CLERK QUARTER CENTURY

KINGSTON PRESBYTERY PAID TRIBUTE TO REV. W. T. WILKINS.

Passed Resolution of Appreciation on Faithful Service and Presented Him With Cheque for $200—Principal Gordon's Jubilee.

By a standing vote the Kingston Presbytery at its December meeting opened in Convocation Hall, Queen's University, on Tuesday morning, passed a resolution expressing appreciation and gratitude for the services rendered by the veteran clerk of the presbytery, Rev. W. T. Wilkins, of Trenton, who has for a quarter of a century acted in this capacity for the Presbytery, and who has rendered noble service.

Rev. Mr. Wilkins recently completed fifty years in the Presbyterian ministry; reference having been made to his career in the Whig. Under his guiding hand the business of the court has been carried on smoothly. He has ever been at his post, giving of the very best that is in him to promote the interests of the Presbytery, and he is beloved by every member.

The Presbytery not only passed a resolution of appreciation, but at the same time made Rev. Mr. Wilkins the recipient of a cheque for $200 as "a Christmas gift," the resolution stated. The resolution was moved by Rev. Dr. M. Macgillivray and seconded by Principal Gordon, both of whom spoke of the able service rendered the Presbytery by Rev. Mr. Wilkins.

Other members who spoke were Rev. W. G. Jordan, Rev. Dr. Henry Gracey (Gananogue) and Rev. Dr. Donald Ross, principal of Queen's Theological College.

Rev. Mr. Wilkins, in a neat address, thanked the Presbytery, and stated that he was ready to serve the Presbytery just as long as he was able to carry on the duties of his office.

Principal Gordon, on motion of Rev. Dr. Gracey, passed a resolution of condolence on the death of William McIntosh, of Madoc, who passed away suddenly during Monday night, and who was for forty years a representative elder at sessions of Presbytery.

Principal Gordon's Address.

Principal Gordon, who was not present at the September meeting of the Presbytery at which a committee was appointed to draft and present to Principal Gordon an address, congratulating him on the attainment of his jubilee as a minister, rose to express his regret at not being able to be present at the September meeting, and at the same time made a most interesting speech.

After thanking the Presbytery for the address, beautifully engrossed, the Presbytery clerk, Principal Gordon said that one was tempted on such an occasion to indulge in reminiscences if time permitted.

As a young man, he had, in 1866, the year before Confederation, gone to St. Andrew's church, Ottawa. He had been in Ottawa during very important changes, the most important probably being Confederation in 1867. The inclusion of Manitoba did not occupy so much of the thought of that day as one would think. It was then thought that Manitoba would be second Quebec, but when the settlers came in it became more pronouncedly English and Protestant. In 1871 Prince Edward Island came in, British Columbia having joined the Confederation earlier. In 1872 was the unit of the churches. By this time the western population was so largely from Huron and Bruce counties that many got the impression that Huron and Bruce were larger than Ontario.

Dr. Gordon moved to Winnipeg, where he took a prominent part in the religious and educational life of the west, also taking part in the North-West rebellion. In 1886 the C. P. R. came through, opening up the west for a stream of settlers from the east. Then came the removal of Gordon to Halifax, first as minister of a church, and later as professor of the Presbyterian College there. From there he was called to Queen's University.

Dr. Gordon said in closing: "These have been eventful years, and one feels that it was something to have lived in such a way, even although the present day is the most eventful, to my mind, in which the world has ever lived."

He emphasized the necessity for education of the young, using education in the broadest sense. Our Canadian churches have been weak along that line, and we should realize that work for the young is work for the future.

Only as the evening shadows fall do we realize how poor a day's work we have done, so with the day of life, as the evening shadows fall around us, do we see what mistakes we have made, but one would rather, looking back through the year, thank God for the inestimable privilege of fellowship with the brethren in the work of God's Kingdom.

Presbytery adjourned at 1 p. m., when the members lunched together in the Principal's rooms at the University. The session was resumed at 2.30 o'clock.

Washing Won't Rid Head Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight and by morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.
