

NEAR BY PICTURES OF WORLD FAMOUS PEOPLE

Miss F. S. Stevenson, private secretary to David Lloyd George, and said to be the only woman in the world to hold such a position to the most important man in the land. Miss Stevenson's salary is about $5,000 a year. Her only brother was killed at Givenchy.

Rear Admiral Sims, of the United States navy, who has gone to England to advise with the British Navy Department on the conduct of the war in so far as it relates to the new allies.

The Captor of Bagdad. Major-General Sir F. S. Maude, who was in command of the forces which captured Bagdad. Major Maude is well known in Canada, many years ago having been attached to the staff of the Governor-General.

A new portrait of Gen. J. Franklin Bell, U.S., who succeeds Gen. Leonard Wood, as commander of the Department of the East, with headquarters at Governor's Island. General Bell is a native of Kentucky.

It is an absolute impossibility when publishing a newspaper to avoid running into "Teddy" Roosevelt every hour of the day. He is everywhere and everywhere. "A good fellow" and a staunch friend of the Allies is the irrepressible citizen Teddy of the United States. Here he is trying to look unconcerned at the recent New York Flower Show.

An incident on the Somme Front.—Not all the heroines of France have been decorated. Witness this devoted woman, who, after a recent Somme engagement, made many trips into range of German guns, to bring back wounded soldiers—walking cases—to the military hospital in her village.

Lieut-Col. J. Thorpe Grey, who recently arrived in New York from France, where he commanded the Eleventh Northumberland Fusiliers, which formed part of the British Expeditionary force in 1916.
