THE HUN PIRATE OF THE SEA

Here is the Hun pirate in actual life. It is an official picture of a U-boat commander standing on the periscope and scanning the seas for prey, probably hoping that the opportunity will be offered to murder women and children. The Berliner Illustrirte Zeitung originally published this picture, incidentally with a boast of the work the U-boat pirates are performing.

Thrill that brings Comfort instead of Sacrifice THRIFT, the paramount national duty, applies to time as well as to money—to small personal outlay as well as to larger family expenditure. Applied to the daily shave, thrift means the use of a Gillette Safety Razor The Razor of National Service. The Gillette reduces shaving time to five minutes or less—an actual saving of a week of working days a year! To the man who depends on the barber, it saves still more time, and from $25 to $50 or even more annually. This means the cost of one or several War Savings Certificates. For the thousands of young men just reaching shaving age the Gillette Safety Razor is a source of good habits—not only thrift, but punctuality, personal neatness, and efficiency in little things.
