

American Submarines Visit Cuban Capital

Training British Mounts

Officials of the city of Havana leaving submarine L2 after a ceremonious visit to Group L of the United States submarine division on its recent visit to the Cuban capital, said to have been the first time American submarines have visited that city.

The horse-supply of our yeomanry. Arabs and "Walers," as the big-boned, fifteen to sixteen hands weight-carrying Australian horses are generally called (from their principal place of origin, New South Wales) are employed for mounting our cavalry regiments almost everywhere outside Europe. In hot countries, such as India and Egypt, Arabs and "Walers" stand the climate well.

BOMBARDEER JOHN S. PATTERSON,
4th Brigade, 19th Battery, C.F.A.
Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Patterson, of Pittsburg township. Enlisted at Winnipeg, Dec. 1914, and has been in France for one year. His wife and daughter are now the guests of his sister, Mrs. Geo. Franklin, Pittsburg.

French women who are nurses and voluntary workers in the French hospital at Le Mans. In the picture on the left they are seen plucking geese to make pillows. The pictures were sent to the Secours National with thanks for bales sent to the hospital.

A GROUP OF CANADIAN PRISONERS IN GERMANY. Pte. Hunter Godfrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Godfrey, 217 Mark St., East City, is the soldier second from the right in the front row. He enlisted with the Canadian Mounted Rifles and was taken prisoner in the battle of Hillbake in June last.
