PEOPLE ASKED TO ECONOMIZE

On Their Coal Supply And Put a Stop to Coal Panic.

AS SOME PEOPLE IMAGINE IT TO BE.

People Should Not Order or Expect Any More Coal Than They Actually Require. "Tell the people to be patriotic and economize on coal until relief, which is pretty sure to come, puts a stop to the coal panic" said one of Kingston's, prominent coal dealers to the Whig on Wedgesday. . The situation has not grown as desperate as most people imagine. They are doing exactly as they did with sugar, shortly after the war broke out, except that instead of running the price up, they are depleting the supply of coal. Sugar has since dropped back from high point simply because the public has been educated to understand that it was their own demand that ran the price up. The coal situation can only be relieved by not ordering more than is absolutely necessary In this way the present supply will hold out until relief comes.
