Municipal Elections.

The labor men stuck to Dr. Richardson last January and they will give him strong support again on Monday.

Mayor Richardson, as president of the Children's Aid Society, does not propose to treat unfortunate fathers and mothers as if there was no hope for them, when their children are taken from them.

That was a happy scheme of Mayor Richardson in saving the city later on $5,000 on street lighting, wasn't it? And some people have the audacity to say that the city needs a "business" man for mayor.

Kingston does not want a "business" man for mayor who stands by and sees the city soaked for over $330 demurrage because he failed to arrange for the unloading of a coal vessel. That was Ald. Hughes' idea of a good business.

Electors of all wards should steer clear of candidates who would vote to spend thousands of dollars in expensive street paving in these war times. Ald. Hughes is a street paving enthusiast and Kingston cannot stand for road luxuries at present.

One of Dr. Richardson's ardent supporters is Ex-Mayor Graham, who will work in Rideau and Victoria wards for the re-election of the present mayor, who, he believes, is the man the people should elect, because he is of the safe type to be at the head of affairs.

The people of Rideau and Frontenac wards promise to give Mayor Richardson good majorities. The other wards will also help in the good work.

If a fifth man had stood in Rideau ward, Payne would not have a supporter in Council from that ward. Payne is linked up with Laturney, and the Rideau ward electors should get wise to this.

Anglin, Norris and Polson are the representatives Oxtaragui ward are sure to choose on Monday.

"I am working to elect Dr. Richardson as mayor," said C. J. Graham to the Whig to-day, "and I hope to see him win on Monday. He's the right man for the position, and I'll help him all I can."

The public school voters in Rideau ward should give Norman Smith a chance to represent them on the Board of Education. He knows all about the needs of the kids and is a popular resident of that ward.

It will be a great race in Sydenham ward, but something will have gone wrong if the ward does not elect Black and Millan.

The popular trio in Frontenac ward are Corbett, Smith and Wright. Ald. Peters has fallen from grace over the fair grounds matter and getting that job for Contractor Payne.

In the Civic Arena.

CANDIDATES WHO SHOULD BE ELECTED.

Mayor—Dr. A. W. Richardson. Aldermen—Sydenham Ward. Dr. D. Allen Black. D. J. Millan. H. C. Nickle or T. J. O'Connor.

Cataragui Ward. N. C. Polson, Jr. James Norris. C. S. Anglin.

Frontenac Ward. S. S. Corbett. J. W. Wright. George C. Wright.

Rideau Ward. Daniel Cooper. W. R. Clugston. R. J. Armstrong.

Clugston and Cooper are aldermen to whom Rideau Ward electors pledge their faith. Both are good representatives.

The Weekly Bulletin says: "There will be no work on Monday at the Locomotive Works. All hands will join in rolling up a big majority for Dr. Richardson."

Major Richardson saved the citizens from having to erect an unnecessary Children's Aid shelter, which would have added two mills to the taxes. Keep him in office.

"Remember, Dr. Richardson has been one of the best mayors that Kingston has ever had. Did you ever hear him speak? He is a daisy and an ornament to the city. Vote for him on Monday." This is the advice given the people by Editor Daley of the Kingston Weekly Bulletin.

MORE CHRISTMAS EVENTS

CHILDREN AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH PORTSMOUTH, ENTERTAINED.

Annual Event of St. Andrew's Church Was Held on Friday Night—Chalmers Sunday School Also Had Programme.

The Christmas tree and entertainment for the children of St. John's church at Portsmouth was held on Thursday night, and it was a happy event. The children were given a supper at 5 o'clock, after which there was a programme, in which the children took part, and following the programme the presents were taken from the tree, Frank Nicholson filling the role of Santa Claus.

The rector, Rev. J. O. Crisp, presided, and J. E. Walkom presented the prizes given for regular attendance at the Sunday school. This year, on account of the war, the scholars did not have their usual treat, devoting their money to the Belgian Relief Fund.

Chalmers Christmas Event.

A splendid entertainment was held in Chalmers church Sunday School when Prof. Henderson showed some good views of the Rocky Mountains and gave a most instructive address to a large audience. The entertainment was augmented by musical items that were well received. D. J. Laidlaw presided. It will be remembered that instead of the usual Christmas tree and entertainment this year the gifts were presented to the children before Christmas and this event was to take the place of the usual entertainment.

Sydenham Street Methodist.

The primary and junior departments of Sydenham street Methodist Church Sunday School held their Christmas entertainment on Friday. The junior department entertainment was from 4 to 6 o'clock and the primary from 6 to 8 o'clock. There was a large number of children at each event and the programmes were exceptionally good.

St. Andrew's Church.

The annual Christmas entertainment of St. Andrew's Sunday school was held last evening. The scholars had tea and afterwards a programme was given by them. Santa Claus arrived about nine o'clock and distributed presents to all the children of the primary classes from the Christmas tree.

An Appreciation.

At a meeting of the City Council on Dec. 18th Mayor Richardson stated that the citizens owed Ald. Nickle a debt of gratitude for his labors. "In every department of civic life Ald. Nickle has shown himself active and sincere," said His Worship.—Whig, Dec. 19th, 1916.

Few Know.

That the candidate (Fred Simmons) for Cataragui Ward, has successfully managed the King Edward theatre for the past nine years.

A new English tree-felling machine, making a smooth cut close to the ground, is said to do the work of thirty wood-choppers.

UTILITIES COMMISSION HOLDS FINAL MEETING

Davis Tannery Wants Power—Commission Concludes a Most Satisfactory Year.

The Utilities Commission held its last meeting of the year on Friday afternoon, with Chairman T. J. Rigby and Commissioners Toye and Elliott and Mayor Richardson present. Elmer Davis, of the Davis Tannery Company, asked the Commission to quote a price for power-supply. He was not in a position to say how much power would be needed nor when he might require it. The Commission instructed the manager to report on the matter.

A statement was received from the city treasurer with regard to balances on hand, but more detailed information will have to be given as to the nature of the balances. The Commission will be unable for some time yet to announce what its profits for the year will be. The Commission has concluded the most satisfactory year since the city took over the electric and gas plants.

PHONE THE RESULTS TO WHIG OFFICE.

Supporters of Dr. Richardson would do the Whig a favor by telephoning the results at their polling sub-division as soon as the count is made on Monday evening. Telephone No. 243. The aldermanic results will also be eagerly awaited by hundreds of people at the Whig bulletin.

A Voice From Cataragui Ward.

Kingston, Dec. 30.—(To the Editor)—As a Cataragui Ward voter I am glad to see Ald. Polson in the field for re-election. As a business man, with his ward's interest at heart, he has stood for a square deal for Cataragui Ward streets. I remember well his telling the council that it they were half as progressive as the electorate in his ward neither Rideau or Montreal streets would have been so neglected for years past. I have admired Mr. Polson's bold, progressive stand in public questions and am sure his efforts are appreciated and that he will be returned at the head of the poll.
