KINGSTON AND PETERBORO

PLAY JUNIOR O.H.A. GAME HERE THIS EVENING.

The Kingston Team Now at Peterboro Last Monday and Expect to Take the Round—Arts Hockey at Queen's.

A very fast hockey fixture is promised for this (Friday) evening, when the Peterboro Junior O.H.A. team comes here and tries to overcome a four-goal lead and win the semi-final O.H.A. honors from the Kingston Juniors. In view of the kind of game that the locals are playing the fans are not worrying over the result, which is confidently expected as a Kingston victory. Both teams will probably line up in exactly the same way as on the Peterboro ice Monday, as follows:

R. Hewitson, Toronto, will referee.

Arts Hockey Game.

The game in the arts hockey series played on Thursday afternoon between Arts '17 and Arts '19 ended in a tie, 4-4. There was some discussion as to an extra goal for Arts '17, but this was ruled out by the referee. The line-up:

Referee—E. H. Reynolds.

Another Heavy Snowfall.
The weather man is certainly giving the Kingston district a liberal supply of snow. Thursday night was one of the stormiest nights of the winter, and the snowfall was quite heavy. Friday was also very stormy and the men around the house found that he had a great deal more snow to shovel.

QUEEN STREET CHURCH MEN

GIVE SPLENDID MINSTREL SHOW IN SUNDAY SCHOOL HALL.

Well-attended Entertainment given on Thursday Evening—The Caste Is Capable and Well Balanced.

To a large audience in the Sunday school hall on Thursday evening a minstrel show was given by the Young Men's Club of Queen Street Methodist church. The show was an immense success, and those taking part deserve credit for the able way in which everything was carried off. The musical numbers were especially good. The following solos were rendered: "Shining of Your Smile," by George Allen; "My Mother's Rosary," by A. Pettigrew; "Long, Long Trail," by J. Hodge; "Turn Back the Universe," by J. Saunders; "South Sea Isle," by E. Pound and "The Good Old Union Jack" by J. Marshall.

The stage director for the event was Frederick Clow, and the musical director was Edward Pound, who was assisted by a musical committee made up of A. Pettigrew, J. Marshall, R. Claxton, J. Hodge and E. Madrand.

The cast was as follows: Interlocutor, G. Allen; endmen, C. Reynolds and J. Hoppes; quartette, E. Pound, A. Pettigrew, J. Marshall and R. Claxton; chorus, W. Kelly, G. H. Grisewood, D. Thompson, J. Saunders, F. Rogers, J. Hodge, W. Francis, E. Reynolds. Others also responsible for the success of the entertainment were C. H. Grisewood and C. Reynolds, in charge of printing and publicity; J. Hoppes, purchasing agent and secretary; C. Ferguson, treasurer; F. Paynter, stage carpenter; R. Kelly, electrician.

The excellence of the entertainment is shown by the fact that arrangements are already under way to have it reproduced at the Pittsburgh township hall next week.

QUEEN'S MEDICAL MUSEUM

GRADUATES AND CITIZENS INVITED TO CONTRIBUTE

Articles and Specimens to This New Museum—The Dramatic Club Elects Officers for the Year.

The Osher Club of Queen's University met on Thursday evening in Carruthers' building. J. H. Paterson was in the chair. It was decided that the faculty of medicine would be approached with a view to the establishment of an historical medical museum. Circulars will be issued asking medical graduates and citizens to contribute articles and specimens to the museum.

Papers on the American surgeon, Murphy and Jenner, the father of vaccination, were read by Fletcher Sharp and Max Boe. The papers were prepared in an interesting way, and were enlightening as to the lives of these men. Dr. James Third, honorary president, also made a few remarks.

Following a musical programme consisting of an instrumental trio by Messrs. Tiebhorne, Powkes and J. M. Munro, and a cornet solo by Mr. Powkes, refreshments were served.
