If you know a returned soldier, ask him about the need for munitions.

Ask him whether he thinks we can have enough.

Ask him what it means to charge a German trench that has not been blasted away by sufficient shell fire.

His answer should inspire you to any personal sacrifice when the call comes to work in a munitions plant.

BARNS AND CROP BURNED

Mr. Rankin, Jones' Falls, Lost Heavily by Destruction. Elgin, Dec. 13.-The barns of T. Timlin, near Jones' Falls, were burned early on Wednesday afternoon. The fire was discovered by Kennedy, who in passing saw smoke coming from the drive-shed, but in spite of the best efforts the whole of the barns were burned. No clue can be given as to how the fire originated. The farm is rented by Mr. Rankin, who lost all his crop.
