HOSPITAL TO OPEN SOON

FOR OVERSEAS PATIENTS WHO ARE COMING SOON.

Date About the 18th of May—Nurses' Home in Court House Is Finished—Hospital Trains to Be Used.

The Court House upper flat has now been put into splendid shape for the reception of the nursing sisters who will be in attendance at the 1,000-bed hospital to be opened here shortly.

Both the Supreme Court and Division Court rooms have been subdivided into neat apartments some fifteen feet square, the walls of which are about ten feet high. These will be used as private rooms by the nurses. The dining hall is bigger than the remainder and well arranged.

The work has now been completed, and the place is ready for occupation. As soon as Grant Hall and the new Arts building, together with the recently erected kitchen building, are completed the first patients will be arriving, and this is estimated to be in about three weeks.

With regard to the bringing in of patients, the new hospital trains—the first in Canada—will be the means of transportation. These trains are used exclusively for the sick soldiers from the ocean steamships. Two of such trains have passed through the city.

As soon as the hospital is ready these trains will run to Kingston, where ambulances will drive the patients to the hospital.

OBITUARY

The Late J. Campbell.

On Thursday morning about eight o'clock death came to John Campbell, a well-known and successful farmer resident of Sunbury. The deceased lived the seventy-four years of his life in this district. He was a devoted Methodist, taking an active interest in the church, and was Sunday school superintendent for a number of years.

His wife predeceased him eleven years ago, and there is now left to mourn the loss his sister, Mrs. James Birmingham, Taylor; six daughters, Mrs. Colin C. Crowe, Halbrite, Sask.; Mrs. J. A. Maxwell, Gananook, Sask.; Leonard Edwards, Saskatoon, Sask.; Mrs. Charles H. Moore, Harris, Sask.; Mrs. Allan T. Johnston, Stockton, N. Y.; Miss Ada E. Campbell, Sunbury; and three sons, Maynard L. Thomas M., and John L. D. Campbell, all of Sunbury.

The Late Mrs. Burrows.

Nettie May Rikley, wife of Dr. Burrows, Marlbank, passed away in the Hotel Dieu on Thursday morning about 10:30 o'clock, after a three months' illness. The deceased was brought to the hospital some time ago, but apparently on the road to recovery was later taken back to her home. A relapse followed, however, and she again had to come here on Tuesday last.

The deceased was born near Centerville in Camden township forty-four years ago, but resided at Marlbank for the past twenty-two years. She was an Anglican in religion.

Besides her husband, three sons, Frederick, in the city; Andrew and Belle, survive.

The remains were taken on Thursday to Marlbank, and the funeral will be on Sunday to Nanawau.

THE COUNTY CLERK TO HELP ON FARM

Intends to Do His Bit by Working During Seeding Time.

J. W. Bradshaw, county clerk, is contemplating, if permission is granted him, to be of practical benefit to the Greater Production Campaign. He is going to ask Warden McKnight and others of the County Council for permission to be absent from his office for two weeks of seeding time—between May 15th and June 1st. During that time he will go back into the country and take the place of men who have gone overseas.

Being a practical farmer, Mr. Bradshaw should be of great assistance on any farm, and the county authorities will most certainly give their assent to his doing patriotic duty.

SEEDS HAVE ARRIVED

And Are Being Distributed to the School Children.

Two thousand packages of seed for onions, beets and carrots arrived in the city on Wednesday, and are being distributed among the school children.

The Board of Education's committee, which was voted $100, has decided to allot the amount in a large number of prizes, to be awarded to those who win in the garden production campaign. Suitable judges will be secured to allocate the prize winners.

Germans May Evacuate Mulhausen. Paris, April 26.—Swiss reports state that evidence is apparent that Mulhausen may be evacuated by the Germans. Swiss military critics believe Hindenburg's need for troops may force the shortening of his line by abandoning the Altkirch-Mulhausen wedge to the Swiss, frontally by taking up a new line through Colmar to the Rhine.

Thomas Findley has been appointed president and general manager of the Massey-Harris Company, in succession to the late Sir Lyman Melvin-Jones.

The 164th, 210th, 227th and 231st Battalions, with drafts of several branches of the service, arrived safely in England.

In Toronto receipts from fines for drunkenness for six months amounted to $25,000.

THEATRICAL NEWS.

To-night at Grand.

For to-night and Friday matinee and night a splendid bill has been secured for the Grand Opera House. The programme includes a Vitaphone Blue Ribbon Feature, Peggy Hyland with Miss Macdermat in "Babette." The story of a girl who saved a man's soul without ever knowing the miracle she had wrought. Gentle in its unfolding, sweet in its play of forces, "Babette" is an emotional play which is as loving as a mother's caress. Other pictures to be shown are a two-reel Universal drama, a comedy film and the Pathe News. This together with two palpitante vaudeville acts will complete a first class bill for to-night and Friday only.

"Stop! Look! Listen!"

Originality is invariably the keynote of success. Of course there have been exceptions. But in the theatrical world, as in other spheres, for that matter, something that is different, is the thing that attracts attention and gets the laurels along with the stray sheekles. In the way of a diversion that makes contemporary entertainments secondary and commonplace, we think that the new musical comedy offering, "Stop! Look! Listen!" composed by Irving Berlin with book by Harry B. Smith, is the best that has been presented in seasons. This is the same production that ran for an entire year at the Globe Theatre, New York City and at Boston. "Stop! Look! Listen!" headed by Al. B. White, Bobby Harrington, Billie Gaston, Mary Amrose, Leonard Thompson, Peggy Reynolds, and Allen and Allen, is undeniably to hold the boards at the Grand on Saturday, April 28th, matinee and night.

"The Whip."

Absolutely the greatest motion picture in the world is "The Whip" the masterly production which comes to the Grand on Monday and Tuesday April 30th and May 1st with a daily matinee without one star, but six, with not only one sensational scene, but scores of them. Produced on the most lavish scale imaginable, it is a triumph for the purpose of securing one scene alone cost $25,000—this tremendous production which ran at the Drury Lane Theatre in London for three years. The stage play also had a two year run in Australia and was translated into other languages than the English, and was played with large success in Europe. The motion picture, offering as it does much greater possibilities for scenic effects than the stage could possibly do, is a really wonderful offering. It is an attraction of the highest possible merit and, entertaining abilities and it has been well named the greatest motion picture in the world.

At Griffin's.

The true art of the moving picture has a splendid exponent in the new Mary Pickford film, "A Poor Little Rich Girl," which will be seen at Griffin's to-day, Friday and Saturday. The role of "Gwen" is a typical "Little Mary" role, giving every opportunity for the Pickford post, smiles, curls and cute mannerisms; but these are not all that enter into her portrayal of the poor little rich girl. She makes good use of the opportunities offered in the closing scenes, where Gwen is lying between life and death, and lives the part in a way that draws every sympathy and changes laughter to tears. The lavish settings, the photography, lighting and tinting effects, combined with a story that is novel, full of humor and pathos and subtly instructive make it one of Mary Pickford's best perhaps, perhaps the most satisfactory picture, every detail considered, in which she has ever appeared. In addition, to the above extraordinary production, the management must show another feature picture, entitled "One Day," which comes to the screen as a sequel to "Three Weeks," written by Elinor Glyn, the noted novelist. The leading feminine role of "Opal" is portrayed by Jeanne Iver, the celebrated classic dancer and operatic star, who recently returned from abroad. The fifteenth episode of "The Shielding Shadow" on the same bill clears up many complex situations, and is unusually interesting. This bill will be shown the last three days of this week.

At the Strand.

Stand on any corner in New York City or any other large city of the United States and you would never think that anything stood still, especially the men. Therefore when you hear about "The Man Who Stood Still" you are inclined to think at this wonderful age of progress that he must be something picked up in the old curiosity shop. "The Man Who Stood Still" was Louis Mann's triumphant stage success, and has been produced in pictures with the same clearness, highly entertaining, instructive and cheek-full of wholesome amusement, and will be shown at the Strand for the last three days of this week. Comedy reels and palpitante vaudeville will also hold the boards.

A Fine Address.

The fine audience present at the new Orange Hall (ground floor) listened with interest while R. McMurdo, Chicago, spoke on the subject of "The Judgment Seat of Christ," II Corinthians, v. 10: "For we must all appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, whether they be good or bad." was used to show the importance of the subject, and Christians were urged to lead such lives as would stand the searching inspection of a Holy God.

To-night Mr. McMurdo will speak on "The Millennium" and Friday on "The Last Judgment."

R. B. Bennett, M.P., bitterly attacked Hon. George P. Graham during the debate in the House on the Intercolonial Railway.

Substantial increases of wages for men employed on vessels were made by the Lake Carriers' Association.

MILITARY CIRCLES.

As a result of the recent outflow of both infantry and artillery from the city there are now very few soldiers in training for overseas service in the city. Each of the units that have gone left departs here, however, and if more recruits sign up all will again be represented.

The artillery units are now practically depleted of men, but already the officers are co-operating with Major G. I. Campbell, C.R.O., in devising a scheme to bring each well up to strength. Places like Ottawa, Smith's Falls, Brockville and Peterboro will be worked to the very best possible limit, and as many men as possible signed up. The smaller places will also receive due attention.

A would-be recruit has now a wider selection of units to go to than at any time during the war, showing that practically every branch of the service cries out for more men. The infantry and artillery are of course the most important branches. The Army Medical Corps, Forestry Service Corps, Dental Corps, Railway Construction Corps will also put forward their best efforts to round up some of the many hundreds of men who should be in khaki.

N.C.O.'s holding B.F. & P.T. certificates will wear the cross swords badge.

Lieut. W. K. Maenee, instructional cadre, came to Kingston on Tuesday from Renfrew for duty with the Infantry School.

Capt. E. J. Kyle, who was adjutant at Barriefield with the 156th Brockville Battalion under Lieut.-Col. Bell, has returned to Canada from England, and was at headquarters on Thursday morning. The 156th, according to the captain, may even now be in France with the 5th Division, as its departure was being arranged before he left. The battalion is together and one of the finest that has left Canada. Military District No. 2 is represented at the front by the 2nd, 21st and 156th Battalions.

Pte. O. E. Close, 14th Reserve Battalion and Pte. H. Winter, 50th Battalion, arrived in the city on Wednesday afternoon from the front, and were transferred to Cobourg.

Pte. Ross, P. P. C. L. I., who has been convalescing in the city, left on Thursday for his home in Vancouver.

Miss Mildred Drope, engaged in nursing in Peterboro, has been accepted for overseas service with C.A.M.C., and reached Kingston to-day.

A joint meeting of the officers of the 14th and 47th Regiments was held in the Armouries Wednesday afternoon, and plans were discussed for securing recruits in the adjacent counties for home defence. The territory to be covered is north as far as Tweed, west as far as Napawan and east to Hallowesville. A vigorous campaign will be conducted.

Join the 14th Regiment for home defence. Apply at the regiment's office on the ground floor of the Armouries. Open all day and every evening. Phone 185.

BONGARD, RYERSON & CO. OPEN KINGSTON BRANCH

It Will Be Under Management of Howard S. Folger.

Messrs. Bongard, Ryerson & Co., members of Toronto Stock Exchange, with wire connections to Toronto, Montreal and New York, are opening up a branch in Kingston under the management of Howard S. Folger, and will deal in all securities, including bonds, stocks and realties. The wire connections are now being installed, and it is expected that everything will be complete and ready for business by the first part of next week.

This, no doubt, will be very pleasing news to the many citizens of Kingston who are interested in dealing in securities and will fulfil a want that has been greatly felt for prompt and high-class service in connection therewith.

The name and record of Bongard, Ryerson & Co. are sufficient guarantee that all clients and patrons will have prompt, courteous and dependable service.

THE COMING OF CHRIST

In Glory and the Millennial Reign. Robert McMurdo, Chicago, will speak to-night at eight o'clock in the New Orange Hall (ground floor). The subject Friday night will be "The Last Judgment and The Eternal State."
