THE BRITISH LOST WHAT CANADIANS WON.

London, May 14.—In his weekly review of the war in the Sunday Observer, J. L. Garvin talks of the Canadians being forced back on Tuesday and losing Fresnoy. In this he is mistaken, as the Canadians had gone to the back line and been replaced by Imperial troops. In asserting that the Canadians will retain Fresnoy Mr. Garvin is perhaps nearer the truth, as they have expressed the wish to be allowed to make the attempt.

In the important operations north of the Scarpe the Canadians had no part, except that the long-range artillery on this front was used in the hope that the enemy might be squeezed out of Lens.
