BODY OF BOY DISCOVERED A QUIET KING'S BIRTHDAY

IT PROVED TO BE THAT OF ARTHUR LOVICK

Who Was One of Three Boys Drowned Before Easter—The Body Had Been Floating For Over a Week.

Chapter by chapter the story of the drowning of the three boys, Teddy Minnes, Arthur Lovick and William Daykin is being unfolded. First came the awful news that these three young boys were missing from their homes after having set out in a small boat just before Easter. Vigilant searches were made of the lake and river and as time wore on the people had to become reconciled to the fact that those young lives had been taken into the ever increasing toll of the victims of Lake Ontario.

Another chapter was revealed recently when the coat of William Daykin was found but the latest chapter was revealed on Saturday evening when the body of Arthur Lovick aged fifteen years was found on the rocks at the south side of the new causeway over the Cataragui river by Irwin Bogue, Division street.

While rowing a punt along the causeway about six o'clock on Saturday Mr. Bogue came across the body of a drowned boy. He immediately went to the shore of D. J. Millan, Ontario street, where the police and Corbett's ambulance were summoned. The body was located and taken to Corbett's morgue where the remains were viewed by Coroner R. J. Gardiner.

Evidence showed that the body had been floating for over a week and also that it had been on the rocks for some time. It is presumed that the strong south wind of Friday night brought the body to the causeway.

In the lad's pockets were found a gold hunting-case watch which had stopped at 11.32, a handkerchief, several pencils, a rubber, a card, and an arithmetic and French paper of Form II, K.C.I., all of which were identified by Miss Lottie Lovick, the boy's aunt, as belonging to her nephew. It was decided that an inquest would be unnecessary.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon from Cataragui vault to the family plot in the cemetery, the service being conducted by the Rev. T. W. Savary.

PERSONAL.

St. Catharines, Ont.—"Two years ago I was in a very nervous, generally run-down condition, so that I awoke in the morning more tired than when I retired. The doctor thought I had heart trouble and treated me for it but I got no benefit. I heard of Dr. Pierce's remedy through a friend who had been to your Invalids' Hotel for an operation (which proved entirely successful) and I at once got the 'Favorite Prescription.' I took three bottles altogether and at the end of three weeks I felt entirely cured and have been well and strong since, without a single bad spell. I stopped taking it about three months ago and am glad to tell any one how splendidly your medicine has healed me." Mrs. JOHN LEWIS, 53 Niagara St., St. Catharines, Ont.

Horse Races and Baseball Matches Held—An Italian Displayed the Only Ur-on Jack on Princess Street.

The king's birthday! What visions those words conjured to the mind of happy days spent in the carefree times before the war. Memories of horse races, military salutes, parades, boat races, aeroplane ascensions and all the amusements that used to entertain us before the boys went away to fight for their king and country, come back to us, and we realize the difference between the king's birthday then and the king's birthday now.

Kingston celebrated on Monday the anniversary of the birth of His Majesty, King George V, without the levity and frivolity that would have characterized the day in peace time. To be sure the small boy was out with his giant fire cracker in the early hours of the morning to be the first on his street to waken the good citizens to the fact that they had a holiday and then allow them to sleep in an extra hour or two. But the occasion was marked with the uproarious noise of peace time and as the official reports from the front would say, "The firing was desultory."

During the day baseball matches and horse races were held but these were the only unusual features. A number of the residences in the city were decorated with the appropriate flags and bunting but it was a somewhat remarkable fact that the only merchant who displayed the British flag on Monday morning on Princess street was an Italian fruit dealer, Michael Amodeo. Many of the citizens spent the day out of the city on picnics or fishing in the blue waters of the St. Lawrence or Rideau.

In the evening there were fewer fireworks displays due to the fact, no doubt, that people realize the necessity of economy and thrift in these times of sacrifice and sorrow. The day was recognized as was befitting the times by most of the citizens, and many a prayer was sent up to the Almighty that our gracious sovereign might be spared for many years to come and that victory would soon be granted to his forces and to the forces of his glorious and stalwart Allies, who are fighting so valiantly in such a righteous cause.

A Tonic For The Nerves

Nervous people who have not yet developed a disease that can be recognized and treated by the medical profession have the greatest trouble in finding relief. Irritation, headache, sleeplessness, nervous dyspepsia, all these discomforts make life miserable, but are endured rather than run a doctor's bill and without definite hope of an improved condition. Every sufferer should know the danger of such a condition to the nervous system. Nervous debility and even paralysis may result if the tone of the nerves is not restored. The one big fact that brings hope and relief is that the nerves can be restored by building up the blood. It cannot be too often repeated that only through the blood can nourishment or medicine reach the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make the blood rich and red and quickly restore vitality and energy to a weak nervous system. A nervous person who gives these pills a trial is almost certain to see good results, and what is more, the benefit will be lasting because the trouble is attacked at its root. This blood makes weak nerves; building up the blood restores the nerve force. That is why people who occasionally take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills always feel bright, active and strong.

If you are weak, nervous, or feeling "out of sorts" give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial and you will be surprised to see how quickly the nervousness will pass away and your former energy return. You can get these pills through your medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CAPT KRUGER TOOK PART

In Preparations For The Capture of Vimy Ridge.

Captain W. A. Kruger, mentioned in Sir Douglas Haig's despatches for conspicuous bravery on the Somme, Arras and Ypres fronts, and who is now in Ottawa on sick leave, took part in the preparations for the capture of Vimy Ridge. He did not share in the action there, however, having accidentally sustained a fractured arm just before, and he was in a hospital in London when the Ridge was captured.

Captain Kruger was at the front for sixteen months and was specially mentioned in despatches for having gone through a gas attack at Ypres without losing a single man. He was for 18 years connected with the permanent militia, and is a veteran of South Africa, where he served with the Canadian Field Artillery. For service there, he was awarded the South African medal, with three clasps. He also holds the Permanent Force Long Service and Good Conduct Medal.

For eight years before going overseas he was chief assistant to the Director of Artillery in Canada and for several years before that, was connected with the Royal Canadian
