one, Gratton Henderson. The company, through its solicitor, A. B. Cunningham, pleaded "not guilty," and at the request of Mr. Cunningham the case was allowed to stand over till next Thursday. William McCammon, license inspector, and C. R. Webster appeared for the prosecution. There was a charge against a citizen, that of being intoxicated on the street, but the case was dismissed. Although a military sergeant swore that the citizen was under the influence, the citizen swore that he had taken nothing but cough medicine, and brought with him a sample of the mixture, which he showed to the court and all interested.

Big Christmas Sale
Of millinery at George Mills & Co.'s store, Princess street.

Criticism is passed upon the draping of the oil painting of the late Major John M. Mowat in the City Hall. The portrait is draped in black instead of a Union Jack. The latter is the correct draping to use. W. Callaghan, whose hand was severely injured at the locomotive works, and who is at the Hotel Dieu, is reported to be doing as well as can be expected. Some bones in his hand were broken.

A tea and sale at Mrs. J. R. Henderson's, Earl street, on Wednesday in behalf of the First Congregational church netted $140. A city gathering of boys is under way on Saturday and Sunday. It is a worthy plan to make boys efficient and self-reliant. Judge Madden, of Napanee, was in the city on business Friday.

BUTTER SHORT IN WEIGHT

So Lady Did Not Offer it For Sale on the Market.

A lady who came to the market on Thursday had her butter weighed on the market scales and found that several of her prints were under weight, and as a result she did not offer them for sale, but took them home.

In these days of high cost of living the people offering goods on the market should be very careful to see that everything is of correct weight. When citizens have to pay a high price, they certainly want everything that is coming to them.
