

JOHN LAIDLAW & SON.

Founded 1847.

Right Now!

If you will drop in we can show you how you would look in one of our handsome spring suits or overcoats.

The garments of your choice, and it will require but a moment.

We are ready to dress every man that comes to us as he should be dressed.

Here you can "try on" dozens of suits and overcoats until you find the fabric, pattern and cut that precisely suits your taste, type, and temperament.

Suits, $15.00 up to $25.00

Top Coats, $12.00 up to $22.00

Livingston's,

BROCK STREET

If Off Your Route, It Pays To Walk.

MILITARY CIRCLES.

Soldiers social hour. Sunday evening 8.15. Lantern song service. Special music. Address by Rev. J. W. Stephen, St. Andrew's church.

Lieut. Willoughby, medical officer of the 230th Forestry Battalion, has been transferred to the Field Ambulance Corps, Kingston. He is being replaced by Captain Grant, M. L., Kingston.

Capt. E. Campbell, Cobourg, was at headquarters on Saturday.

Major G. I. Campbell, C.R.O., is expected in the city this evening and will take charge of the garrison church parade to Sydenham Street church on Sunday morning.

The 14th Regiment will be backed in the new Canadian Defence Force by the 4th Hussars and 47th Regiment. Each of the five selected regiments will have other regiments to assist in bringing it up to strength, and Lieut.-Col. W. Y. Mills will have the three mentioned units to work with.

The 15th Regiment, Belleville, takes in the 16th and 49th Regiments; the 41st at Brockville; the 2nd, 5th and 50th Regiments; the 43rd Ottawa Regiment the 5th Dragoons, and the 57th Peterboro Regiment the 3rd Dragoons, 40th, 45th and 46th Regiments.

According to information from Ottawa there is some mix-up as to what position Capt. Edward Ryan is to occupy in the Canadian Medical Service. When Capt. Ryan left England he understood he was to look after all the shock cases returning to Canada. The military hospitals were then under the control of the Hospitals Commission, but since he left the medical work of the hospitals has been transferred to the Army Medical Corps, and Capt. Ryan is slated to command No. 2 Convalescent hospital at Whitchy, which is hardly what he looked for.

The Late Mrs. George C. Chapman.
The death occurred at Sealey's Bay, on March 25th, of Mrs. George C. Chapman, following a stroke of paralysis. Deceased was seventy-three years of age, and was born at Bertrams. Deceased was an Anglican in religion, and is survived by her husband, two sons and two daughters, George H. Chapman of Hamilton; John Chapman of Leeds; Mrs. Henry Willis, of Sealey's Bay and Mrs. Charles Sweet of Gananoque.

The funeral took place on Tuesday March 27th, at St. Peter's Church at Sealey's Bay. Rev. H. Smith, of Lyndhurst, conducted the service. The pallbearers were F. W. Young, J. Blair, J. C. McKinley, W. J. Raney, H. Moore, A. Leadbeater.

CAPT. WILLIAM SMITH NOW WITH THE R. S. A.

Returned From Front Twice Because of Rheumatism—Will Be Instructor.

Another returned officer has been appointed to the instructional staff of the Royal School of Artillery in the person of Capt. William Smith, son of Mrs. T. G. Smith, 199 Gore street. Capt. Smith was one of the first Kingston officers to reach the front, and spent several months in action before being declared medically unfit and given leave of absence to come to Canada and recuperate. Rheumatism was the cause of his disability, and in a few months after reaching Canada, during the winter of 1915-16, he recovered sufficiently to return.

The rigorous climate in France, however, brought back the old trouble on his return, and for the second time he came back. In spite of persistent efforts to allow him to make another attempt at the front, the military authorities decided that he should remain here, and have appointed him to the R.S.A. staff, where his overseas training and experience should be of great value.

There's a Long, Long Trail.
The big number sung by over 5,000 British soldiers as they waited for death on the mined steamer Tyndarus. Hear it at the College Book Store.

A Meeting of Dentists.
At a meeting of the Kingston Dental Society, held Thursday evening, it was decided to make a moderate increase in fees for professional services. It was pointed out that fees for some operations are lower than they were twenty-five or thirty years ago, and much lower than in many other cities and towns. This action was considered imperative owing to the great increase in cost of living and in everything pertaining to the practice of the profession.

Please Return Empties.
Customers will greatly oblige by returning all kegs, cases and bottles at once, as all empties have to be overhauled and repaired within the next month in order to handle the summer business.

—Bajus' Brewery.

Canadian Casualties.
Died of Wounds—E. Cotey, Lindsay. Wounded—J. R. Lane, North Augusta; J. A. Harstone, Peterboro; Ross Hart, Camden East; M. J. McAuliffe, Omamee; E. F. Post, Havelock.

Seriously ill—B. Pickford, Cobourg.

Ladies' Magnificence.
Vogue, Harper's Bazaar, Delicatessen, Modern Priscilla, Home Needlework, Fashionable Dress, etc. The College Book Store.

THEATRICAL NEWS.

To-night "The Girl Who Smiles."
"The Girl Who Smiles," direct from its successful run of 200 nights at the Longacre Theatre, will appear at the Grand Opera House to-night. Of all the productions made this season, "The Girl Who Smiles" enjoys the distinction of having the longest run to date on Broadway of any of them. Although commonly described as a musical comedy, it is more than that. It is a light opera in a class with "The Chocolate Soldier," "Havanna" and a fit successor to "Alma," "Adele" and "The Midnight Girl," which was written by the same author, Paul Herve, Jean Briquet, the English version having been made by Adolph Phillip and Edward A. Paulton. It will be presented by the same wonderfully balanced company in its entirety that so impressed itself in its long run in New York. The remarkable thing about "The Girl Who Smiles" is that independent of its beautiful music, it has a story that in itself without music would be an exceedingly interesting play.

"In Walked Jimmy."
The grand old game of bluff played right up to the notch by a clever young man who possesses "a heart full of love, four dollars and thirty-seven cents and two neckties" is the medium for introducing "In Walked Jimmy," the four act comedy which brings George Summers and a high class company of fifteen people to the Grand Opera House on Tuesday evening April 3rd.

Jimmy, full of sunshine and "pep" to say nothing of a few ideas on the management of a baby shoe factory has been dispelling gloom for a whole season, and still there are a few people who have never made his acquaintance. More is the pity because Jimmy is worth knowing. Jimmy manages everything. Even Old Sol is on his pay roll, ready at his beck and call to turn on the sunshine in great golden floods whenever gloom threatens to get the upper hand. Described as "a comedy with a purpose" this play from the pen of Mrs. Ronie H. Jaffa, a clever California playwright is guaranteed to please.

At Griffin's.

Again last evening our splendid programme was viewed by a large and interested audience, who commented favorably upon the excellency of the bill in general, and the feature attraction "Great Expectations," in play, being an adaptation of the novel by Charles Dickens is sufficient evidence in itself that the picture is one which is sure to please young and old alike. The two youthful favorites Louise Huff and Jack Pickford, who are starred in this production, have done much to make this picture the great success it is, and are given ample opportunity to display their splendid artistic ability. The thrilling episode of "The Shielding Shadow," which was shown again last night, is of more than usual interest, and is surrounded throughout with mystery and intrigue. The picture programme is nicely rounded out with a "Mutual Weekly," showing items of interest in all parts of the world.

In addition to the above picture programme the management also have a splendid vaudeville act, very novel and entertaining, which contributes to the general success of our programme. This bill will be shown for the last time this evening.

Mary Pickford Coming to Griffin's

Mary Pickford's appearance is always one of charm. No matter whether she is in rags, the silk kimono of Butterfly, the riot of colors of far away India, the worn-out home garments of Tess and the Foundling, or the clattering wooden shoes of Hulda, there is always the same charm, the same sweetness and the winsomeness that makes her so appealing to everyone. In her latest Arteratt picture, "The Pride of the Clan," to be seen in this city shortly, she portrays the Scotch lassie, and when clad in kilts and with her golden hair thrown about her gracefully poised head she is more beautiful than ever. It is a character that holds out every opportunity to the star for making it one of the most popular parts she has ever created. In other words it is an ideal Mary Pickford part, and that is just what all of Mary Pickford admirers want.

At the Strand.

The principal role in "The Last of the Ingrams," newest Triangle play, which will be seen at the Strand for the first three days of next week, is allotted to Wm. Desmond. The story has to do with one Jules Ingram, the last of a family of well-known settlers in a bleak Cape Cod community. Jules has inherited a genial and loving disposition from his French mother, but his inhospitable surroundings depress him so thoroughly that he becomes a drunkard just to be different from his neighbors. Mervy Reed, a girl who has made one great mistake which has led to her astracism, shows her sympathy with Jules when his home is sold at auction. They become friends and in facing the abuse and hatred of their fellow townsmen, finally achieve a victory that leads to the better things of life. Mr. Desmond is ably supported by Margery Wilson. Comedy reels and polite vaudeville will also hold the boards.

LATE SOCIAL NEWS.

Miss Mavis Soutter, St. Catharines, the wife of Col. and Mrs. W. F. Anderson, Ottawa, for several weeks, is coming to Kingston on Monday. Miss Ruth Hubbell, Ottawa, is leaving Kingston to spend Easter with her grandmother, Mrs. Hubbell, Bagot street.

Miss Doris Brown is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Millan, and Miss Ruth Hubbell, in Ottawa, is returning on Monday to her home in Kingston.

A colored woman named Jones, sentenced to four years for theft, has arrived at the penitentiary. The market gardeners were besieged with customers on Saturday.

Women's Prettiest NEW EASTER CLOTHES

Are Now Ready.

Easter Coats, Suits, Dresses, which are distinctively individual. These new styles have just arrived in time for Easter buying.

You may select any Suit, Coat or Dress tonight and have it ready for Easter, even if not ready to buy.

Laidlaws Easter Kid Gloves

Our tested French Kid Gloves for street and dress wear, in tans, greys, white, navy, mode shades, black. $1.50 pair.

The "Brabant"

A high class French kid glove in shades of tans, black, white, greys, modes. $1.75.

All fresh new stock just received from France.

Easter Handkerchiefs

Dainty novelties, 25c to 75c.

Fine plain linen, 15c to 35c.

Fine sheer linen, 15c to 25c.

Easter Veilings

Smart black veilings in a number of new meshes.

Easter Neckwear

Just received many novelties. Come and see them tonight.

John Laidlaw & Son

A Substitute for Leather

We are showing shoes for men and women with NEOLIN SOLES. This sole has proved very satisfactory and is ABSOLUTELY WATERPROOF.

The Lockett Shoe Store

P.S.—We have a splendid cleaner for colored kid.

To-Night

Gloves for Easter

BEST QUALITY IMPORTED FRENCH GLOVES; genuine kid, every pair fully guaranteed; black, white and the new shades of tan and grey; all sizes from 5½ to 7½, at less than manufacturer's present price. $1.50 a Pair.

CHAMOISLETTE GLOVES; white, tan, and natural; the washable kind, at 75c, 90c and $1.00 a Pair.

LISLE THREAD GLOVES, in black, white, tan and greys, all sizes at 50c, 60c, and 75c a Pair.

MEN'S KID GLOVES; Dent's best English make in heavy Cape Kid and grey suede, the last for some time at this price. $1.50 A PAIR

CHILDREN'S KID GLOVES

Waldron's