EASTER IN THE CHURCHES
LARGE CONGREGATIONS IN ATTENDANCE AT SERVICES.

St. Luke's Church was profusely decorated—A special offering for a New Organ in St. James' Church.

St. Luke's church, was profusely decorated with Easter lilies, white and pink carnations, daffodils and hyacinths, to commemorate the great "Queen of Festivals." Holy communion was celebrated at 8 a.m., when the largest number of communicants for the year was present. At 11 a.m., the rector said morning prayer, and preached an able sermon from Psalm CXVIII-24. This is the day which the Lord hath made we will rejoice and be glad in it. The music at this, and all the services of the day was of an especially high order. The solos were well taken. The second celebration of the holy communion was held after morning prayer.

At 3 p.m., a children's service took place, when an appropriate address was delivered by the superintendent, William Carroll, and the children presented their mite boxes, their self-denials during Lent, which amounted to $34.47.

A crowded church greeted the rector and choir at the evening service, and the large choir present excelled themselves with the splendid music provided. Rev. J. de Pencier Wright preached. The total number of communicants for the day was 156; total collections, $221.97.

At Cooke's Church.
There was a large attendance at Cooke's Church, Sunday school, on Sunday afternoon, to hear Rev. E. R. McLean, the pastor, who gave a very impressive talk on the crucifixion, resurrection and ascension of the Saviour, which was illustrated by lantern slides. Special Easter music was rendered. The orchestra rendered several selections, and solos were sung by Miss Isabel Nelson, Rupert Claxton, and Allan Lemmon. Rupert Claxton acted as accompanist.

A special Easter collection was taken up, which amounted to $20.75, which will be devoted to the library. The pictures of all the boys of Cooke's Church Sunday school, now at the front, were shown on the slides.

H. W. Newman, superintendent, was in charge of the service.

Service at St. James'.
"The Power of Christ's Resurrection," and "Song of Redemption," formed the subjects taken by Rev. T. W. Savary in his Easter services, at St. James' Church on Sunday, and both were dealt with in a forceful manner by the rector.

The special music by the choir, included anthems, "Now with Christ Been Raised From the Dead," and "Christ is Risen." In the latter, J. Tomkins took the solo part with splendid voice and also in the anthems, "Easter Triumph" (Holden) "The Te Deum" (King-Hall) was also rendered. Mrs. A. R. B. Williams was in charge of the musical programme.

During the day, a special offering was taken up for the new organ, which will be installed by Sept. 1st, and the sum of $500 was realized.

At Bethel Church.
At Bethel Church on Sunday morning, C. H. Ballard, a student of Queen's University, preached a sermon appropriate with Easter. The choir rendered an anthem, "Hail O Joyous Morn."

The congregation joined with the First Congregational Church, for the evening service.

Princess Street Church.
Princess street Methodist Church was prettily decorated for Easter Sunday. Rev. H. E. Curry spoke at both services. In the morning his text was, "Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord." The special Easter music at the evening service was well rendered.

At the evening musical service "Thanks be to God" and "Hallelujah" were the two anthems given, the solo parts being taken by Miss S. Parrott and Miss Flynn. Miss A. Timmerman and Miss E. Macdonald rendered solos and a duet was given by Messrs. Jones and Van Alstyne. Messrs. Jones, Van Alstyne, Wikiny and Baker also sang a quartette number. The music was under the leadership of Miss C. Wilder.

At the Sunday school in the afternoon Dean Coleman gave an inspiring address on "the Easter Message of the Birds."

At First Congregational Church.
The First Congregational Church was prettily decorated for the special services and large congregations attended in the morning and evening. Rev. John Lyall, Calgary church, preached in the morning and in the evening, Rev. T. De Courcy Bayner officiated at a special united Easter service and sacrament of the Lord's supper. The congregation of Bethel church was present at the evening service. The music for both services was appropriate.

At Brock Street Church.
Rev. George Clendinning preached two sermons appropriate to the occasion at the Easter services on Sunday. The musical part of the programme was of an excellent character, and included the following anthems, "O Blest Redeemer," "Hallelujah, Christ is Risen," "The Resurrection," "Hosanna." The soloists were Miss F. A. Nesbitt, Miss Jessie McArthur, and Mr. Oliver.

First Baptist Church.
The services in the First Baptist Church yesterday all breathed Easter inspiration. In the morning the pastor preached an appropriate sermon on "The new note in the Easter message." There was a full choir and the services of praise were inspiring. The solo, "Easter Day," was very sweetly sung by Mrs. K. F. Mather. The solo, "Christ is Risen," was also well rendered by Miss Muriel Breathwaite. The anthem, "Why Seek Ye the Living Among the Dead?" was well sung by the choir, Mrs. Mather taking the solo parts.

In the evening the pastor's subject was "Easter Gladness." The anthems were, "The Lord of Life is Risen," and "The Lord is Risen Again," the solo parts being taken by F. Edmondson, Sidney Salisbury directed the choir in the service of praise, with air usual fine ability. (See also Page 5.)

FIRE IN A BED ROOM
AN EARLY MORNING BLAZE AT MOWAT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

Staff of Nurses and Soldiers Did Good Work in Getting Patients to Safety—The Cause of the Fire is Unknown.

Fire, which started in a patient's room from some unknown cause, did damage estimated at about $500 at the Mowat Memorial Hospital about two o'clock on Sunday morning.

Chief Armstrong and his men responded and were on the job and extinguished the blaze.

The staff of nurses and the convalescent soldiers who were able to look after themselves acted promptly after the alarm was given, and as a result of their quick work all the patients who were unable to look after themselves were carried to a place of safety.

The entire staff is deserving of great credit for the manner in which they worked, and the presence of mind they showed.

The patient, in whose room the fire was discovered, was awakened by the room filling with smoke. He did not tell what had caused the fire, but lost no time in ringing a bell and giving a general alarm.

CATHOLIC CLERGY OBJECTED
To R.C.H.A. Band Playing in St. George's Cathedral.

The R.C.H.A. band was to have played at the services in St. George's Cathedral on Sunday, but on Saturday night R. R. F. Harvey, the cathedral organist, was informed that on account of religious objections being raised, the band would not take part. In former years the R.C.H.A. band has played at the St. George's Easter services. At present the organization is composed largely of Roman Catholics, and their clergy objected to them taking part in an Anglican musical service.

GRANT MAY BE 30 CENTS.
Government to Increase Allowance to Hospitals.

While the Ontario Government has not announced the extent to which it proposes to increase its grant to hospitals, it is understood that the increase will be from twenty to thirty cents per diem per patient.

The municipalities are being required to increase their contributions to the support of local hospitals from $1 to $1.25.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin"
In all of its historic glory, the famous old play, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was played on Saturday afternoon and evening here to capacity houses in the Grand. The scenery carried by the William H. Kibbie's company is perhaps the finest ever seen with this play. The home of little Eva on the Southern plantation residence, Legrees cotton plantation, the rocky pass of the Ohio River and the famous "crossing the ice scene" were all well staged and appreciated.

Married at Yarker.
The marriage took place at Yarker on April 4th, of Miss May Wilson, daughter of Myles Wilson, and Clifton Smith, son of Dennis Smith. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Bunner. The bride was dressed in pink crepe de chine, and wore a white lace hat. Her traveling suit was of navy serge. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left via the Canadian Northern Railway on a trip to Belleville and other points west. They will reside at Yarker.

TO MEET EASTER RUSH
Two Rigs Were Required to Handle Parcel Post in Kingston.
An extra rig had to be utilized at the Kingston post office, to meet the Easter rush. There was an extra large consignment of goods from outside points, including Easter bonnets and garments, showing that the big stores in Toronto and Montreal do a rushing mail order business from this city.

The post office had quite a heavy rush of Easter cards. Judging by the large sale of Easter cards at Uglow's and the College Book Store the practice of sending Easter greetings is now being carried on extensively.

PRISONERS OBJECT
To United States Having Declared War on the Federals.
The German prisoners of war at Fort Henry are "hot" as a result of the United States going into the war. Some are taking it very quietly and not expressing opinions, but others are loud in their outcry against President Wilson.

The prisoners and guard are packing up preparatory for the move to the new camp at Kapuskasing.

Alberta Stock Looking Fine.
In remitting his yearly subscription to the Whig, R. J. Cuddy, Pine Lake, Alta., and a former resident of the east, writes as follows:
"We have had a very cold winter up here and have lots of snow for sleighing yet. Notwithstanding the severe weather, horses and cattle are looking fine all over the province. We had sixty-five degrees below zero; that was the coldest in this district. Wishing you and the Whig the best of luck."
