Whose Handiwork is this? If the extract given below were printed apart from the context it would never be suspected as an extract from the circular sent out by the Ontario Resources Commission.

THE HEART OF FRANCE. The appeal of M. Viviani, representing the French delegation and the mind and heart of the French people, delivered in the parliament of Canada, appears to have been the most touching address that has ever been heard.

EDITORIAL NOTES. Horse racing should be tabooed until after the war. Of all things it should be spared in Canada. The government in licensing it commits a great offence.

PUBLIC OPINION. Who Does the Calling. Everybody is calling for conscription but the slackers and the Dominion Government.

Slackers in the States. It is said that the government has officers at the frontier towns and cities, making notes of the names and number of those who cross into the States, in order to evade military service.

Random Reels. THE DINING CAR. The popular conception of the dining car is that it is a portable restaurant which is owned by the railroads and paid for every thirty days by the passengers.

Rippling Rhymes. SALT THEM DOWN. Now, more than ever, we should salt our kopecks in a fireproof vault. He is a prudent man and wise who sets in to economize, before the stress of war arrives.

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN. WHICH ONE OF YOU CHILDREN WANT THIS PIECE OF PIE. GIVE IT TO EDDIE MAMMA. AH NO - GIVE IT TO TOMMY.
