TO BE AGAIN INTERNED A DOUBLE FUNERAL HELD

OSCAR SCHEIBER TO RETURN TO FORT HENRY. LATE MR. AND MRS. JAMES MURPHY LAID TO REST.

Released German Back to Old Quarters—Could Not Get Work Because He is a Hun.

In August of 1914 a sensation was caused at Gananoque by four Germans who crossed the border and arrived there in a punt heavily armed. One of these men was Oscar Scheiber, who after being interned at Fort Henry for some months, was given his parole, providing he report regularly. The mayor of Gananoque at the meeting of the town council last week reported that he had been interviewed by Oscar Scheiber, who stated that he was unable to procure work on account of his nationality, and could not exist without assistance. He was referred to Councillor Cowan, who gave him $2.

Councillor Cowan being gently reproved by Councillor Dowley for being so "easy," replied that "it was like drinking gall" to give the money, but under the circumstances he saw no other course open to him.

It developed that Scheiber has held several jobs in factories at Gananoque, but always left after working awhile, and never took the trouble to give notice of his intention. Councillor Carr stated that he had engaged Scheiber, but when the men in the shop heard of it they refused to work with him.

Chief Ryan said that Scheiber was still on parole and was supposed to report periodically to him, but had not done so. This neglect on the part of the German renders him liable to be returned to the camp, and the chief was instructed to exercise his authority and have the man sent back. He will arrive at Fort Henry this week.

KINGSTON OFFICERS BACK FROM FRONT

Capt. William Smith and Lieut. Harry C. O. Walkem Arrive Home.

Lieut. Harry C. O. Walkem, son of J. B. Walkem, K.C., Kingston, arrived back in the city on Saturday, after being at the front with the Royal Engineers for some months. Lieut. Walkem is a graduate of the Royal Military College, and for the last eighteen months has been overseas. On Oct. 7th he was seriously wounded in the chest and in the arms with shrapnel, and was sent to England for treatment. He crossed the ocean on the S.S. Olympic in five days and two hours from Liverpool to Halifax, and coming straight through, arrived here on Saturday. He has three months' leave.

Capt. Smith Returns. Capt. William Smith, son of Mrs. T. G. Smith, Gore street, arrived back in the city on Monday afternoon, after being invalided home from the front. It will be remembered that Capt. Smith was invalided home after being at the front for a year, but later returned. He was unfortunate enough to again be invalided.

INVALIDED SOLDIERS ARRIVE IN KINGSTON

F. S. Medley and C. Yeoman, of Kingston, Are Among the Party.

Two Kingston men arrived back in the city with a party of returned soldiers on Monday afternoon. One is F. S. Medley, C. A. Medical Corps, and the other is C. Yeoman, 224th Battalion.

Pte. Yeoman resided on Bagot street, but the family is now living on Quebec street. In England he had the misfortune to lose the thumb of one hand and had to be returned to Canada. His father is a sergeant in the military police and a brother is now in France.

Pte. Stewart F. Medley is a Queen's man who went overseas with the Medical Corps after suffering from rheumatism. He is a son of W. H. Medley, University avenue. The others who returned are: R. Bordeleau, 23rd; J. N. Chase, 31st; A. Comago, 35th; A. E. Elias, D. C. C.; J. Lee, 35th; R. J. Lovell, 30th; H. Vavala, 33rd; F. Warner, 35th; J. W. Whittingham, 39th.

$100 NEEDED AT ONCE.

This Amount Required to Complete Shipment to War Prisoners.

Col. F. S. S. Johnson, American consul, is asking the citizens to contribute $100 in order that this month's shipment of parcels to the Canadian prisoners of war in Germany may be of the usual proportions. The parcels mean much to the prisoners, and the splendid work being carried on by Col. Johnson and his staff deserve the hearty support of all. If possible, this month's shipment should be made the latter part of this week, so it will be necessary to contribute at once.

Applications For Children.

Secretary W. W. Sands, of the Children's Aid Society, says that he has received ten applications from people in good homes asking for children whom they wish to adopt, and the local society will endeavor to meet their requests. One ward of the society was sent to a good family on Saturday. One man who applied stated that he would like the lot of thirteen or fourteen years of age, and if he proved satisfactory he would adopt him and will him his general store.

Hockey Meetings Called.

The hockeyists will get down to business this week and arrange for games. Stanley Trotter has called a meeting of Group No. 1 in the intermediate series at the Randolph hotel at 5 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. A meeting of the junior series will be held at Belleville on Wednesday night.

Funeral to Roman Catholic Church at Erinville of Well-Known Town-Couple Who Died on Same Day.

Two of the oldest and most respected residents of Sheffield, Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, passed peacefully away on Wednesday, Dec. 6th, within a few hours of each other. James was a son of the late Richard and Mary Murphy, who predeceased him about forty-five years ago. The deceased gentleman was born in County Carlow, Ireland, and with his parents came to Canada when eleven years old. On January 13th, 1853, he married Maria Finn, of Hungary, a daughter of Thomas and Maria Finn, of the County Sligo, Ireland. James Murphy was eighty-seven years of age, and Mrs. Murphy was seventy-three years old.

They leave to mourn their loss six sons and three daughters, all of whom attended the double funeral on Saturday morning to the Roman Catholic church, Erinville, where a solemn requiem high mass was offered by Rev. Father Carey.

There survive them: Mrs. John Townsend, Mrs. Daniel O'Connell and Hugh, of Waterloo, N. Y.; John, of Duff, N. Y.; Dominic, Richard and Margaret, of Kingston; Thomas, of Sheffield, and James, at home.

PLAYED WITH MATCHES; BOY BADLY BURNED

Little Son of Henry Huard, Now Overseas, Saved by His Mother.

While playing with matches the three-year-old son of Henry Huard, set fire to his clothing on Saturday, and one of his arms was severely burned. Only for the quick attention of his mother in extinguishing the flames, the youngster would have been burned to death. The one arm, from his hand to his shoulder, suffered serious burns. The boy was only six months old when his father went overseas.
