LT.-LT. DISSETTE FALLS FIGHTING FOE

A Popular Young Toronto Athlete Makes the Supreme Sacrifice.

Flight-Lieut. Arthur C. Dissette R.R.A.S., has given his life for his country. A cable was received by his brother, Frank Dissette, of the Hotel St. Charles, Toronto, on Mon-day briefly stating that he had been killed while on escort duty. A clean, clever athlete, a gentleman always; will be mourned by all who knew The son of Richard Dissette of the Empress Hotel, Arthur will be remembered as outside wing of the champion Parkdale Canoe Club, O. F. U. team. He was thirty years age, and was educated at Loyola Montreal; Technica Toronto, and the University of To-After finishing his education he located in Vancouver, where he was engaged in the automobile business. He enlisted shortly after the outbreak of the war, and after course of training in England was to France. Pittsburg Pitchers.

Two members of the Pittsburgh Pirate pitching staff have shown continued run of high-class pitching since the season opened. They are Harold Carlson and Elmer Jacobs The former has won three and lost two games, but one of his defeats should not have been accomplished under the circumstances. BONHAG'S NEW RECORD NOT TO BE ACCEPTED

American Amateur Athletic Union Declines to Recognize Mark of 6.28 3-5

George Bonhag's figures 28 3-5 for a one-mile handicap walk made last Saturday at New York will not be accepted by the A. A. U. Record Committee, and George Goulding's legitimate record for the distance made in Toronto last year will be recognized as the world's best record. Herman Obertubbesing, a member of the A. A. U. Record Committee, and Fred W. Rubein, president of the Metropolitan aging ambitious youngsters and in | Association, are only two of many other patrons of amateur sport who regard Bonhag's performance as of the trick order. Most of the experts who saw Bonhag walk on Saturday saw little resemblance between his mode of locomotion and that of Golding, who has never been minder that a prophet is not without accused fairly of violating the

But while he would not fight, he did not shirk altogether, but went over the island giving exhibition bouts which netted the Red Cross and other societies large sums of money which were expended in the care of the wounded. Stories might also be told of his goodness to widows and others made destitute by the war. This is no defense; it is simply the story as told by Darcy to his friend.

> Morris Has Better of Moran. Carl Morris, of Oklahoma, outfought Frank Moran, of Pittsburg, in nine out of ten rounds in New York. Moran was very weak at the final bell, but was fighting desperately up to the last. Morris weighed 224 pounds and Moran 199. From the outset, Morris crowded Moran, driving short rights and lefts to the body and short right uppercuts at close quarters. Moran cut loose in the fifth round, landed two right swings on Morris' head and face and forced the big fellow to the ropes. Moran then tried another Morris had things his own way afthat, forcing Moran all over the ring and battering him badly. Moran's left eye was cut and bleeding at the end of the tenth round.
