Up in the Air -- On the Egg Market -- With the Boats On and Under the Sea

WITH THE FRENCH TROOPS IN PICARDY-- Above is a French balloon going aloft for the observation of artillery fire (Upper left).

EGGS FOR SHIPMENT TO EUROPE--This is only one of the many wagonloads of eggs which are weekly being shipped to Europe for belligerent and neutral countries (Upper right).

SUBMARINE CHASERS ON THE SOUND--Photo shows submarine chaser going at top speed on Long Island Sound. It is said that one hundred of these 30 knots an hour boats have been built at Sag Harbor for a foreign government. They are to be used to chase German submarines that may come to this side of the Atlantic.

Two Sides of the German-French Conflict. Showing Hun Prisoners and a "Seventy-five" at Work

GERMAN PRISONERS CAPTURED: These men were taken at Beaumont-Hamel.

WITH THE FRENCH AT VERDUN: A battery of 75's executing a "barrage" firing at Daumont.
