

Some Near Glimpses of Women Who Have Achieved Fame

Alma Gluck, one of the world's greatest opera singers, at her home. In the carriage, Miss Gluck. Papa is an equally distinguished personage, he is the far-famed Zimbalist.

"A little English, if you please."

"How do you like my new Toque and Collar? It's of Seal and pretty chic, don't you think? I do, anyway."

Mrs. Grace Elvina Duggan, widow of Alfred Duggan, of Buenos Ayres, who was recently married to Earl Curzon of Kedleston, formerly Viceroy of India.

Miss Clara Catharine Haywood, of Cynwood, Philadelphia, the greatest billiard expert of her sex. Miss Haywood, who is nineteen years of age, began playing billiards in March, 1911. For two years she practised on a 4 1/2 x 9 table in her home. During that period she played frequently with Dr. R. H. Switzer, a skillful amateur. The progress she made caused Dr. Switzer to recommend that she take instructions from Harry P. Clise, Philadelphia's foremost professional, who has held championships at three cushion caroms and 18.3 balkline. Under the tutelage of Clise she advanced steadily.
