NEED FOR FIRST AID MEN

STRONGLY EMPHASIZED BY MAJOR L. W. GILL,

Of the 46th (Queen's) Battery—Such Men Can Save Dozens of Lives Every Day.

The following are extracts from a letter of the 26th December, received by Principal Gordon from Major L. W. Gill, of the 46th Battery. "There is need for first aid men, men who have the courage and strength to go to the front and give immediate aid; also men who can assist and do the routine work at the field ambulance and hospitals. Men could be trained for the service in three months. At the Somme the need of such men was impressed on my mind very deeply. Men of this kind could save dozens of lives per day. Men who are wounded and can walk go straggling back to the dressing station. Sometimes they have someone to accompany them and sometimes not. In any case, they often get lost when it is dark, and that is the last of them. I took probably a dozen of such men into my dugout, and tied up their wounds; then sent them to the dressing station. This was in our last position on the Somme, where we were about 2,500 yards from the front line. "Since writing last we had another man killed—W. O. B. Keary, of Armstrong. H. C. and three badly wounded—H. S. S. Wilson, Carleton Place, Ont. (science 17); R. H. Reive, Churchill, Ont., and G. B. Molard, Toronto. They were all drivers, and were on their way back to the horse lines after delivering ammunition about 5.30 a.m. As they were passing along the main road through what was once the village of Pozieres, a 6 in. high explosive shell landed right in their midst. In addition to the men, seven horses were either killed or had to be killed, and four more had to be sent to veterinary hospital. "Notwithstanding our losses I consider that we were very fortunate during our seven weeks' sojourn at the Somme. "We are now in action on a very quiet part of the front—having a rest, so to speak. We are all very fortunate, considering that we are at war. I expect we will remain here for the winter."

THE VOICE OF THE PULPIT
NO NEUTRALITY IN CHRISTIANITY, SAYS BISHOP BIDWELL.
One Cannot Be a Normal Christian—Canon Howitt, of Hamilton, Preached in St. James' Church. Bishop Bidwell in a splendid sermon, given before a large congregation in St. Paul's church on Sunday morning, showed that in Christianity, at least, there is no possibility of neutrality. The bishop took as his text Matthew xii, 30: "He that is not with us is against us; and he that gathereth not with us scattereth abroad." It was an inspiring sermon and one that touched very closely to present-day international events. The bishop spoke of that fact that we hear a great deal now of neutrality. In one branch of life—Christianity—there is no such thing as a neutral. One may not be a nominal Christian because of its impossibility.

Preached in St. James' Church. Franching at St. James' church on Sunday night, Canon Howitt, of Hamilton, spoke on "The Precious Blood of Christ." He said that all had probably heard of the blood of Christ and its cleansing power. Many had heard, but no doubt had failed to appreciate it, or they would lay hold of it and make it their own. The blood of Christ had not only the power to cleanse; but also the power to deliver from sins, bondage, and set us free.

Why is the blood of Christ precious? Because of what it is, and because of what it does. When we speak of His precious blood we mean the life that God laid down as a ransom for our life. Our whole salvation rests on this. It is unique because the blood of Christ is of infinite value. His blood will cleanse us from all our sins. "The speaker declared that no man was condemned for the sins of Adam. He was condemned for his own sins."

Services at Cooke's. In the absence of Rev. E. R. McLean, who conducted anniversary services at Elphin, Rev. A. J. McMullen, B.A., who holds the latter charge, preached at both services in Cooke's Church on Sunday and delivered forceful sermons. Rev. Mr. McMullen is a graduate of Queen's University. The musical programme of the day included a solo by Miss Cullen, while Miss E. Ross took the solo part in one of the anthems.

SCHOOL NURSE PRAISED
By Medical Health Officer in His Annual Report. "It is almost superfluous to add a word of appreciation of the services of the school nurse, Miss Jean McCallum," said Medical Health Officer Dr. Williamson in his annual report to the Board of Health. "Through her inspection numerous cases of contagious disease, eye, skin, enlarged tonsils, defective teeth, etc., have been referred to the family physicians and dentists and appropriate treatment adopted thereby, increasing the efficiency of the school, works the welfare of the children, and through these the welfare of the community in general."

THE KHAKI CLUB SMOKER

HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL EVENT HELD IN ONTARIO HALL.

Sergt. Sutherland, Just Returned From the Front, Gave Several Sections—Good Music Was Rendered.

The smoker held in the Ontario Hall on Saturday evening under the auspices of the Khaki Club was without equal in the annals of military life in the city. Its success started with the first number and continued until the last. The programme was varied and proved very entertaining. Brig-Gen. T. D. R. Hemming, G.O.C., spoke a few words to the soldiers. During the evening Mrs. G. Hunter Ogilvie and other ladies served refreshments. The R.C.H.A. band rendered several selections. There were over 600 soldiers present. Vocal solos were given by Sergt. Dety, accompanied on the piano by Gr. Tubman, 72nd Battery; by Gr. F. A. Connelly, 74th Battery; Lieut. F. H. Powell, 75th Battery; Gr. Cheeneborough, "C" R.C.H.A.; Pte. H. Bell, 253rd Q.U.H.; F. E. Christmas, 74th Battery; Gr. Proutt, 72nd Battery, while Corp. Scott, 75th Battery, led several popular choruses on the piano. Lieut. Cutbush, Royal Military College, was referee of the boxing bouts, which were as follows: Gr. Sabourin, 72nd Battery, vs. Corp. Smith, Special Service Company, in blindfold boxing; Sergt. Gooderham, S.S. Company, vs. Gr. Jackson, "C" R.C.H.A. in a 135 lb. bout; Pte. J. Jarvis vs. Corp. Parkes, both 253rd Q.U.H.; Pte. Timmins, 253rd Q.U.H. vs. Sergt. Hill, in a 175 lb. bout; "C" R.C.H.A.; Gr. Waters vs. Gr. Cartwright, both "C" R.C.H.A. J. Liss, 253rd Q.U.H., proved to be an entertaining magician. Gr. Proutt, 73rd Battery, a good buck and wing dancer; and H. Horne, 253rd Q.U.H., a talented recitation artist. Corp. Thistlewaite, 72nd Battery, was announcer for the evening. Sergt. Sutherland, who returned from England on Saturday, entertained the crowd by several bagpipe selections. Pte. J. H. Bell and Piper Fraser, 253rd Q.U.H., also gave a Scotch touch to the programme.

OFFICERS WERE ELECTED
At a Meeting of the Bakers' Union of This City.

At the regular meeting of the Bakers' Union, No. 115, held in Labor Hall on Saturday night the following officers were elected: President, George Saunders; vice-president, F. Boyd; recording secretary, Thomas Phillips; financial secretary, P. W. Tallon; treasurer, A. Whitefield; sergeant-at-arms, F. McIntyre. The members had the union label under discussion, and are appealing to citizens to use only the bread turned out by union labor.

"The War in Cartoon."
A unique and entertaining lecture is to take place at the Grand Opera House on Feb. 7th, when A. G. Racey will present his "War in Cartoon." Mr. Racey is the head cartoonist of the Montreal Star, and has become famous for his strikingly vivid cartoons of national and other important events. The cartoons he is illustrating in his lecture are those he has drawn of events pertaining to the war in all its phases since the outbreak to the present moment. A perusal of the collection gives the history of the great war in a nutshell. As each successive event takes place Mr. Racey tells of it to newspaper readers by the million through his wonderful cartoons, and every one of these cartoons will be used in his lecture in Kingston.

Ladies' Musical Club.
The programme given before the Ladies' Musical Club on Saturday afternoon was arranged by Miss Polson and Mrs. W. E. Macpherson, and consisted of piano selections by Miss Annie E. Burns, Mrs. A. R. B. Williamson, Miss Phyllis Knight and Mrs. G. Nelson, vocal solos by Mrs. A. L. Clark, and violin solos by Miss Bartels.

Received to-day, Ladies' white silk waists, handkerchief front, large collar trimmed with baby Irish lace. Special, at $1.50. Corrigan's.

Dr. A. W. Struthers, Carleton Place, passed away on Thursday afternoon.
