CLIPPED FROM THE WHIG'S MANY BRIGHT EXCHANGES.

In Brief From the Events in the Country About Kingston Are Told—Full of Interest to Many.

Charles McGee, Brockville, fell down an elevator shaft at the Canadian Carriage Co's plant. He was gathered up in an unconscious state. At Pembroke a pleasant event took place when Warden-elect J. R. Davidson had as his guests at a banquet the members of council, the county officials and some others.

Dr. Harry Jarman, son of G. R. Jarman, police magistrate, Bancroft, was killed in action somewhere in France on Jan. 15th. He had been away on active service for two years.

Alexander Dunbar, architect, who designed the plans for Trenton's new enterprise, the National Feature Films Ltd., now in course of erection, is busy preparing plans for the erection of a new $25,000 opera house. Mrs. Lydia Lingham, relict of the late Thomas Lingham, passed away at the home of her son, Fred Lingham, at Lockport, N. Y., on Jan. 22nd. Deceased was the daughter of the late Allen McTaggart, and was born at Moira, Ont.

Rev. George C. Wood, Merrickville, has received word from France that his oldest son, George E. Wood, was promoted to be a commissioned officer on the field of battle on January 2nd. Mr. Wood enlisted from Albert College, Belleville, as a private with the 21st Eastern Ontario Battalion over two years ago and has been on active service in France and Belgium for nearly a year and a half.

May Lose an Eye.

Belleville, Jan. 25.—Carpar J. Wills, partner in the firm of Peck & Wills, was the victim of an accident which may cause him the loss of his right eye. While operating a revolving saw, a knot flew up from the stick that was being sawn with such force as to cause serious injury to his eye. He was taken to the City Hospital.

A SPLENDID RESIDENT.

Passed Away at Lyn in Person of James Bulloch.

Lyn, Jan. 25.—On Wednesday the death took place in Lyn of possibly the oldest resident of Leeds County in James Bulloch. Deceased had been in poor health for some years, his advanced age being the contributing cause. He was a native of Scotland, having been born in that country in Sept., 1825, and was therefore ninety-one years of age at the time of his death. He came to Canada with his parents when nine years of age. The family settled at Gananoque. He was educated at that place and took up residence in Lyn sixty-two years ago. For the greater part of that period he was employed in the last factory. Deceased was a skilled mechanic and one who held the confidence and esteem of all with whom he came in contact.

He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Margaret McMahon, who died a number of years ago. By this union a family of two sons and two daughters survive. They are Messrs. G. W. Bulloch, Winnipeg, and James Bulloch, Jr., of Harford, Cal.; Mrs. C. Wight, Portland, Ore.; and Miss Agnes Bulloch, Montreal. His second wife, who also predeceased him, was Miss Lucinda Thompson, and by the marriage one daughter, Miss Stella Bulloch, survives. She resides at home and was most devoted in caring for her aged father.

The late Mr. Bulloch was a Presbyterian in religion. He was a Liberal in politics. He was a man exceptionally well read. Despite his advanced years, Mr. Bulloch retained all his natural faculties to the last. His reminiscences of other years were very interesting and notably entertaining. He was a man of splendid physical appearance and robust character. His word was as good as his bond.

235th is Getting Them.

Belleville, Jan. 26.—In two days 23 men have been enlisted in the 235th Battalion in their campaign. "Give Us His Name" cards have brought in the names of nearly three hundred young men fit to take up arms.

Gananoque

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The funeral of the late Daniel Brown, one of the pioneers of Pittsburg township, was held yesterday afternoon from the family home near Sand Hill to Gananoque vault.

Under the auspices of the Citizens' band orchestra another well attended Assembly was held in Turner's Hall last evening.

The Women's Auxiliary of Christ church held a successful afternoon tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman B. Cowan yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Richardson, Church street, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary yesterday, and received congratulations from many friends.

May Extend Limits.

Brockville, Jan. 25.—The Recorder has heard of a movement yet in embryo to extend the eastern and northern limits of Brockville. The idea is right and should be feasible. The residents of the township of Elizabethtown, being contiguous to Brockville, enjoy all of the privileges of the municipality while Brockville people are responsible for the maintenance of the advantages now so extensively enjoyed.

A well-known citizen of Colborne passed away on Jan. 14th in the person of J. T. Nunn, aged sixty-six years. He was in the employ of the Grand Trunk Railway for over thirty-five years.

USE CANADIAN MATERIAL.

New York Pro-German Papers Need Our Resources.

Montreal, Jan. 25.—The Journal of Commerce asserts that the Staats-Zeitung, of New York, is printed on paper made from ground wood and sulphite pulp imported from Canada, and that the Hearst string of papers are also printed for the most part on paper manufactured from Canadian raw material. Surely the Trading with the Enemy Act covers these cases, suggests the Journal of Commerce.

WANT TO GET RID OF U. S. MINISTER

Who Investigated Discovery of Microbes in Garden of German Legation.

Jassy, Rumania, Jan. 26.—The demand of the German Government for the removal of M. Vopicka and Dr. C. Van Vredenburg, American and Dutch ministers at Bucharest, excites indignation. The German authorities are naturally anxious to relieve themselves of the presence of impartial witnesses, while the American representative is especially obnoxious owing to his having sanctioned the investigation by officers of the Legation of the circumstances concerning the discovery of packages containing microbes of dangerous diseases found buried in the garden of the German Legation. It is probably also thought desirable to remove the foreign representatives before the proposed meeting of the Kaiser and Allied sovereigns at Bucharest.

The result of the war is awaited here with confidence.

ON THE VERGE OF GREATEST LIBERATION

The World Has Seen Since French Revolution, Says Premier Lloyd George.

London, Jan. 26.—Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George gave an important interview yesterday on the subject of the forthcoming Imperial War Council to the London correspondent of the Australian United Cable Service. The Prime Minister said that we are on the verge of the greatest liberation the world has seen since the French Revolution, and the peoples who have stood together and staked liberally everything in order to bring that liberty about are going to perpetuate that unity afterwards on an equal basis.

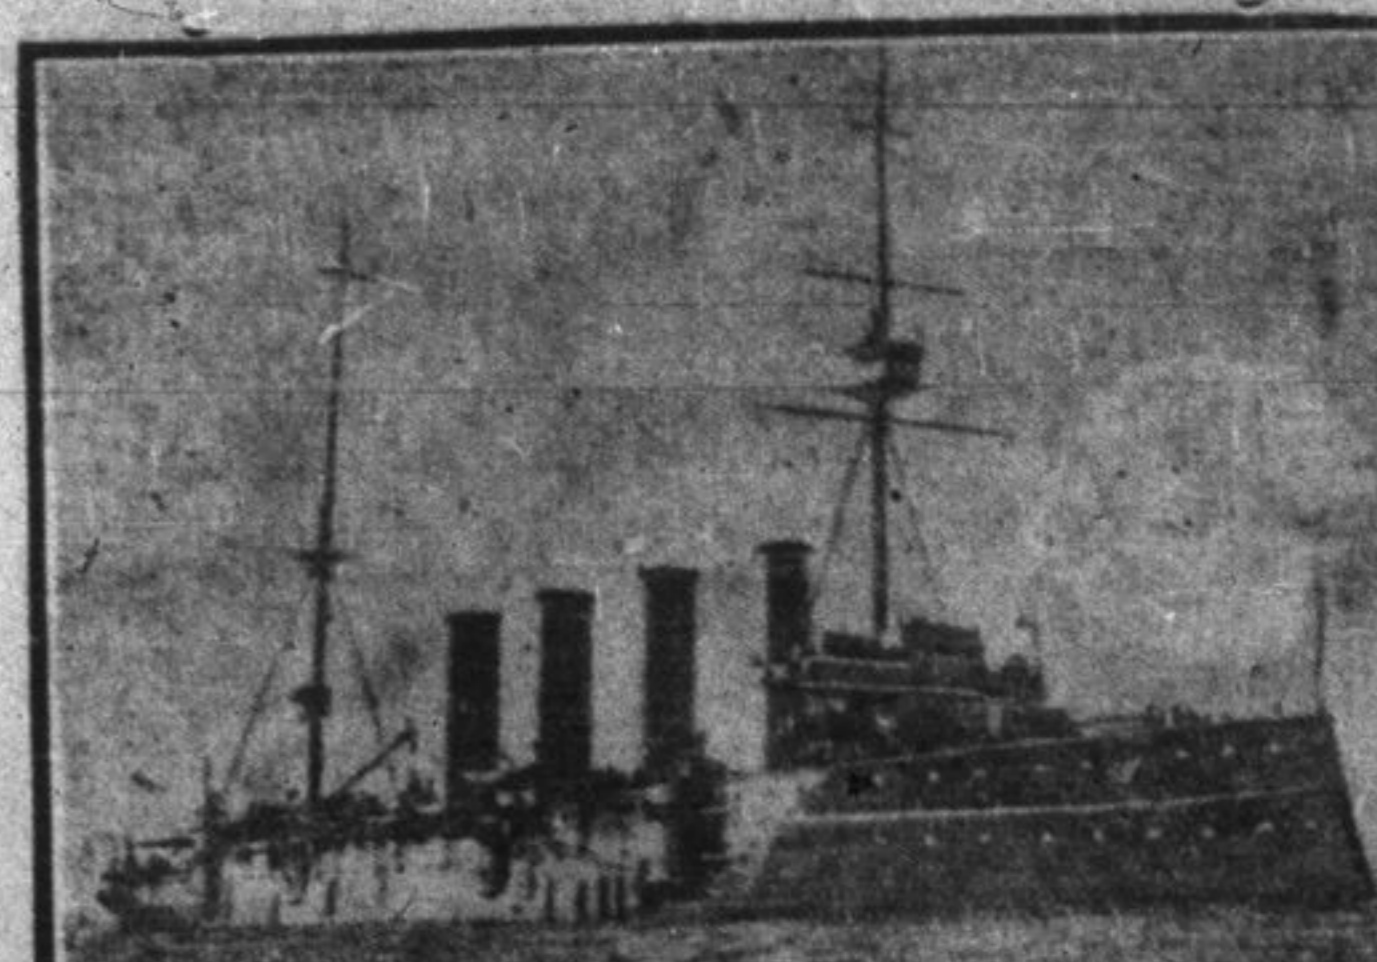

Altar Presented to Church.

Brockville, Jan. 26.—A handsome gift has just been received by St. James' church at Maitland. The gift is a beautiful memorial altar, and is given as a memorial and bears the following inscription: "This altar is erected in loving memory of Mrs. Chilton Jones, who was for many years a worshipper in this old parish church." The name of the donor of the rich gift was withheld.

By a new Order-in-Council the Treasury is empowered under the Defence of the Realm Act to requisition any foreign securities which may be required to strengthen Great Britain's financial position and also to require holders of such securities to make a return on them to the Treasury.
