

Pictures of War Scenes, and of Those Engaged in "Finishing the Job."

Above is a picture of a tennis game being played immediately back of the firing line. Note the house wrecked by bombs shortly before the game. Baseball and football also have their sponsors—within earshot of explosive bombs.

To the left is a photograph of Divisional Cyclists undergoing "foot inspection" at Exhibition Camp, Toronto. Great care is exercised in seeing that these men have the proper pedal extremities.

Hon. A. E. Kemp, Canada's new Minister of Militia. Canada has been fortunate in securing for this important post a gentleman splendidly equipped for service. Mr. Kemp will prove an aggressive and forceful administrator of this important Department of the Government.

To the right—A view of the British Consulate at Monastir.

To the left—Queer entrance to an officer's billet at Monastir.

On the western front with the troops receiving gifts of cigarettes from the manufacturers. These remembrances are greatly appreciated.

Solving the Agricultural Labor Problem in England.—Sir Walpole Greenwell, with five of the women farmers, graduated from his school.
