M. R. O'LOUGHLIN'S WILL

HAS BEEN ENTERED FOR PRO-BATE IN NEW YORK.

Mrs. Beaman of Kingston, Sister of Deceased, is One of the Legatees—Legacy For St. Anthony's Church, Yarker.

(Special to the Whig.) New York, Feb. 23.—The will of Mae Roy O'Loughlin, a deceased brother of Mrs. Rebecca Ellen Beaman, Kingston, on file for probate here in the Surrogate's Court, directs his estate of "over $10,000" in real and "over $10,000" in personal property, after all debts are paid, to be distributed as follows: Annie Craig and Grace Clara Craig, both of North Gowen, and Eleanor Ursula Scovil, Kenora, Ont., sisters, each $2,000.
Rebecca Ellen Beaman, sister, of Kingston, Ont., $3,000.
William Graham Jackson O'Loughlin, brother by adoption, of Toronto, $1,000.

Colman Stuart O'Loughlin, of Newark, N.J., Evelyn O'Loughlin Cocks, of Maplewood, N.J., nephew and niece, and Charles Edward Allan O'Loughlin, nephew by adoption, of St. Paul, Minn., each $500.

The Incorporated Synod of the Diocese of Kingston, $1,500, in trust, income to be applied for the use of St. Anthony's Church, at Yar-ker, Ont.

Robert Roy O'Loughlin, son, of No 2,508 Broadway, $10,000, and one quarter of the residue.

The rest of the estate in equal shares between three other children, Gladys Marjorie O'Loughlin Livingston, of Toronto, Norah E. Atkins, of Durand road, Maplewood, N.J., and Gerald Stuart O'Loughlin, of No. 702 St. Nicholas avenue.

Thursday, Feb. 8th was the date set by Surrogate John P. Cohalan, for the proving of the document executed on March 14th, 1911, which names Gerald, the son, without bonds as the executor.

Mr. O'Loughlin, who was in his sixty-fourth year, after a short illness, died at St. Luke's Hospital.

Just how large an estate he left will not be known until his will is admitted to probate. A transfer tax state appraiser, under the direction of the court, is appointed to appraise it so as to see how much is taxable under the inheritance tax laws, and a report of such appraisal, as the law directs, is filed with the clerk of the Surrogate's Court, as a public document. If no time by the executor is lost a report of such appraisal can be made up and filled within the next few months.

NEW GARRISON SERGT-MAJOR.

W. J. Barrett Has Had a Very Distinguished Career.

The new garrison sergeant-major, W. J. Barrett, warrant officer, is from a military standpoint of the most distinguished men who have come to the city in some time. He wears seven ribbons and only recently completed twenty-two months of service at the front in the present campaign.

Sergt-major Barrett started his military career in England at the age of eighteen years. Being of a military and naval family, his uncle is Commander Barrett of the Portsmouth Naval Yards, and his father was an officer in the navy. He started as a trumpeter in the First Regiment Life Guards of the Imperials.
Three years later he was thrown from his horse and had to transfer to the infantry because of injuries received. A year later he came to Canada to assist in the organization of the Canadian forces. He later returned to this country in 1894 and again in 1904. Between these Canadian trips he served with the Imperial forces in India, South Africa, and in fact, in almost every case of active service. His medals testify to his experience, each of which is a story in itself.

In Canada he was an instructor of the Royal Canadian Regiment at Halifax, and later at the Royal Military College, this being when Col.
Gwatkin, now Chief of the General Staff, was commandant.

When the present war broke out he immediately offered to go and was taken on the strength of the last Canadian Battalion. He attained the coveted position of regimental sergeant-major with that unit and after Salisbury and the other English experiences he reached France and was there for twenty-two months. Last August he was struck in the back with shrapnel and ordered to Canada. He was at London, Ont., and at Toronto as an instructor, giving valuable lectures on discipline in both garrisons. He will continue the work while here.

NOW SERGT-MAJOR GROOM, W.O.

Former Camp Sergeant-Major Receives Honor With Railroaders.

Sergt-Major Groom, W.O., who was camp sergeant-major at Bar-riefield last year, was in the city on Friday on his last leave before going overseas with the section of skilled railway employees shortly to leave Montreal. He enlisted for overseas with the railway section because of his civilian experience as an engineer on the Grand Trunk for a number of years. Within a week of his going to Montreal he became a sergeant, then sergeant-major, and just before getting on the train to come to the city he received notification of his warrant officer rank.

Sergt-Major Groom, W.O., is the twenty-sixth member of the Veterans Association to go overseas in this war after seeing previous service.

Mrs. Thomas Murphy, Cornwall, received the news of the death of her brother, C. J. Ross, which occurred suddenly at Minneapolis, Minn. Mr.
Ross was born just north of Cornwall, and spent his early days there, but has resided in the west for many years.

Miss Josie Shannon, a former resident of Wellington, now living in Rochester, was recently married to Mr. Kennedy of Syracuse.

Editor and Mrs. W. S. Given, Millbrook, have gone south on a trip, ticketing to New Orleans.

MILITARY CIRCLES.

Last night was a real "big" night at the Military Y.M.C.A. hall. The assemblage of soldiers was large.
The soldiers were the guests of the ladies of the Somme Club, an organization which has done and is doing splendid work among the soldiers. An interesting programme was rendered under the direction of Miss Anita Sutherland, president of the club. Excellent numbers were given by Miss Gladys, Miss Weir, Miss A. Sutherland and Miss McCullough.
Several very original contests were conducted, for which suitable prizes were awarded. At the close of the programme the ladies served refreshments, during which Bombardier Gallagher, R.C.H.A., on behalf of the soldiers moved a vote of thanks to the ladies.

Capt. K. D. Ferguson, late 2nd Battalion, has been appointed second in command of the 25th Belleville Battalion.

Brig-Gen. T. D. R. Hemming, G.O.C., and Capt. T. A. Kidd, A.D.C., leave to-night for Cobourg to make an inspection of the heavy battery.

Capt. Marion, late 24th Battalion, was at headquarters on Friday in connection with military business of the infantry draft he is raising near Ottawa.

Lieut-Col. G. Roy, R.C.A., left on Friday for Montreal.

The officers to take the artillery draft overseas will be: Lieut. J. B.
Wilkison, 72nd; Lieut. J. G. K. Mc-Pherson, 73rd; Capt. F. Grierson, 74th; Capt. A. J. Latoneil, 75th.

Capt. J. C. Norwell leaves on Saturday for Ottawa as president of a court of inquiry.

H. J. Sherman, J. S. Warner and T. J. Shaw have enlisted in the 253rd Q.U.H.

FREDERICK PALMER'S NEW BOOK

"My Second Year of the War." For Sale By R. Uglow & Co.

R. Uglow Company have much pleasure in announcing the publication of Frederick Palmer's second brilliant war book, entitled "My Second Year of the War." Mr. Palmer is recognized the world over as one of the greatest living authorities on war, and his chapter on the Somme front will be photographed upon the heart of every reader. He makes clear all the latest processes of the fighting which have characterized the decisive effort to break the Western front.

For those who are following the war closely and would know what the method of procedure will be in the next great attack this is the book, for it describes in detail the procedure of the last campaign, which will be those of the next.

No other observer has had such a chance to see what has gone on along the battle-fronts of the British and French armies, and the inside workings of their forces.

His graphic pen pictures of the armies in action will live long in memory. No matter what books are written about the war, Frederick Palmer's will be among the permanent chronicles. Handsomely bound in cloth. Price, $1.50 copy. For sale by R. Uglow & Company. Telephone No. 25 for a copy.

VETERANS' SLEIGH DRIVE.

Successful Event Held to Home of Jock Aiken, Wolfe Island.

Seventy-five members of the Veterans' Association and Ladies' Auxiliary of that association held a sleigh drive to the home of Customs Inspector J. Aikens at Wolfe Island on Thursday evening. The event was one of the most successful ever held by the Ladies' Auxiliary, and every present present, including some retired soldiers, thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The sleigh loads left at 8.30 o'clock.

At Mr. Aiken's home there was dancing and an entertaining musical programme. Selections were given by Messrs. Stone and Secar, Sergt-Major Rolfe, W. Shaw, Bandsman Secar, R.C.H.A.; Mrs. Cane, Mrs. F.
Ingledeu, Mrs. Boeking and Miss Mason. The ladies served refreshments, and the affair was brought to a fitting close by addresses from the host and hostess.

OVER 1,000 ON DUTY.

That is the Number of Queen's Men Enlisted.

During an address to the members of the Theological Society at Queen's University on Thursday evening, Dr.
H. T. Wace, who is in charge of the work of compiling the names of Queen's graduates and undergraduates who have joined the colors, stated that up to the present time he had received the names of over one thousand Queen's men who were on duty with the forces of the King.

When the size of the university is considered this is truly a remarkable showing for one Canadian university, and demonstrates well the part that university men are taking in the present great struggle.

Hose For Firemen.

At a special meeting of the Fire and Light Committee, held on Friday morning it was decided to purchase 750 feet of patrol brand hose at $825. The hose is turned out by the Consolidated Rubber Company of Montreal. The committee also passed a number of accounts.

THEATRICAL NEWS.

At the Grand.

The many patrons who attended the Grand yesterday afternoon were highly pleased with the programme offered. Valeska Suratt, the foremost emotional actress of the screen, appeared in the five reel Fox feature "Jealousy." In the role of a heartless and scheming woman, Miss Suratt has ample opportunity, and takes full advantage of it, to display her many talents. Other films were:
"A Strang Mother," a powerful Universal drama. "The Wrong Mary Wright," the comedy with its one thousand laughs is a continued gasp of thrills and merriment from start to finish. The Dardanelles expedition is graphically shown in one reel.
The Pathe News had a wonderful collection of world-wide oddities, together with topics of educational, scientific, and industrial importance.
A good vaudeville programme is presented. Miss Norma Teigmann, Kingston's charming and talented young violinist played the "Hungarian Dance," and "Carnival of Venice." Leonard Phillips sang the following songs: "The Goo Goo Man," "Good-Bye Christina Swanson," and "Oh, You Dream." This same bill repeated to-night.

Fiske O'Hara Coming.

Fiske O'Hara's annual visit is looked forward to by lovers of Irish drama with keen delight at the Grand Opera House on Thursday, Feb. 28, matinee and night in the charming comedy, "His Heart's Desire," which is said to eclipse in every way all previous productions that the distinguished actor-singer ever appeared in. Mr. O'Hara stands out as a peer of all romantic singing stars in America to-day.

At Griffin's.

The five-act Lasky feature, "The Yellow Pawn," in which those two clever young screen stars, Cleo Hedgey and Wallace Reid, appear, draws a large and well pleased audience to Griffin's last evening. This story has been laid among the artist quarters of New York City, and is an adaptation of the popular novel of the same name. This story furnishes a gripping plot, which combines a love romance with a problem in modern politics, and is replete with dramatic situations. Episode six of that wonderful serial, "The Shielding Shadow," is unquestionably the strongest chapter of this great serial yet presented, and that laugh-producing "Mr. Musty Suffers" kept the house in uproarious laughter from beginning to end. In addition to the above excellent picture programme the vaudeville, The Barriers, billed as novelty entertainers, is undoubtedly one of the cleverest vaudeville acts that has been seen in Kingston this season. This same bill will be shown this evening and for the last time to-morrow.

At the Strand.

Capacity business was the order of things at this popular playhouse last evening. The headline attraction is the latest Triangle play entitled, "The Female of the Species," with Dorothy Dalton in the stellar role. It is not a dramatization of Kiplin's famous poem, but a love drama of New York and Arizona. Miss Dalton appears as a new type of actress, a queen of Bohemia, who wins another woman's husband in an odd manner, and is deprived of him by an equally strange chance. A Keystone comedy, "Honest Thieves," is a riot of mirth and laughter. Other good-reels and "Bob" McLaughlin, an old Kingstonian, in a high-class vaudeville turn, complete a well-balanced programme shown to-night and Saturday.

Coming: The Miracle of Love.

HARVEY-HOLLAND WEDDING.

Kingston Girl Married in England to Engineering Officer.

In London, Eng., on Jan. 24th, by Rev. William Hollock, Mary (Martie) youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Holland, of Kingston, was married to Lieut. J. P. Harvey, Canadian Engineer; graduate of Queen's. The marriage was witnessed by a few friends, among whom was the bride's sister, Eleanor, of Montreal, and her brother, Sergt. George Holland, of Hastings, Eng., who gave the bride away. The bridal party left on a wedding trip, and while upon it the groom was to be presented with the Military Cross. The groom has been doing active service at the front through the thick of it for nearly two years.

The Sergt. Holland mentioned is George Holland who for years worked in the Whig office.
