BASEBALL BRIEFS

New York leads in club batting with .305 and in fielding with .979.

Bob Fisher, formerly of the Leafs and latterly of Chicago and Cincinnati, is playing shortstop for Mike Doohan's Rochester team.

Morrisette, the former Baltimore pitcher, was taken south by the Giants this season and who left camp in a huff after a rumpus with McGraw, has been highly recommended to Rochester. He is a good pitcher but is a difficult man to handle.

The Baltimore team has a couple of good men in Outfielder Barber and Infielder Shannon. The latter is being used at short and is a better man than Sammy Crane, who was bought from the Orioles by Washington. Shannon has a wonderful arm, is fast and can hit, something that Crane could never do. Barber is very fast man in the field and on the bases.

Headful hints advice baseball players to give Ty Cobb's spikes right of way.

War has killed baseball just as it has killed the munitions-making industry.

Baseball writers now agree that Christy Mathewson and his Cincinnati Reds have a chance to finish better than eighth in the National League race.

There's danger of a baseball panic at Boston. "Jack" Barry admits that the Red Sox must strengthen if they hope to repeat.

It's pretty tough on a guy who is both a baseball and boxing fan. The poor fish never gets a vacation.

Owner Comiskey, of the Chicago White Sox, is said to have paid $8,000 to the Cleveland club for the release of first baseman Chick Gandil.

Connie Mack has furnished the baseball world with another sensation—Ray Bates, the California infielder, who drove in five runs in one game last week.

It is rumored that Cleveland has made an offer to Boston for Catcher Forest Cady, who is wanted, so the story goes, as a battery mate for Joe Wood.

Bert Tooley and Ray Miller are two players of experience who will attempt "come backs" with the Newark Bears this season. Tooley was out of the game last season with rheumatism.

Even an umpire can come back. John Mullen came from the Western League to the International a few years ago and then drifted back to the west. Now he is making another return, coming back again from the Western to the International.

Snubron, of the St. Louis Browns, who held Cleveland in a solitary bingle recently, pitched for Haverhill in the old New England League a few seasons back, and the Browns bought him from Portland, Ore. He was a big go for McCree's Coast League team last season, and Manager Jones has been counting on him to show something. It was his first big league start, and it was some start.

The failure of Adams to fill the first base position at Pittsburgh has caused two other shifts in Jimmy Callahan's line-up. Bill Hinchman's return to the infield brought about a shift of Bigbee from second base to the outfield, Alex McCarthy getting the infield assignment.

Hughie Jennings declares that Detroit cannot win the American League pennant without Oscar Vitt, the brilliant third baseman, who is now the only major league holdout, but President Frank Navin, of the Tigers, says that he will not give in to Vitt. The latter is the greatest defensive third baseman since Jimmy Collins was in his prime.

Bob Fisher, formerly of the Toronto Leafs, is playing shortstop for "Mike" Doohan's Rochester Hustlers.

President McCaffery, of the Toronto Leafs, announces that Pitchers Martin and Russell had been released outright.

"Cy" Ferry, the ex-Detroit hurler, is handling the indicator in the North Carolina League.

Pitcher Lou Peterson, who twirled for Ottawa in the Canadian League in 1914 and 1915, is again with the Fort Wayne Club, from which team he first went to Ottawa.

Further facts gleaned from big league games to date. Ty Cobb can hit. Walter Johnson can pitch. Fritz Mauer can run the bases and Grover Cleveland Alexander has his good right arm well oiled for this summer.

This will probably be Sam Crawford's last season in the majors. He has intimated as much to Manager Hughie Jennings.

Jacobson continues to be the star of the Toronto team. This fast youngster will be a great favorite in Toronto this season. He has done well in all of his games and kept up the good work Monday at Richmond by stealing a base, beating out an infield tap and walling the ball for a double and a home run. He is a left-handed thrower and batsman, and possesses a very strong arm.

ELEVEN TIMES CHAMPION

Jay Gould is a Wonder at the Lawn Tennis Game.

Seldom has a champion enjoyed more fully the fruits of his prowess in sport than has Jay Gould in the realm of tennis. For the eleventh consecutive time he has been crowned as the title holder in the national amateur championship, and it becomes more and more evidently evident that his supremacy will not be seriously threatened for some years to come. That coterie of players who have been clamoring for his title must feel certain now that their skill is far short of that necessary to humble Gould. Relinquish the championship he must at some future time, but when such a happening is recorded the name of the successful antagonist will doubtless be one that is as yet unheralded among followers of the ancient game. There is, of course, one other alternative—that Gould will retire, and he did from the open championship. But that possibility is hardly a visible factor at present. Gould is too firm a devotee of the game, too proficient a wielder of the racquet, to pass the championship mantle to other shoulders without a struggle. To watch Gould in the court one is naturally first impressed with his skill, and, secondly, with the keen relish with which he plays. He never appears to take the game too seriously, even in a championship match, and this may in some degree account for his steady amassing of titles year after year. There is the same carefree style of play which characterizes the natural champion as opposed to the manufactured champion. Gould combines aptitude and confidence and perseverance, and the result is a brilliancy of play that is the despair of those who would like to tread the path to a championship, but who find his presence an insurmountable obstacle.

LEADING MAJOR HITTERS

Are Speaker and Gowdy—Cobb Seventh in American.

Ernie Speaker of Cleveland, champion batter of 1916, got away for a flying start in the race for hitting honors in the American League, his official average for the first six games of the season being .400, 25 points ahead of Peckinpaugh of New York. The averages include games of Wednesday, April 18th.

Cobb, Detroit, is seventh in the list with an average of .333. Leibold of Chicago and Hobitzel of Boston lead in stolen bases with three each. Cobb has two. Barry of Boston tops the list in sacrifice hits with four and in runs scored with eight. Six are tied for home-run honors with one each. Walker, Boston, leads in total bases with seventeen. Chicago is leading in club batting with a percentage of .258 and in fielding with .938.

With the National League season little more than a week old, batting averages published last Saturday show that the leaders of last season have not yet struck their stride. Many of the new men in the league have gone to the front. Hank Gowdy of Boston leads batters with an average of .600 and Benny Kauff of New York is next with .558. Baird of Pittsburgh leads in runs scored with six. Roush of Cincinnati leads in total bases with 20. In the home run department six players are tied with one each. The stolen base record shows five players tied with two each. Ward, Pittsburg, leads in sacrifice hits with four.

TECUMSEHS AGAIN REJECTED

Application to N.L.U. Tabled Until Next Saturday.

The president of the National Lacrosse Union finally fell to Joe Lally of Cornwall after much discussion during the meeting of the N. L. U.

The application for admission to the league from the Tecumseh club, Toronto, was read, and Fred Thompson, late of the Rosedale, gave the N. L. U. an outline of the plans of this club for the season.

The meeting finally decided to allow the matter to rest until next week, when the clubs will meet again for the final make-up of the league and the drawing up of the schedule for the season. The Ottawa club representatives felt that they could not make the trip to Toronto at their own expense.

Tecumseh's offer to pay half of the travelling expenses of the Ottawa and Cornwall teams, but the Shamrocks and Nationals stated that they did not wish to have all the heavy expenses of the league. The clubs also were against the idea of the percentage system and if the Toronto team is taken into the fold it is more than likely that a double schedule will be played. In the event of the league remaining with four clubs, a triple schedule will be in vogue.

Cornell Cancels Meet.

The annual interscholastic track meet usually held in May by the Cornell Athletic Association has been cancelled for the present season. This action was taken by the Athletic Council of the university because of the feeling that the nation has first call on the services of its citizens, including the schoolboy athletes, who can be useful in many ways, and particularly in agricultural work.

Patsy Cardiff Dead.

Patrick (Patsy) Cardiff, once famous as a heavyweight prize fighter, died Saturday at the Oregon State Hospital at Salem, aged 53. In his fighting days Cardiff met nearly all of the contemporary heavyweights, including John L. Sullivan, with whom he fought a six-round draw in Minneapolis on Jan. 18, 1895.

Baseball men prophesy tough riding for minor league clubs on the American side this season.

SPORTING NOTES.

Four $5,000 each have been offered for 2 1/2 trotters and 2 1/2 pacers at the meeting to be held in connection with the Wisconsin State Fair at Milwaukee in September. These are the largest harness racing purses of the year outside of the Grand Circuit.

Danny Webster, Hamilton's best basketballer, and an all-round athlete, has joined the flying corps. He is in Toronto to take up his training.

An interesting stud note from "Paris Sport" is to the effect that Semendria, who won the Grand Prix de Paris and French Oaks in 1909, is in foal to the trotter Nirois. This is the first time that a thoroughbred mare of the high class of Semendria has been crossed with a trotting stallion, and the doings of the foal will in due course be watched with considerable interest in France.

Joe Lally, of Cornwall, is the new president of the National Lacrosse Union, and he should be the right man for the position. Joseph has been a lacrosse booster all his life, and is sure to do anything that will encourage the sport.

Grouchy Gus says. Texas has been given to Mexico by the Kaiser, but you may recall that Jim Jeffries also gave the heavyweight title to Marvin Hart, and all Marvin got was a punch on the nose.

Records no longer indicate with any degree of certainty the class in which horses are eligible to race under the new tariff code. Of the pacers that entered the 2 1/4 Hst last season sixteen are eligible to start in the 2.30 class this year and forty-six are eligible to classes slower than their records.

Ball Players Hurt. It developed that Wortman, of the Chicago Nationals and Roush, of the Cincinnati team, both of whom were injured in last Sunday's game at Cincinnati and had to be removed from the field, are seriously hurt and will be out of the game for some time. The attending physician says that Wortman's ankle is broken and that he will not be able to play for at least six weeks, while Roush sustained a sprained ankle and will be laid up for two or three weeks.

Sport Maxims. Work turned out at high pressure often is most effective; but high pressure continued without rest wrecks the machinery.

Sport without real sportsmanship is not worthy of the name. Losing one's temper in an argument is a confession of weakness. Belittling the skill of another does not add to your reputation. There is more honor in defeating a good than a mediocre field.

Can Box in Minnesota. Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion, and Matt Brock, a Cleveland rival, may box in Minnesota if they wish. Their suspension by the Minnesota State Boxing Commission has been lifted. They were barred when it was alleged they broke a contract to box before a Minneapolis club. It was brought out however, that Brock had not signed.

Matty Buys Thorpe. Manager Mathewson of the Cincinnati Nationals, announces that he has obtained the services of Jim Thorpe of the New York Nationals. The deal involved a straight sale, but the price was not announced.
