"INDIAN DAYS" PRODUCED

IN THE CITY HALL ON THURSDAY EVENING.

By a Clever Company of Local Talent—J. E. Harte Was Director—The Players All Did Well.

With the production of "Indian Days" at the City Hall on Thursday evening, Kingstonsians were given something entirely new in the way of entertainment features. It was not only new, but a credit to amateur art of play-producing, and those who were responsible deserve commendation. One hesitates to choose stars from the many pretty and good-acting ladies, but Miss L. Buell did her part exceptionally well. Her singing was good and her acting would be a credit even to the legitimate stage.

The play is a collection of episodes of Indian life that are well brought out by the Indian maids and braves, which parts were taken by local talent.

J. E. Harte, who was a very pleasing "Pocahontas," an Irish Indian Queen was a leader not only in the working out of the play but in the work of organizing it. In both he was ably assisted by H. W. Shaw, who played "Frozen Face," C. Bunt, L. P. Spence, J. Saunders, A. Bantan, W. Monk, A. Thompson and Mrs. McConnell all took speaking parts. The other maids and braves were: Misses R. Walker, E. M. Sutherland, E. McCullagh, G. Wemp, V. Saunders, M. Taylor, L. Butlin, W. Mitchell, S. Mitchell, B. Fleming, L. Tisdale, C. Strang, E. Crawford, L. March and W. Hubbell, and Messrs. A. Bunt, J. Dewhurst, W. Bowker, C. Walker, C. Purdy, L. McKay, G. Fleming, R. Patch, A. Bantan, W. Monk and A. Thompson.

Mrs. W. Monk and Mrs. S. Jordan were choruses. The musical director was D. H. Hill; H. W. Shaw stage manager; Miss R. Walker, treasurer; Miss Saunders wardrobe mistress, and J. E. Harte managing director.

During each act Miss. Hudon and partner gave dancing exhibitions, and H. W. Shaw some examples of Indian music.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING ON

STORES ARE WELL STOCKED WITH YULETIDE GIFTS.

Early Shopping More Satisfactory to the Public and Busy Clerks—Do Not Wait Till the Last Rush.

The Christmas spirit has touched Kingston. The stores present a gain appearance in their Yuletide dress, and from now on for the thirteen days that remain for shopping, for the all-important day for the older folks as well as the "kiddies," the shops will be filled to overflowing with fathers, mothers, sisters and brothers, looking for suitable gifts for Christmas. The question is what to buy. But with the fine assortment the Kingston stores have to offer, there should be very little trouble for citizens along this line.

A Whig representative made a tour of the stores on Thursday afternoon, and had a most delightful time looking over the goods the merchants have on hand for the Christmas rush. But with Christmas shopping the old, old story about the early bird catching the worm applies. People who take heed to the slogan, "Shop Early," will have good reason to be thankful. The rush is now on, and every citizen who can should get busy early, and they will not only secure better satisfaction for themselves, but at the same time, they will be doing a good turn for the army of clerks, who will be called upon to do extra duty. Thursday the stores were well filled with shoppers, showing that a goodly number wanted to do their buying early.

Christmas shopping is always a task, and year after year, everyone promises that another season will see things improved in the way of early shopping. Mothers and wives recognize that for themselves and the clerks of the stores, the wear of the season might be so much lessened if they would but shop earlier, and a vow is registered that "next year" things will be different. But the days go by, and everyone goes with intention, 'tis true, until just a day or two are left, and it may be Christmas eve itself before the last shopping is finished.

There are still thirteen days left. Use them well; go shopping early.

HAIR WAS SOORCHED IN A LIVELY BLAZE

Fire Did Damage to Extent of $500 at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry.

Fire, which started from some unknown cause, did damage to the extent of about $500, at the home of Robert Henry, at 46 James street, on Thursday afternoon. The alarm was sent in at 2:25 o'clock.

The fire started in one of the rooms on the second flat, which is used as a store room. Mrs. Henry was in her hall, talking to a lady who lives close by, when she noticed smoke pouring down the stairway. She ran upstairs and opening the door of the store room was met by a sheet of flames that scorched her hair, and clouds of smoke rolled out. An alarm was sent into the firemen, and after a lively fight the blaze was soon under control.

URIC ACID IN MEAT CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in the urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.
