And Their Authors

THE BRITISH CAMPAIGN.

lege Book Store, city.

ing line in France and Beigium. The Yet the line was always held." retaining only what is necessary to world nright depend. . . . .

August 12th and 13th, 1914, consist- tue. . . . ed of approximately 30,000 men, the question whether an army has cerning the sea, and far-off islands amused him in the intervals of an four months half of them were either or has not reached its objective. In and buried treasure. Into its warp active life, to construct this splendidly trained regulars had seen were now destined to take part in forth to reach the coast, and was op- millions of dollars of gold intended upon the war that we have the great battles of Mons, Le Cateau, posed by a force less than half its for China had been buried on the read. Improbable, impossible? Such fence of Ypres. Except at Mons, the Germans did not advance five miles of the members of that ill-fated ex-British were everywhere faced by superior numbers, and Sir

Mons a British army of 80,000 men was attacked in front by almost 200, 000 Germans, while, 40,000 more were thrown upon its left flank. The story of how Sir John French's men! evaded the trap, fought rear-guard actions day after day and a pitched the enemy again at the Marne, will live in history wherever the English Cateau was fought by Smith-Dorrien with 70,000 weary and worn-out men against 170,000 Germans, provided with an overpowering artillery, yet guns ran short of shellse and British gunners under a heavy fire, were seen sitting in gloomy groups around the guns, which they had neither the shells to work nor the heart to most won them the war. In a chap- when the leaders deemed it advis- sail away to freedom and happiness. picion, and only his ability and Brit-Sir Arthur writes: "About this period stories written of this gigantic con- Houghton and his prospective bride. his experiences throws a vivid sidebegan to strengthen themselves with prevented the true facts from com- with many thrilling incidents. Not methods. The three meet in Contheir enemy. On Sept. 20th the ed of a score or more of engage- at sea in the antipodes. The author is kind; they emerge unscathed and cannon firing a 35-lb. shell a dist- and sanginary battles. In "Somme of which he writes so entertaingly. fater the British opened fire with lected the narratives of various ofzers. From this time onwards there ampton on the hospital ships, fresh By G. F. 247 pages. 'Price, 35c. was no such great disparity in the from the great offensive. beavy artillery, and the wounded A colonel sums up the result thus: from the monster shelts of the enemy had at last the slight solace that Boche will never again set foot on their fate was not unavenged. The the ground we have won from him. expenditure of shells, however, was and I think he knows it. But, elstill at the rate of ten German to though its mighty hard to get, the one of the Allies. If the war was ground we've got from him is the not won it was no fault of Krupp and least of the things we've taken from the men of Essen. In two weeks the the German army, as I see it. The the Aisne, the author writes: "The can't reckon in figures. Begad. several converging directions. German infantry attacks were constant by night and by day, and the undrained trenches were deep in water. The men lay without overcoats and

PUBLIC LIBRARY

February List of Twenty Classed Books -These Books Are Free to All ife of Caterpillar-J. H. Fabre. Oriental Rug Book-M. C. Ripley. Mysterious Stranger-Mark Twaln,

Appreciation of Poetny-L Hearn. Chief European Dramatists-B, Mat-

Edmund Dulac's Picture Book.

British Campaign, 1914—A. C. Doyle.

At the War—Lord Northcliffe.

Men. Women and Guns—"Sapper."

Great Push—Patrick Macgill.

Russian Campaign—S. Washburton.

Blood and Iron—W. McNairn. What of the Dardanelles—G. Fortescue.

Greater Tragedy—B. A. Gould.

Insurrection in Dublin—Jas. Stephens.

Joseph Conrad—H. Walpole.

Red Indians of the Plains—H. Hipes.

It's like everything that ever was on of that grand old hymn:

land and sea, and nothing that ever was as well. It's all the struggles

Almighty!"

When scouting in the

[was incessant. Yet the sixth day an assertion of the bed-rock decency layed. On Dec. 8th, 1915, they found them on the exact ground up- and goodness of our people, and I steam out to engage the enemy. The Price, $1.50. Hodder & Stough- weary bodies after their attack. Na- the gold in London town. I don't of the Gneisenau, the Scharnhorst. ton, Toronto, publishers. The Col- tions desire from time to time to be want to be killed, not a little bit, the Leipzig and the Nurnberg. The reassured as to their own virility. But, bless you, one simply can't be fight was terrible but mercifully volume of Sir Conan Doyle's History traditions of their ancestors. The un-now been removed, a change made superior artillery, threw themselves side of the angels-decency, not mapossible by the very general rear- against the British line in the hope terial gain-and we're going to rangements which have recently tak- of reaching Calals. At times the win."

and also to trace their movements, trenches in front of Ypres "The stows praise on his fellows. There the battles they fought and the re- Second Queen's had two officers and is fighting at close quarters, such as suits they achieved. As a history, sixty men left that night, the Second no pirate ship ever saw; there is this work must perforce contain Welsh had three officers and ninety- much of grimness and much of glory, some preliminary political chapters, three men. Little groups who might and the description is told in the describing the causes that led up to have been fitted into a large-sized soldier's own quaint way. To get the war. Sir Arthur has accomplish- drawing room were settling a conthe war. Sir Arthur has accomplish tention on which the fate of the peared to the mon and their leaders. His present great book, viz., a thorough understanding of the said from 12,000 infantry to 2,333, the lustrated by Capt. Bruce Bairns-published, have given him a worldclarity and orderliness. Numerous Twenty-second Brigade came out of father. maps and plans illuminate the text. action with Brigadier Lawford, three In this permanent record of the officers and 700 men. The losses of part taken by the British army in the the brigade work out at 97 per cent. world war, the famous physician and of the officers, and 80 per cent. of novelist has given to the public a the men, figures which can seldom history of great literary merit and have been matched in the warfare of painstaking detail in dealing with any age. . . Britain's solfacts and figures. He tells us that diers have indeed been faithful to the British force, which crossed the the death. Their record is the last Channel into France on the nights of word in endurance and military vir-this particular case, taking a broad and woof is woven the thread of a tale, and he hopes it will likeview of the whole action, a German love story of unusual interest. Fif- wise amuse the reader. It does force of at least 600,000 men set teen years before our story begins, It is one of the best romances built numbers, who barred its way. The bank of a river in New Guinea. One words might have been used before in a month of fighting, and they cost pedition had married a native wo- now. To-day melodrama has be-150,000 men without any military man, but was subsequently murder- come the prosiest realism. Some advantage whatever for the posses- ed by his white companion, named day, he confesses, when the full his sion of such villages as Gheluvelt, Smith. The latter now turns up in tory of this war is written, sober they suffered were really victories. Wytschaete or Messines availed them Sydney, Australia, under 'ie name history with ample documents—the not at all. If this is not a great vic- of Macquart, and tells the story in poor romancer will give up business achievement would deserve the name. he says, from Smith, Macquart in- hermitage.

battle at Le Cateau and yet were the winter lull of 1914, etc. If Sir of this interesting story. mark the first one, he will have given slayer and lays plans to satiate her ground of this strange movement, to law. to the British Empire a history of revenge. Meantime her daughter part religious, part individualistic. the great world war that will en- falls in love with Houghton, a mem- Its effect upon the impressive East-both the British and French armies flict; yet the censor's activities have The story is well told, and abounds light upon German character and those heavy guns in which they had ing to light. The "Big Push" as the the least of its merits is the descripbeen so completely outweighed by British soldiers described it, consist- tion of tropical scenes and the nights their troubles only begin. Yet fate French in the neighborhood of our ments, which, as we used to judge is apparently well acquainted with in their possession the secret of the received twelve long-range war, would take rank as very notable the lands under the Southern Cross, movement that might have fired all ance of 13,000 yards. Three days Battle Stories" the author has colfour new batteries of six-inch howit- ficers and men who arrived at South-

"Yes, I think you can take it Master achieve greater ends." on paper. What's the Push like? to religious service, roll out a parody For those who live on the sea coasts little kiddies, and the slim, straight water. narrative his been built up, the After an illuminative chapter de- young girls, and the sweet women, narrative mis been burned again to the La Basse-Armentieres and the men that are to come; it's and another scrap, where the author diaries and interviews from the hand operations, Sir Arthur comes to that all humanity we're fighting for; or fips of men who have been soldiers glorious episode-the first battle of whether life's to be clean and dein our armies. We are assured that Ypres. Here all his gifts as an cent, free and worth having-or a a great deal of this work is not only author are brought in play, and he Boche nightmare. You can't deaccurate, but that it is very pre- has risen to the height of his great scribe it, but I wouldn't like to be cisively correct in its detail. The subject. Under the direct eye of the out of it for long. It's hell and necessary restrictions which forbade Kaiser, the hosts of Germany, in heaven, and the devil and the world; the mention of numbered units have overwhelming numbers and greatly and thank goodness, we're on the en place. This has enabled the his- line wavered and bent, but it never | The book abounds with stories of torian to set down the actual units broke. The victory that Berlin de- Individual valour that seem well that comprised the first British army manded was denied. But at what a night incredible. Tommy will not that opposed the German advance, cost to the heroic defenders of the talk about himself, but gladly bepeared to the men and their leaders, "Nelson's History of the War," many not yet too late. a thorough understanding of the sub- The Seventh Division was reduced by Capt Bridge Being Political by Capt Bridge Bride Bridge Bridge Bridge Bridge Bridge Bridge Bridge Bridge Bridge

THE GOLD TRAIL.

By H. de Vere Stacpool. 308 pages. is offered. He has snatched the time

No. good my masters, this is not has engrossed his time and talents. a war story, as are most of the books has suggested to him the theme of a "One judges victory or defeat by those good, old fashioned yarns con- tion, he tells the reader that it has tory I do not know what military all its glowing details. He had it, and fall to reading Miss Austen in a Ypres was a Plevna-but a Plevna terests a few adventurers and a finwhich remained forever untaken." ancier in his object, with the result setting in the British war office, has The volume closes with sketches of that a ship is equipped and sets out to do with the bewildering and batt-

A NAVAL DIGRESSION.

William Briggs, Toronto, publisher. The College Book Store, city. We venture to affirm that no book ssued since the war began can at all compare with this volume either as a record of sea fighting or as a closerange view of life aboard a battle cruiser. The author writes with consummate skill of the daily life of the British lost nearly 3,000 men from main gain is in the changes wrought seamen and sailors at watch in the in the two armies-the Huns' and North Sea, in English harbors, on Further describing this Battle of ours-since July 1st. And that you voyages through the tropics, in the memorable and glorious fight off the there aren't any figures big enough Falkland Islands, northward again to gallant British tar. They speak of vous system becoming deranged. home via Gibraltar, and back once The men of the new armies, hav- more to the fateful North Sea, where ing come to real grips with the foe, his beloved ship went down in an enhave found him a good fighter and gagement with the enemy. Through splendidly equipped. Butt they've all these vicissitudes of fight and found something else: they've found fortune and fun the author takes us, they can beat him. This has put the and so vivid and alluring is the tale spirit of victory into the British that the reader almost fancies he is Tommy, and made him well nigh one of that noble ship's company. invincible. It has, as returned of. The name of the ship is carefully conficers declared, seriously weakened cealed. We earn that she is rushed the morale of the Boche. Says one into commission just after the out-Intelligence of Women-W. L. George. of them: "Since July 1st our new break of the war, did patrol duty off army has inflicted a crushing blow the British coast, was "blooded" in odern Steam Engineering-G. D. His- upon the enemy's morale. With the the fight off Heligoland, and took a same troops the Boche can never leading part in the naval battles of again achieve the same ends. With the Falklands. The unsleeping vigil-Advance of English Novel-W. L. the same troops on our side we can ance of the British navy is brought Asked to describe the Big Push, ticular cruiser's record. The monindescribable. "It is too big for let- dirty weather, is an aimost heartters. It is too big for literature it- breaking occupation. No wonder the self" he states. "You won't get it men, when the parade summons them the wireless flashes the news of the So the sons that they've left behind disaster off Coronel and the order to proceed to Devonport, There their ship is overhauled and outfitted, and, the collection is one entitled "Song with sealed orders, puts to sea. South- of the White Ensign." A few of its ward and ever southward she rushes; stanzas follow: yet, though her grim purpose is never forgotten, the ceremony of crossing "They made an Order in Council ('twas the line is not overlooked. Father Neptune and his satellites duly appear on deck, and hilarity reigns su- And there isn't a tropic island or a bay preme. In due time they reach the Falkland Islands and join the other British battleships there assembled. Their hour for action is hot long de- Tens of thousands pay homage, as they By Arthur Conan Doyle. 344 pages, on which they had thrown their wouldn't have missed it, not for all world knows the result: the sinking And thousands again salute me as the The British Campaign in France Neither in endurance nor in courage bothered giving it a thought. The swift, and a splendid tribute to Briand Flanders" contributes the first have the British departed from the killing of odd individuals such as tain's sea power. Her honor is safe But I've covered ben thousand corpses, of the War. It deals only with the ending strain of the trenches reachevents of 1914 in the British fight- ed the limits of human resistance. Countless millions, all the laughing sailors who were floundering in the Then back again to the North Sea! bids us farewell. What has the navy done? What is it doing? This book will tell you, and in no mistakable language. It presents a clear-cut picture of the sailor's life on board ship, on patrol, in port and in action. The book abounds in many pleasing potatoes by the peck things have illustrations of how these hardy sons come to a nice pass. of Britain amuse themselves during monotonous vigils and of how they hour of conflict and of peril.

GREENMANTLE.

$1.25. Hodder & Stoughton, To- Lampman remarks. ronto, Publishers, The College Book Store, City.

wide reputation. Therefore, a novel from his pen must command attention. From such a writer much can be expected—and in this case—much Price, $1.30. S. B. Gundy, Toron- from his more serious duties as an to, Publisher. R. Uglow & Cp., historian to write a novel of surpass This story, which has its initial stantinople, and here it would seem, the Moslem world and seriously imperilled the Allied | course. was the secret, what the solution? It would spoil the story, gentle reader, were we to tell you. Suffice to say, the problem is well worked out to a satisfactory conclusion, and a splendid story is the result.

SONGS OF THE SAILOR MEN.

By "T.B.D." 127 Pages. Price, 35c. Hodder & Stoughton, Toronto, Publishers. The College Book

Here is a collection of rollicking, reezy songs of the sea, each of them breathing the spirit and hope of the the perils of midnight vigils in the North sea, when the storm king of winter holds sway; of the gallant deeds of Admirals of glorious memory; of the army, that sister service they love and praise; of affairs verses, written by a naval office fleet during the great war, and, in addition, bring home how much the British Islands owe to the great leaders and magnificent men of the navy peaceful, undisturbed, refreshing

Space will not permit of many uotations, but here are a few good

oh, listen to me all you landsmen, I'

And made of your fittle island an Em- proud to say they cured me."

Perhaps the most stirring poem in in eighteen sixty-four). that gave me my proud position-the sign ofea man-of-war, where the anchors hold,

But knows that I fly for Freedom and drums of a hundred bands; sun sinks down in the west, or My Lords have decreed that the sun and I go down together to rest.

and I'll fly thi the debt is paid: so long as my halliards last. on-when I'm nailed to the mast.

With coal selling by the ton and

Speaking of the coal situation, it valiantly acquit themselves in the is not "first come first served." The faithful have the first call.

> The man with his cellar full of coal and booze can sit down these

A good deal of fuel and light might John Buchan is one of England's have been saved this winter had divine service on the Sabbath. Is is

> Who says there is a scarcity of men for the ministry? Even with many parsons off to war there were forty applications for the pastorate of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church in Arnprior.

> "All the virtues of the church were prince of the church.

ter there will be an abundance of ice The Eye of Dread, Payne Erskine; and 500 others.

An Alfred street girl, who likes to very inconsistent. They say to be Tommy, by Joseph Hocking dress they want the girlies to be | Sergt. Michael Cassidy, by "Sapper."

The Yankee flag which floats over Naval Digressions, by G. F. the office door of Consul Johnson Stand By, by Taffraill, Tales of the Sea. looks decidedly dejected. Felix should with more fire in it, since Uncle Sam is shaking his fist at Germany.

After Contractor Payne the position of Italy, fall of the Ger- in search of the gold. Their sub- ling East. A new evangel has arisen through with the City Council it will Despite kans and Asia Minor, and the people to produce that well-known play. able after a ten days' retreat to face Conan Doyle's coming volumes main- the passing of fifteen years, the natain the same high standard that tive woman recognizes her busband's many, it is surmised, is in the back- the city fathers will lose if they go

Let that Frontenac story about the ber of the expedition, and by her ern temperment is electric and pow- sacrifice the county made in freeing devotion saves the rest of the party erful, The menace to Britain is re- its roads of tolls be told only to the after Macquart had succeeded in los- cognized. It must be combasted. plumber. Take it from one who Price 75c. Hustrated by Capt. and the death of his two aides, un- war office commissions three men. Government put the screws on that Bruce Bairnsfather. Hodder & covers the treasure and begins to among them an American, to travel body a dozen or more years ago, as Stoughton, London and Toronto, transfer it on board the ship. But by different routes to Constantinople the records will show. In the first Captain Calamity, by Rolfe Bennett. German superiority in heavy artil- mer clearly demonstrated what the rescued members of the party arrive for his money. One of them passes paid, and that account was wiped Dearer Than Life, by Joseph Hocking. lery was very pronounced, and al- British armies could accomplish upon the scene, recover the gold and through Germany—falls under suster on "The Battle of the Aisne," able. Many have been the moving Of course, they take with them ish pluck save his neck. The tale of the Covernment road grants cipalities having free roads. -THE TOWN WATCHMAN.

Some clergymen deal in rhetoric sense. The first is popular with wo the third with but precious few of Girls at His Billet, by Bertha Ruck, "Oliver Onions."

Love conquers all things-but From Mons to Ypres, by Frederick Coleman, ... ... $1.50 poverty and toothache give it some German Atrocities by J. H. Morgan, M.A., official documents of the British pretty hard falls.

When You Can't Sleep YOU SHOULD USE

Milburn's

Heart and Nerve Pills

Sleeplessness is caused by the ner Perhaps too much worry has gotwhatever the cause the nervous sys-restful sleep can be assured. Those whose rest is broken into by frightful dreams, nightmares, sink ing and smothering sensations, who wake up in the morning as tired as they went to bed, can have their old. sleep back again by using Midburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

tem must be built up again before

Mrs. John Sloan, Haley Station Ont., writes: "Over a year ago l was very nervous. I could not sleep at night, and I would faint at the slightest fright. I tried several docfathers, who fought for the land and immediately tried Dr. Milburn's of their birth. Heart and Nerve Pills, and I am Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills You will find all books reviewed on this page today for sale here...

It's like everything that ever was on land and sea, and nothing that ever was on land and sea, and nothing that ever was on land and sea, and nothing that ever was as well. It's all the struggles of life crowded into one hour; it's when scouting in the North Sea and sailed to the great unknown ited, Toronto, Ont.

Below is given a list of the present day. "Best Sellers" in the leadin Canadian and American cities.

CLOTH BOUND BOOKS at 35c, 3 for $1.00

By the best English and American writers and identical with the Am crican reprints selling at 60c each.

And free my soul in the morning to the Books by Ian Hay, author of "First Hundred Thousand"; A Knight on Wheels, immensely humorous.

Pip, a Romance of Youth. A Man's Man. A Safety Match. Happy Go Lucky. The Right Stuff.

Books by Geo. A. Birmingham, author of "Spanish Gold": The Major's Niece. Benedict Kavanagh. Gen. John Regan. Hyacinth.

Books by Gene Stratton Porter: Laddie. Girl of the Limberlost. Freckles. And if my hallards are shattered, fight Atlantic Nights, by Capt. Frank H. Shaw; A Child of Storm, H. Rider Haggard; The Christian, Hall Caine; Quinneys, by Horace A. Vachell; Ever Heard This, Collection of Jokes; Ann Veronica, H. G. Wells;

Passing of the Third Floor Back, Jerome J. Jerome; Daddy Long Legs, Jean Webster; Light Freights, W. W. Jacobs; Quo Vadis, Henry Sienkiewicz; Havelock's March on Cawnpore; Little Women and Good Wives, Olcott; The Riverman, Stewart Edward White; With Christ At Sea. F. T. Bullen; Bessis Costrell, Mrs. Humphry Ward; Bride of the Plains, Baroness Orczy; Wages of Pleasure, John A Stewart; A Spinner in the Sun, Myrtle Reed; Old Rose and Silver, ' Myrtle Reed; A Modern Juliet, Charles Garvice; Ghost Stories, by. E. Herron; Max, Katherine Thurston; Witness for the Defence, Mason; A Silent Witness, Freeman; The Poison Belt, Conan Doyle; The Green Ray, Wm, Le Quex; The Lost World, Conan Doyle; Adventures of Capt. Kettle; Short Cruises, W. W. Jacobs; At the Villa Rose, A. E. W. Mason.

MARCH MAGAZINES TO DATE.

Woman's Home Companion, Top Notch, Pictorial Review, Metropoli-By John Buchan. 307 Pages. Price, days and heave a contented sigh, the tan, Ladies' Home Journal, Cosmopolitan, McCall's, Snappy, Motion Picture, Breezy, Parisienne, Live, Smith's, Green Book, Photo Play, Railroad Man's, Argosy. Other magazines received Saturday listed in regular advt.

AMERICAN AND CANADIAN WEEKLY PAPERS

Montreal Standard, Buffalo Courier, Buffalo Times, Utica Globe, Saturday night, Chicago Blade and Ledger. New York Daily Times, Herald and World, Jack Canuck, Life, Puck and Judge.

LATEST REPRINTS OF $1.50 and $1.25 Fiction, SPECIAL 60c. A large number of these books are in original editions and priced from

The Valley of Fear, Conan Doyle; Night Watches, W. W. Jacobs; You centred in him," was the tribute paid Never Know Your Luck, Gilbert Parker; Kent Knowles "Quahaug," Jos, to the late Canon Grout by a Presby- C. Lincoln; The Red Mist, Randall Parrish; A Pair of Silk Stockings, Cyril terian. Canon Grout was a real Harcourt; Out of the Primitive, Robert Bennet; Mr. Bingle, George Barr McCutcheon; The Twenty-fourth of June, Grace Richmond; The Wooing of Rosamond Fayre, Bertha Ruck; The Spirit of the Border, Zane Grey; And still it is true that it is an God's Country and the Woman, James Oliver Curwood; The Oakleyites, E ill-wind thatb lows no one good. If F. Benson; Cleek of Scotland Yard, T. W. Hanshew; The Girl Who Lived there is a shortage of coal this win- in the Woods, Marjorie Benton Cooke; The Last Shot, Frederick Palmer;

WAR BOOKS, 35c, 3 for $1.00 (Cloth Bound)

The Books for Sending in Packages Overseas. wear dresses abbreviated at both Doing Their Bit, by Boyd Cable, author of "Between the Lines." ends, declares that some people are A Kiss From France, Neil Lyons, Pte Pinkerton Millionaire, Harold Ashton Lieutenant, and Others, by Sapper natural, and yet when it comes to Private Spud Tamson, R. W. Campbell.

Cupid in Oil Skins, J. J. Bell. Wee MacGregor, J. J. Bell. By Blow and Kiss, by Boyd Cable. Canadian Flanders, Max Aiken. Carry On, by Taffraill, naval stories.

wire to Washington for an ensign SOLDIER and SAILOR BOOKS, 35c, 3 for $1.00.

Gallipoli Days and Nights, by Trooper L. McCustra. Odd Shots, by One of the "Jocks." The Vigil, by Dell Leigh, The Padre, by Temporary Chaplain. H. M. S., Naval Yarns by Ward Room. Songs of the Sailor Men, by T.-B. D. man colonies, sea affairs, the Allies, sequent adventures form the basis there, somewhere between the Bal- be in order for the Board of Works The Great Advance. Tales From the Somme Battlefield. The Battle Glory of Canada. A story of Canadian Heroism at the Front.

On the Side of the Angels (Angel of Mons). The Golden Land, by Copping. Illustrated in color. A story of the Settlers in Canada.

My Secret Service, by the Man Who Dined With the Kaiser. Heroic Deeds of the Great War, by Mackenzie. The White Road to Verdun, by Kathleen Burke,

Smith-Dorrien extracted dimsert and the bulk of his army. It was here, says the historian, that the British says the historian, that the British By Capt. A. J. Dawson. 239 pages. After Macquart had succeeded in losknows, the Frontenac Council had to a jungle. The secret must be unravelled, and knows, the Frontenac Council had to abolish the tolls, for the Ontario abolish the Ontario abolish the tolls, for the Ontario abolish t

publishers. The College Book the curse that follows gold was upon in an endeavor to solve the secret. place, Frontenac owed the Ontario The Courtship of Capt. Silas Porter, by Rolfe Bennett. him, and he goes insane. His head Their adventures are many and excit. Government nearly $70,000 for the The Zeppelin Destroyer, by Wm. Lee Queux. The Somme offensive of last sum- is taken by a Dyak warrior, and the ing, and give the reader good value old York road, which it had never Ail For a Scrap of Paper, Joseph Hocking.

STANDARD WAR BOOKS which are given only to rural muni The British Campaign in France and Finnders, being the First Volume of Sir Conan Doyle's History of the War ......... $1.50 Men, Women and Guns, by "Sapper." ... ... ... ... $1.25 The First Hundred Thousand, by Ian Hay .... $1.25 men, the second with most men and The Mixed Division, by R. W. Campbell ..... $1.25

BOOKS BY THE INIMITABLE "BAIRNS-

The Red Watch, by Col. Currie ......... $1.40

	FAIHER.
	Fragments From France
	Further Fragments From France, No. 2 35c
	Still More Fragments from France, No. 3
	(The Three for $1.00)
ľ	Bullets and Billets, by Bairnsfather $1.25
	Somme Battle Stories
	Fragments From His Life $1.25
	The Murder of Captain Official story of the murder, with
	- photographs of Cant Fryatt his
d	Fryatt. widow home and steemelin Price Se

LATEST FICTION ten on your nerves, perhaps you have The Biggest and Best Sellers at the Present Time.

excessive in your use of tobacco, but The Dark Tower, by Phyllis Bottome, $1.25; Mr. Britling Sees It Through by H. G. Wells, $1.50; Mary Gusta, by Jos. C. Lincoln, $1.35; Penrod and Sam, by Booth Tarkington, $1.35; The Leatherwood God by Wm. Dean Howells, $1.35; The Wonderful Year, by Wm. J. Locke $1.40; The Green Mantle, by John Buchan, $1.25; Leatherface, by Baroness Orczy, $1.25; The Hour of Conflict, by Hamilton Gibbs. $1,25; The Day of Wrath, by Louis Tracy, $1.25; Bindle, by Herbert Jenkins, $1.25; When a Man's a Man, by Harold Bell Wright, $1.35;

The Heart of Rachael, by Kathleen Norris, $1.25. RHYMES OF A RED CROSS MAN By Robert W. Service.

Still the biggest selling book of the year. Published in three bindings: Cloth, $1.00; Limp Leather, $2.00; Calf, printed on India Paper, pocket size, $1.00.

Asked to describe the Big Push, ticular cruiser's record. The monLieut. M—, an Irishman and commotony of the life is broken by the ormander of a platoon, declares it is deal of coaling, which, especially in indescribable. "It is too big for letindescribable "It is too big for letdirty weather, is an almost heartmusic. Tonight, popular music, 2 for 25c.

BOOKS REVIEWED ON THIS PAGE

THE COLLEGE BOOK STORE 160 Princess St. Open Nights Phone 919