BATTLE LINE

FIGURES DENOTING HILLS SHOW THEIR HEIGHT IN METRES

Signor d'Annunzio, the poet and playwright, who is shown above, was commissioned a lieutenant in the Italian Aeroplane Corps when Italy entered the war. He made three flights over Trieste, dropping poems instead of bombs. He lost his right eye in an aeroplane accident last year. A few months ago he was promoted to be a captain, and a few days ago he took a leading part in repulsing an Austrian attempt to recapture San Giovanni, in the southern portion of the Carso plateau. The arrows on the map indicate the direction of the Italian drive for Trieste.

CHEMICALLY SELF-EXTINGUISHING

What do these words mean to you?

They mean greater safety in the Home - Surely something that interests you keenly!

Perhaps you have noticed these words and the notation "No fire left when blown out" on our new "Silent Parlor" match boxes. The Splits or sticks of all matches contained in these boxes have been impregnated or soaked in a chemical solution which renders them dead wood once they have been lighted and blown out, and the danger of FIRE from glowing matches is hereby reduced to the greatest minimum.
