"KNOTTY" LEE'S LEAGUE HAS HOPEFUL OUTLOOK

Cities of Proposed Circuit Ready to Support Plan Heartily.

Robert Bedford, the International League umpire, who at one time handed an indicator in the Canuck circuit, thinks that "Knotty" Lee is on the right track in trying to form a league composed of Ontario and Michigan cities.

JAMES BRAID STILL LIVING.

An Obscure Professional of That Name Who Was Killed.

James Braid is not dead. At least the eminent Scotch-golfer, who was reported as having been killed in a railroad accident a fortnight ago, was not killed at all. He is very much alive and looking forward to coming tournaments not only in Great Britain, but the United States.

At all events the great Braid will have the pleasure of reading several hundred columns of obituary notices that have appeared in American newspapers and periodicals since the report of his death reached this country.

Incidentally the news will come as a pleasurable shock to the legion of admirers of the great golfer on this side of the Atlantic. Whenever golfers congregate one of the chief topics of conversation recently have been associated with his supposed death.

GANZEL WANTS KANSAS CITY.

Manager of Club is Ambitious to be Owner.

John Ganzel, recently appointed manager of the Kansas City club of the American Association, has opened negotiations for the purchase of the club. Ganzel, who is said to have offered George Tebeau, owner of the franchise, $175,000, is reported to have the financial support of the Wards of New York, who backed the Brooklyn Federal League Club, of which Ganzel was manager.

How Hockey May Help.

A military hockey league has been organized in Quebec. The object of the organization is to assist recruiting in the 5th military district, assist comrades at the front by donating 25 per cent. of the gate receipts to the Daughters of the Empire, bring the members of the various units in Quebec together, to provide a form of amusement for returned soldiers whilst awaiting disposal in Quebec and create civilian interest in military sports.

None of these seem to be brutalizing, demoralizing or debasing aims and purposes, and the game of hockey is likely to flourish in Canada in war time and be of much benefit, in spite of the denunciation of the Cornwall judge.

Building Golf Course.

One of the finest golf courses in the country, with initial expenditures amounting to more than a million dollars, is to be laid out on 1,400 acres of ground near Somerville, N. J., for the benefit of wealthy Canadians residing in New York and Philadelphia. The Canadians will organize a golf club, it was said, and many of them plan to establish summer homes on the property.

MAX CAREY'S RECORD.

Pittsburg Outfielder Made 419 "Put Outs" During Last Season.

Max Carey, Pittsburgh outfielder, now can be called the Tris Speaker of the National League, for last season he performed a stunt that previously no one else than the great Texan had been able to do. By absorbing 419 flies, the Pittsburgher set a new record for the suburbanites of the older organization and came within six of the number gathered in by Speaker in 1914. Tris was the first American League outfielder to pass the 400 mark in "put-outs" and Max is the first National outfielder to do so, unless some one turned such a feat previous to 1901. Carey, by annexing 419 "put outs," virtually equalled Speaker's record of two years ago, for then Tristram E. played in 157 combats while this past season Max engaged in but 154. And Carey was only very briefly in one of these contests.

DILLON AND DARCY MATCH.

They Will Come Together Before a Brooklyn Club.

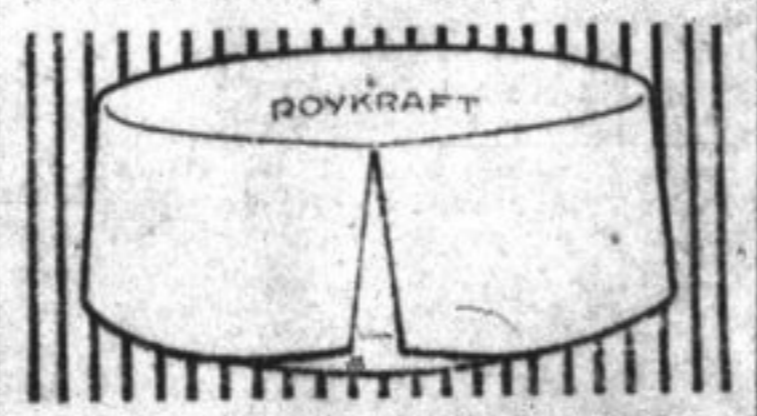

Jack Dillon, Indianapolis, light heavyweight fighter, has accepted an offer to meet Les Darcy, the Australian champion, before a Brooklyn, N.Y., sporting club, according to an announcement made by Dillon's manager.

The purse to be given was not given out and the date of the fight has not been set.

William Murray, formerly manager of the Phils, will get an important post with the Red Sox at a top salary. Frazee and Ward realize they need a practical baseball man on the club's executive staff, and they made a wise move in picking Murray. It is said that Murray will have full control of the Red Sox, doing the work of the club president, and that he will get a salary of $10,000 a year.

The minor league umpires are up in arms. At a meeting of the National Association in Chicago, they decided to demand treatment similar to that accorded to arbiters in the major leagues.

TIGERS INVITE DARCY.

If Les Darcy, the Australian ring wizard, is sincere in his desire to enlist after he gets enough money to keep his mother, father and sisters in comfort, he may consider seriously the invitation extended to him by the Hamilton Tigers, and enlist with them, for it was learned yesterday that Captain "Bobby" Kerr had written Darcy, asking him, if he enlisted in Canada, to join the Tiger Battalion.

BRITT IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Former Prominent Lightweight Still in the Boxing Game.

Boxing is having quite a boom in South Africa, the only drawback being a lack of good material from outside for matches of class, according to Charley Edenberry, a Milwaukee lad and former sparring partner of Battling Nelson. Charley has been touring the Orient and Australia and landed in South Africa a few months ago, where he joined forces with Jimmy Britt, at one time lightweight champion of the Pacific coast. Jimmy was doing a vaudeville stunt. The talk of Jimmy being in the trenches was all bunk.

"I was greatly surprised to meet Jimmy Britt on my arrival at Krugersdorp, South Africa," writes Charley, "but it was good to see him, and we have been together ever since we met here. It may surprise you to learn that Britt is training here to box Pat Clancy, lightweight champion of South Africa, twenty rounds. I am boxing with Jimmy every day and also do road work with him.

"I may box a fellow named Frank Cato, but have not closed definitely for it as yet. There is good money here for lightweights, as most of the boys are at the front fighting in the trenches. Jimmy and I are having lots of fun travelling about in pickshas. Great sport! The blacks here are called Kaffirs. They pull the rickshas about and 'pansy' means stop. 'Footsack' means hurry up. Jimmy does nothing but yell 'Footsack,' and he has the poor Kaffir jumping about like an unamed broncho. Expect to leave soon for India and Jimmy will either return to England or go to Australia and then home. Best to Bat Nelson and all the boys."

RESOLUTE TO COME OUT.

Sir Thomas Lipton, However, Gives Orders to Hold Shamrock.

George Nichols, manager of the syndicate owning her, recently inspected the cup defender Resolute, which is still in the shed at Walker's Cove, awaiting the time for the race for the America's cup. Resolute was found to be in the best of condition, though she was not put overboard last summer, and will remain under cover until spring, when it is said that she will be brought out for the New York Yacht Club cruise next summer.

Shamrock is still in her quarters at a Brooklyn yacht basin, and there is little chance of her being brought out next spring, as Sir Thomas Lipton does not want her off the ways until she is needed for the cup race.

Much Color for Giants.

The New York Giants are going in for violet uniforms again next year, with sweater jackets of royal purple. This talk of violets and heliotropes and such things aesthetic as that may be for the reason for the rumor that Artie Shafer will return to the team next year.

Pulpit Over Home Plate.

The Buffalo International League Ball Park is to be the scene of Billy Sunday "Trail Hitting" sessions this winter. The ground has been leased as a site for the "Tabernacle." The pulpit and the tabernacle will be over the home plate.

New Stand for Giants.

The New York National League club is going to build a new grand stand at its training park in Marlin, in preparation for the crowds expected to see the exhibition games in the spring with the Detroit Tigers.
