"Fagged-Out" Women

Will Find a Helpful Suggestion in This Letter.
Overworked, run down "fagged-out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Mrs. Carter's experience. She says: "I am the mother of six children and I got so weak and run-down that I couldn't eat anything and it seemed almost impossible for me to get around and do my work. I tried different doctors' remedies without benefit. I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it, and received so much benefit from the first bottle that I continued to take it, and it has built up my strength and made me strong and well. I consider Vinol the best medicine I have ever taken, and advise all weak, run-down women to try it." Mrs. Belsie Carter, State Road, N.C.

If all the tired, overworked, run-down women in Kingston could only realize how our delicious Vinol, which contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, supplies the vital elements necessary to build up blood and strength, we wouldn't be able to supply the demand. Mahood's Drug store, Kingston. Also at the best druggist in all Ontario towns.

One package proves it. Soid and guaranteed by above Vinol druggist.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL EVENT.

Held at Princess Street Church on Thursday Evening.

The intermediate department of Princess street Sunday school had a very enjoyable time Thursday evening. A fine supper was spread for the seventy-five members present, and afterwards a programme consisting of songs by Miss K. Flynn and W. H. Mack and Dr. E. Lake from the Baptist church put on his fine collection of views of the Rideau Lake route from Ottawa to Kingston. The lovely spots on the Rideau, taken by the doctor and painted in their natural colors by himself, shows him to be a master in handling a camera, and also in artistic coloring. A cordial vote of thanks was presented to the doctor by Mr. Jones, the chairman, for his splendid entertainment.

DID NOT HELP TO FRESHEN THE MIMORY OF JAMES MCKIBBLIN.

Could Not Say Who Gave Him Liquor and the Magistrate Imposed a Fine of $20 and Costs by One Month—Had $96.35 When Placed Under Arrest.

Even a week in jail did not help to freshen the memory of one James McKibblin. One would have thought that seven days spent in such a quiet place would have assisted him in getting his "thinking cap" on. However, it did not, and so his little stay behind lock and key did not benefit him when he was called upon to face the music for a second time in the Police Court on Friday morning.

McKibblin was before the Magistrate just a week ago for being drunk, but the funny part of it was that he could not recall where he had secured his refreshments. He did have a faint recollection about a man and a bottle, but no, he could not remember the man's name. When the case was called on Friday morning McKibblin was again placed in the box.

"I got it from a man, but I do not know his name," was the reply. "The man who gave me the liquor was taking a drink out of a bottle himself, and I hit him up for a drink too."

The Magistrate did not wait to hear any more of the story. Right off the bat he announced that the fine would be $20 and costs, with the option of one month in jail.

Even this did not startle McKibblin, for there was one thing he did remember, even though his memory was bad on other things, and that was that when locked up he had about $100 in his possession. To be exact he had $96.35 in his jeans when gathered in, and this was safeguarded by the police. As he had the funds, he paid his way and went. McKibblin has been considering, but has been given his discharge. He blew into Kingston from Trenton in order to get his discharge papers, and his meeting with the mysterious man and the bottle occurred after getting his discharge.

LIVELY INTEREST AWAKENED.

By Canvass in Kingston for Equal Franchise.

The free lecture and discussion in the City Hall to-night, as advertised on Equal Franchise for Women, should prove an eye-opener. This question which is sweeping over the most advanced communities in the world, has till now received in Kingston, and in Ontario generally, but little consideration. Where the franchise is exercised by the women as well as by the men, New Zealand, for instance, the tendency of registration for the general well-being of the people has been decidedly upward. The canvass that is now being conducted in Kingston is awakening a lively interest, and meeting with a cordial response from men as well as from women. Several thousand signatures are expected. The women when they have the vote will use it to co-operate with the men, in enacting legislation along lines in which they are naturally more interested, and which they therefore understand better, such as school matters, pure food and proper prices for it, adequate protection for women and children and such like. These are lines along which the women's vote has helped elsewhere, and will also help in Kingston and Ontario.

Letters To The Editor

Opposes Closing Streets.
Kingston, Jan. 19.—(To the Editor): Will you kindly show me as a resident of Frontenac Ward to enter a protest against the proposed closing of Adelaide street by the City Council. If that street is closed the block between James and Stephen streets will be no less than 750 feet long, over double the length of ordinary blocks. This would be a serious obstacle to children going to Frontenac school from Montreal street in the near future. Why we wanted the street opened up was to facilitate children going to school. At present they have to take a long, round-about way, but apart from all that, it is a great mistake to close a street. Kingston's experience in the past with closed streets should deter the aldermen from taking the step proposed. If the street be closed it will be only another case of buying the land back a few years hence. Surely the Board of Education will take action in the matter.—FRONTENAC.
