

Views of Queen's General Hospital at Le Treport, France

GENERAL VIEW OF NO. 7 CANADIAN GENERAL HOSPITAL, SENT BY QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY, KINGSTON.

VIEW SHOWING OUTDOOR TREATMENT PRACTISED DURING FINE WEATHER.

GROUP ON THE MEDICAL SIDE, WITH DR. EDWARD KIDD, TRENTON, IN CENTRE

OPERATING ROOM STAFF. Dr. John F. Kidd, Ottawa, in centre. Nursing Sister Annie Bailey, Kingston, on his right.

NURSING SISTERS IN DINING TENT.

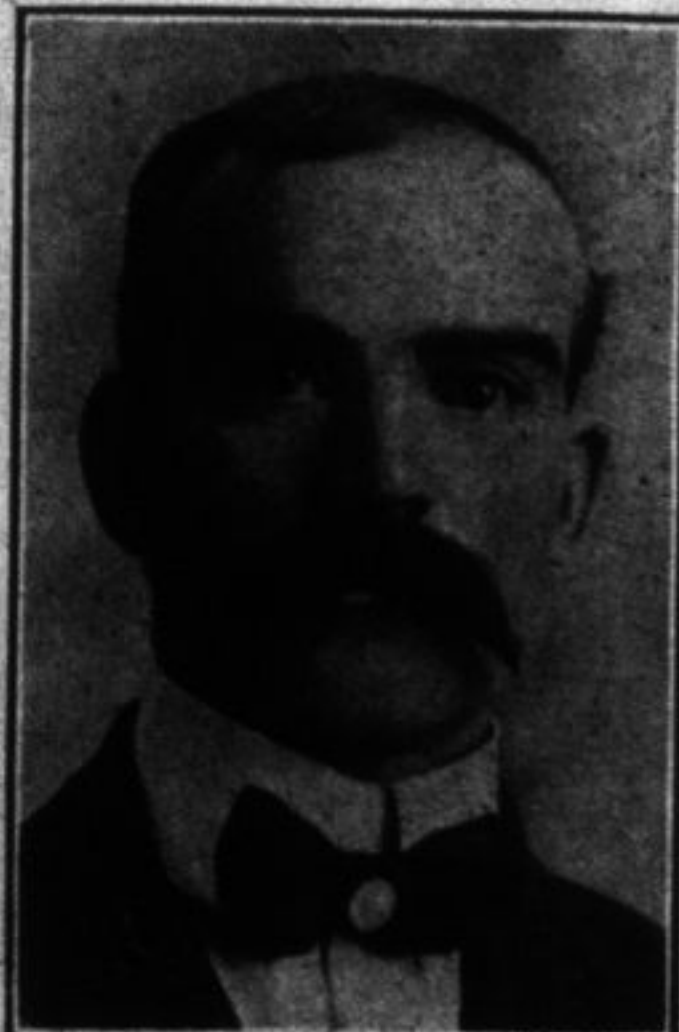

IN THE SURGICAL WARD.

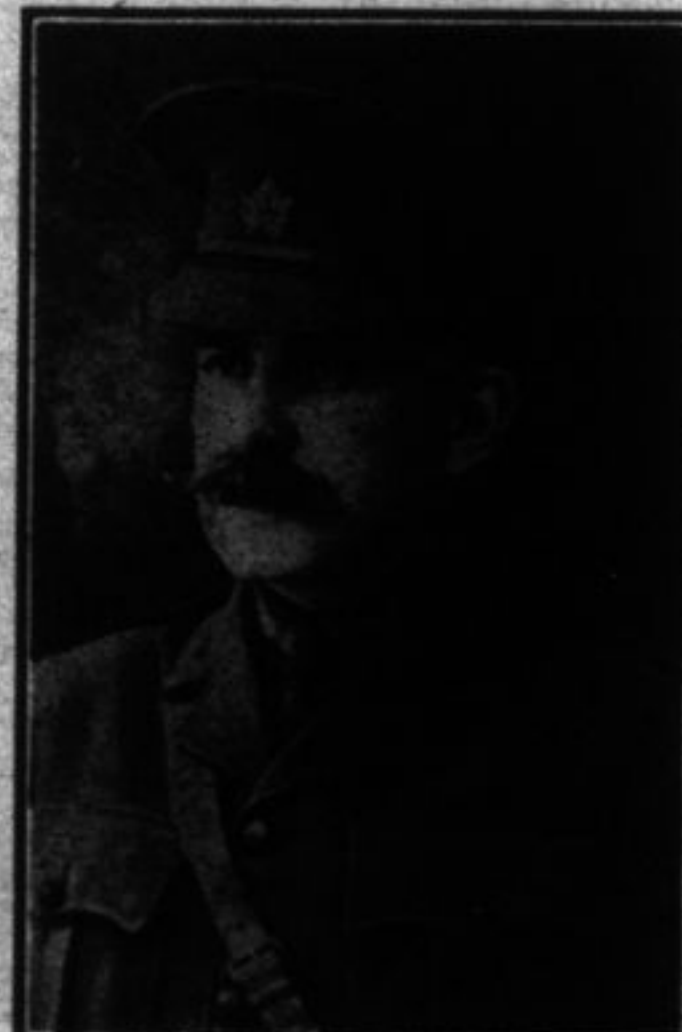

First row—Capt. W. H. Ballantyne, Kingston; Capt. G. Platt, formerly of Kingston; Capt. Tower. Top row—Sergt.-Major Pilkey; Capt. G. E. Kidd, Kingston; Capt. Graham.

PTE. DAWSON McCLELLAND, overseas with 146th Batt., now in France. Formerly resided at 451 Barrie St., city.

DRIVER W. K. ACKLEY, who went overseas with first draft of R. C. H. A., over two years ago, and is now somewhere in France.

CAPT. J. CRAIGIE NORWELL, Headquarters Staff, Kingston.

BALMORAL CAP BADGE OF THE 253RD, QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY BATTALION, OF KINGSTON.

THOMAS POLLITT, 223 Division Street, Kingston, on the S.S. Carpathian, as British navyman.

DRIVER RALPH JAMIESON, Kingston, with C.A.S.O., now at Shorncliffe Camp, England.

PTE. W. BOWMAN, Nephew of Mrs. J. Lamontague, Watertown, N. Y., wounded in France.

PTE. RAYMOND O. LANOS, 14th Battalion Machine Gun Depot, England, and formerly of the 14th Battalion. He is the second son of Prof. J. M. Lanos, of Kingston.

CAPT. A. BERNIER, 60th Montreal Battalion, who played on the 14th and Wanderer hockey teams here several years ago.

DRIVER N. J. POLLITT, Aged fifteen years and six months, of 223 Division Street, Kingston, with 2nd C. D. Column, 33rd Battery draft at the front.

CORP. CHAS. H. BROOK, Of 72nd Battalion, B.E.F. (formerly a sergeant in the 89th Batt.), now in France. He is a son of C. H. Brook, 78 Victoria Ave., Belleville.

DRIVER C. ASHWORTH, Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ashworth, Frontenac Street, overseas with 8th draft of the R. C. H. A., now in France with Divisional Ammunition Column. Before leaving he was employed with his father at the Ideal Theatre.

PTE. A. McALLISTER, C. M. S. C., left last week for England to resume his duties after six weeks' furlough in Kingston with his wife. They reside at 4 Concession Street.

PTE. J. W. LISTER, Enlisted with 50th Batt., transferred to 50th Calgary Batt. Wounded in the leg and thigh on the Somme on Nov. 29th. Son of Mrs. Lister, 40 Stanley St., Kingston.