Gananoque

(From Our Own Correspondent)

April 28.—Under the auspices of the Young People's Society of Grace Church the last social of the conference year, held at that lecture hall last evening. It was advertised as a "Penny Social." The function was quite liberally patronized. An excellent programme was provided. The entertainment under the auspices of No. 1 Company (Christ Church Troop of Girl Guides) was repeated last evening at the Parish House and again drew a large attendance. Latest reports show that Mrs. William Davidson, Brock Street, who has been very seriously ill with pneumonia, has taken a turn for the better. Bradley Acton, Pittsburg, Pa., son of the late James Acton of this town, is spending some time here with relatives. Thomas Ferris, invalided home from the front some time ago, has received the position of light house keeper at Burnt Island, formerly held by the late James Acton. Backyard gardening is to be the order of the day here this season. Lots that have never been known to be cultivated have, in many instances, already been ploughed and quite an amount of vegetables have already been planted.

April 28.—The following item from a recent issue of the Insurance and Fire Review, dealing with the eleventh annual report of the General Accident Assurance Co. of Canada, is of some considerable interest to residents of both Gananoque and Kingston, the former of which is represented by Inspector William E. Meggs, of the firm of Meggs Bros., and the latter by Stephen Roughton, Brock street, Kingston. The report shows a year's business of $261,266.31, made up of $32,469.66 premium income and $18,796.65 interest on investments. Assets were $429,373.82, of which $277,179.95 is invested in city, town and school debentures, $32,950 in loan company debentures, $71,247.87 in high grade stocks, and the balance in cash and outstanding premiums. The company's investments are all put in at cost, but the management has written off $12,550.56 for depreciation. This enviable position has been attained through the able and efficient work of John J. Durance, manager and secretary of the company. As a bolt from above comes the resignation of Durance from the position which he has so ably filled for a number of years to enter into partnership with his brother, R. J. Durance, former sales manager for Australasia of the Ford Motor Car Co. on May 1st, under the firm name of Durance Brothers, Insurance Brokers, Queen Street, Toronto.

Inspector Meggs of this town was in Toronto during the fore part of the week, when the company's statement presented their retiring manager with a beautiful wrist watch as a slight token of their esteem and appreciation. His successor, who has not yet been appointed, will take charge of the company under splendid financial conditions and a guarantee for fair dealing and prompt settlement of claims, which has made it one of the very best in Canada today.

COBourg OUT TO PRODUCE

Yards, Vacant Lots, Glebe Lands to be Cultivated.
Cobourg, April 28.—The Cobourg Board of Trade, backed up by Mayor Green, and members of the Town Council, and by prominent citizens, has taken up the matter of production and the cultivation of all garden plots and waste ground. The town has been divided into three wards, with a strong committee in charge of each, while a special committee is in charge of the competition between boys from fourteen years to twenty years old, for a prize of $100 offered by J. E. Stone, formerly of Toronto, for the best garden plots. The crop to be grown are potatoes, white beans, cabbage and sweet corn, and $25 in prizes will be awarded for each.

MIGHT'S BODY IN LAKE.

Mystery of Peterboro Merchant's Disappearance Cleared.
Peterboro, Ont., April 28.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of E. J. Might, manager of the J. C. Turnbull Co., was cleared up when his body was found floating in the Little Lake. His watch, ring, and a number of private papers were found in the clothing. Coroner Greer decided that an inquest was not necessary. Mr. Might disappeared on Feb. 4th, and since then a search had been going on all over the country.

Back to the Old Home.

Adolphstown, April 28.—On April 20th, a reception was held in honor of Corpl. James Dorland, who arrived from the fring line. The Church Hall was crowded. The speeches given by J. B. Allison, Rev. Mr. Dickenson, and Rev. Mr. Phelps, were interesting. The solos by Miss Bogart and Miss Haight and Overton Roblin were appreciated, as was shown by loud applause. James Dorland gave an interesting account of his travels from the time he left home till he arrived on the fring line, and from that till he arrived home again. Miss Geneva Roblin presented Mr. Dorland with a purse of gold, while E. M. Johnston read the address Corpl. Dorland, we are glad to say, looks fine, after his twenty-three months on the fring line, and has come home lucky, without a scratch.

We Have Canvassed the Entire Motor Truck Industry to Help You Solve Your Hauling and Delivery Problem—and Now We Have Found the Solution

WE have sought economy of operation, big records of results, and a motor vehicle that is applicable to every line of industry. Our search has carried us through the largest motor truck plants in the country.

We have investigated records of operation in the hands of owners. And we have found over 30,000 Smith Form-a-Trucks in actual service, covering every line of industry in the country and backed by such remarkable records of economy, owner satisfaction, year-around service and adaptability to every line of work that we have brought this wonderful hauling and delivery unit to you.

- We Have Found Prompt Deliveries
At the Smith Form-a-Truck factory we have found tremendous production—one Smith Form-a-Truck every two minutes. We have found materials bought so far in advance that immediate delivery is guaranteed on all orders, large or small.
- We have found in the Smith Form-a-Truck Corporation one of the best financed manufacturers in the industry.
These all guarantee your satisfaction and our ability to take care of your order, and make deliveries when you want your trucks.
- We Have Found Wonderful Construction
With Smith Form-a-Truck combined with any Ford, Maxwell, Dodge Bros., Buick, Chevrolet or Overland power plant, we have found an economical construction which duplicates in sturdiness, dependability, in freedom from repair costs, the highest priced trucks you can buy.
- We have found real motor truck construction; not converted pleasure cars designed to carry moderate loads. The Smith Form-a-Truck attachment itself carries 90% of the load, and merely utilizes proved power plants to complete the design. Any one of these power plants is wonderfully adapted to motor truck service, meeting every equipment of efficient motor operation.
- We Have Found These Low Costs
8c a ton mile is the average hauling cost, exclusive of driver's wages, which is being charged up by Smith Form-a-Truck users. 6,000 to 8,000 miles per set of tires.
12 to 18 miles per gallon of gasoline, and a delivery speed of from 12 to 15 miles per hour are the average records.
And these features of operation and service will be yours as soon as you install your Smith Form-a-Truck equipment.
- We Have Found Every Body Used on Smith Form-a-Truck
Used on Smith Form-a-Truck, we have found every body, including a remarkable Eight-in-One Convertible Farm Body, which gives farm owners every type of farm wagon that could possibly be used, any one of which can be obtained in a minute simply by the manipulation of a few levers.
And we have found Smith Form-a-Truck not only equipped with every type of body ever designed for a motor truck, but we have found them doing emergency work hauling heavily loaded trailers.
There is no work you could require that Smith Form-a-Truck cannot do for you.
- We Have Installed Big Service Facilities
To take care of the tremendous demand which must come from every user of hauling or delivery service, we have installed a big service station, big facilities to meet every demand Smith Form-a-Truck owners can make upon us. This service station—these big facilities are at your disposal.
We are ready to place your hauling and delivery on an entirely new basis of economy and service—to bring new profits to you through reduced hauling and delivery charges—to increase the amount of business you can do by opening up a radius of delivery from two to three times greater than that you could possibly cover with horses.
Bring your hauling and delivery problems to us: we will solve them for you.
