

PTE. CHARLES YEOMANS, Son of Sgt. L. Yeomans, G.M.P., Kingston, 224th Forestry Battalion, invalided home, having fallen on a circular saw while at Bramshot Camp, Eng., losing thumb, finger and part of right hand.

HUBERT MALLONY, Who made his home with his uncle, W. H. Carson, of Kingston. A member of the 156th Battalion, now at Whitley Camp, England. Had one brother killed in battle, and another is at present wounded in a hospital.

ARCHIE HAMILTON, 1st C.M.R., who has been missing since last June. He was with W. G. Craig & Co., Kingston, and was a brother of Mrs. W. J. Christmas, Queen street.

PTE. L. PERRIN, With Queen's Field Ambulance. South African veteran. His wife resides at 127 1/2 Montreal St., Kingston.

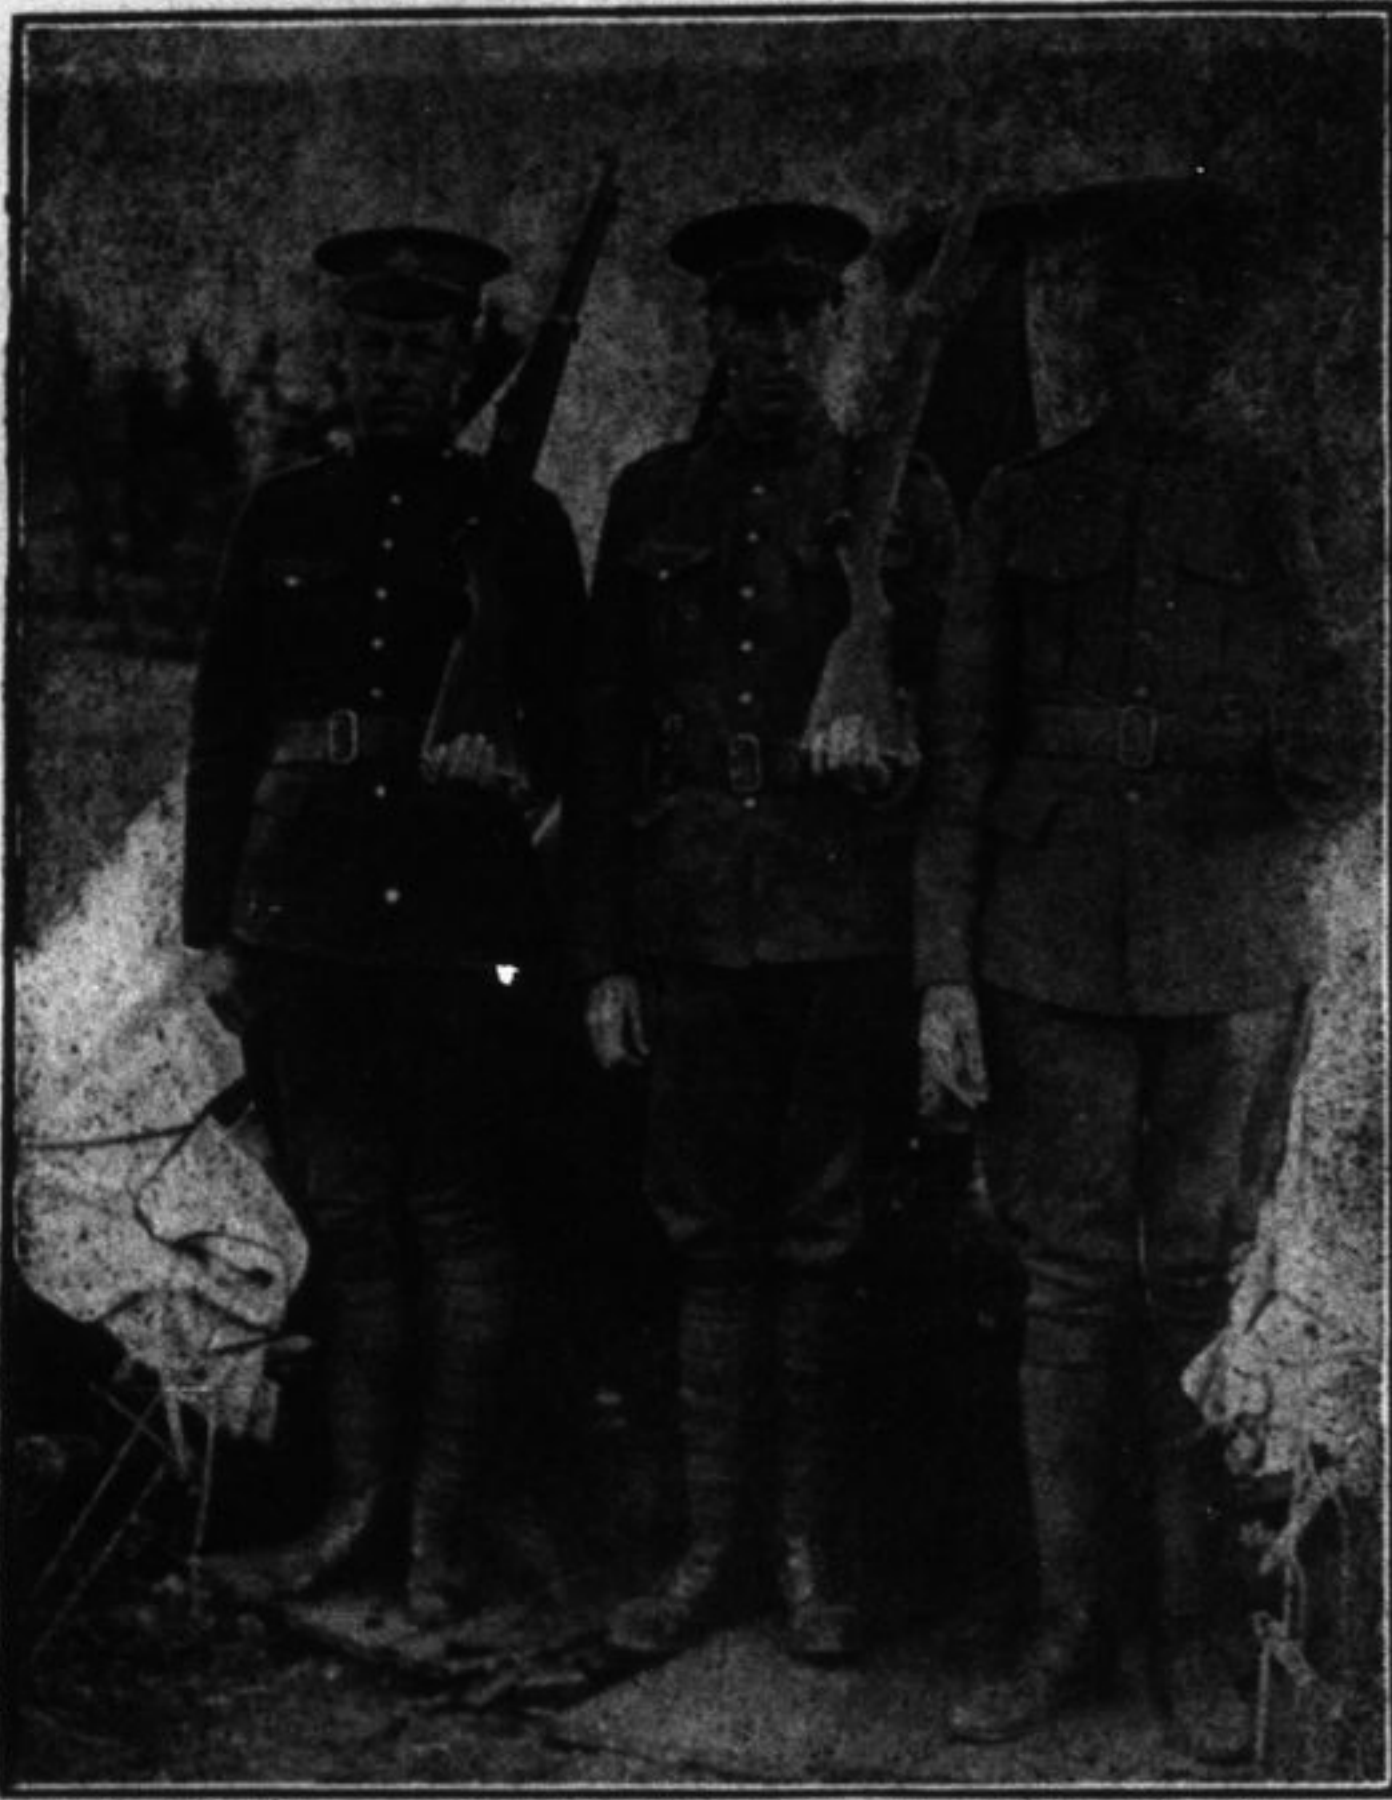

GR. N. G. TURCOTTE, 72nd Queen's Battery, now in England. Son of George Turcotte, 8 Sixth St., Kingston.

PTE. FRANK LEVEQUE (seated), Son of Thomas Leveque, Enterprise, Ont., killed in action.

SGT. L. YEOMANS, Garrison Military Police, Kingston.

Left to right—PTE. ALBERT JOHN, 228th Battalion, now in England; PTE. HENRY DOOL, 159th Battalion, on firing line; LANCE-CORP. LORNE READY, 228th Battalion, in England.

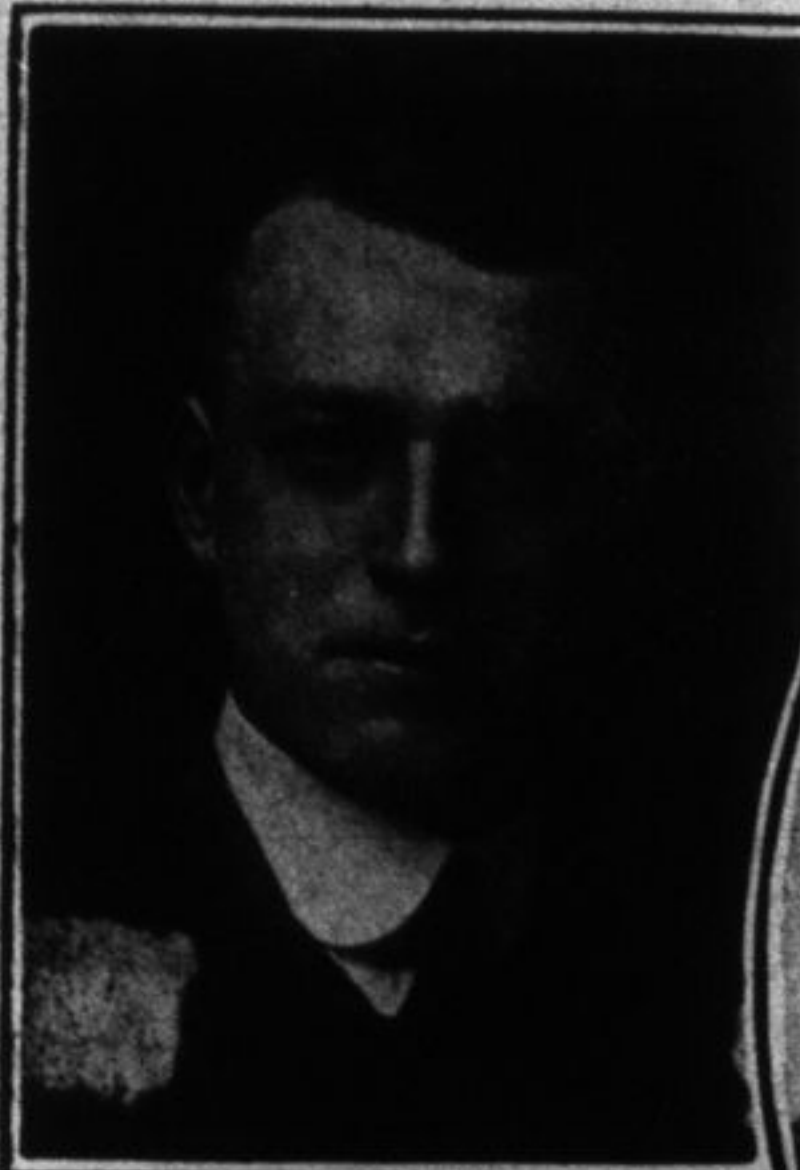

SALVATION ARMY BAND, KINGSTON.

Latest Photo of the newly organized band. Nearly all the former members went overseas with the 146th Kingston Battalion. Photo by Wilson Studio, Toronto.

DRUMMER H. MILLIGAN (seated) 21st Battalion Pipe Band, in Canadian Base Depot, Le Havre, France, with trench feet. He will be remembered in Kingston as the popular big drummer of the 21st Battalion during its training here.

Remarkable Canadians and their Remarkable Family

Sergeant-Major Philpott

Gospel Tabernacle, Hamilton, Ont.

Stuart M. Philpott

Mrs. P. W. Philpott.

Pastor Philpott and his Eight Sons.

Lieut. E. Philpott

Mrs. Philpott and her Five Daughters.