SPORTING NOTES.

Hughie Jennings has reduced the Detroit roster to 21 players. He released Pitcher Couch and Outfielder Nicholson this week.

There must be money in baseball. Chief Meyers, the Brooklyn catcher, invested a cool ten thousand in war bonds.

Bob Fitzsimmons has declined to join his wife on an evangelistic mission. Instead he will hit the sawdust trail in a circus.

While scouting through America General Joffre is said to have purchased Player Pershing, who will report for spring training in France.

"Bill" Donovan's New York Yanks proved the Tanks of the American League. They put an awful dent in the western end of Ban Johnson's circuit.

Some of those Canadian jockey clubs wouldn't object to getting the energetic secretary of the Moral Reform Association in a jam on the home stretch.

Ban Johnson's remark that baseball pitchers should get thirty days in jail, prompted one Philadelphia writer to say that Carl Mays ought to get a life sentence.

When those National and Shamrock lacrosse players began biting and smashing one another they evidently overlooked the fact that "Joe" Lally had been elected president of the Union.

"Pete" Herman, of New Orleans, claimant to the bantamweight title, outpointed Joe Lynch, of New York, at the latter city.

Giants to Aid Old Hurler.
The New York Giants have arranged to play an exhibition game July 8th at Paterson, N.J., to aid Jim McCormack, once a pitcher with the old Chicago White Stockings.

McGraw is going to pay all the Giants' expenses. The Silk Stockings of Jersey City will be the Giants' opponents.

Mack Signs Second Baseman.
The latest addition to Manager Connie Mack's string of young ball players which he will try out in Raymond Killgallen, of St. Mary's College, Maryland. Killgallen is a second baseman and played on his school team with a brilliant record for two years. He is 5 feet 7 inches tall and weighs 150 pounds.

SCOTTISH ATHLETE KILLED

Enlisted in Calgary—Football and High Jump Champion.

News has reached Edinburgh of the death of a Scottish athlete international, Capt. D. C. Campbell, who, after studying at Edinburgh University, went to Canada in the autumn of 1913 to practice law. He joined the Canadian force at Calgary, and was wounded during the Somme offensive, returning to the front a few months ago.

Capt. Campbell, who is the thirteenth Scottish athletic international to lose his life in the war, was a fine all-round athlete when at home in Caithness, winning ten first prizes on one day. When he went to Edinburgh he specialized as a high jumper, and won the Scottish Inter-University high jump championship, the Scottish A.A.A. high jump title, 1910 to 1913, and the high jump in the Scots-Irish International in 1910 and 1911, being the only Scotsman to win this event.

Princeton's Profit From Sport.

Princeton's report for the athletic year of 1915-16 shows a profit of $18,116.56, or a gain of about $2,000 over that of the previous year. Football returned the greatest revenue in Princeton's athletic history, $65,500 as against $53,000 in 1914 and $38,000 in 1913. This gain was brought about largely through the fact that the Yale-Princeton game of 1915 was played in the Bowl before a large throng. The receipts from this game netted $45,000.

Breaks Swimming Record.

Norman Ross, swimming for the Olympic Club of San Francisco, broke the world's record for 75 yards back stroke at Alameda, Cal., time, 51 4-5 seconds. The previous record of 56 4-5 seconds was held by Tod Burns, of Los Angeles Athletic Club.

TWO ATHLETISTS HONORED.

Lt.-Col. Hendry and Major Marshall Receive D.S.O.

Included in the list of the King's birthday honors are the name of two officers, who are well known to the sporting fraternity. Lieut.-Col. William Belfry Hendry and Major Kenric Rud Marshall, both of Toronto, Lieut.-Col. Hendry, was during his career in the sporting world looked on as one of the best rugby football referees in the game. He is a graduate of Toronto University, and for years officiated at all of the important inter-collegiate matches. His final appearance before going overseas was at the meeting between McGill and Varsity at Toronto in 1914, after which intercollegiate rugby football was abandoned. Lieut.-Col. Hendry was the umpire in that memorable match, which had such a spectacular ending, being won in the final minutes by Varsity. Captain "Sinc" McEvenue was the referee in the game, and is now also overseas serving his country. He left Montreal after resigning from the Irish-Canadian Rangers.

Major Rud Marshall was well known as a gentleman rider and polo player, as well as being a well known all round athlete. He has ridden at Blue Bonnets in events for gentlemen riders on numerous occasions. He was born at Toronto and graduated from Upper Canada College, after which he evinced a keen interest in sport. Previous to his going overseas he devoted a great deal of time to the breeding of polo ponies on his farm in Ontario.

SPENCER IN TROUBLE.

Toronto Bicycle Rider is the "Bad Man" at Newark.

Art Spencer, the Toronto bicycle rider, who has been cutting such a big figure at the Newark Velodrome, is the "bad man" of the riders. He is leading the list in disqualifications and unless he redeems will be on the ground the greater part of the season. At the opening meet he was disqualified for looking around, and last Sunday, after winning his heat of the Grand Prix of Newark, he was set down for the same offence. As a result of these infringements Art has lost considerable in prize money, but the hardest blow may be that he will not be allowed to ride in the races for the American championship. He was counted upon as the real strong contender for the championship. Both Art and his brother, Willie, made an earnest plea to Manager Chapman, of the Velodrome, to intercede in behalf of the "bad boy," but Chapman referred them to the National Cycling Association.
