MILITARY CIRCLES.

The Army Medical Corps draft under Capt. Bleazard and the Forestry draft under Capt. Freeman will leave for an eastern training point this (Wednesday) evening.

A medical board has just completed its inspection of the draft of men (Capt. Freeman recruited for a forestry company). As an example of the type of men volunteering now there were nineteen rejected out of eighty-five examined, and the standards for forestry are much lower than for infantry.

To regulate the taxis that run to Barriefield camp a system of registration with numbers for the cars and the drivers is being put into force, and every taxi driver is being given until to-morrow (Thursday) night to call at headquarters for his permit. There are not nearly as many drivers on this year as last, but the provost marshal is insisting that the same rules and restrictions shall prevail or they will be debarred from the privileges of the camp, and their cars will be put out of bounds.

Ten nursing sisters, who will go on duty at the Queen's Military Hospital, are taking over their rooms in the Court House to-day. The Supreme Court room has been completely changed and is now quite a presentable home for the nursing sisters.

While riding to the camp on his motor cycle on Wednesday, M. L. Orr of the headquarters staff, lost a valuable raincoat. A notice in the camp orders brought the coat back to its owner, it having been found by an A.S.C. man.

The 230th Battalion, of Brockville, is moving to-day to Ottawa after being in the former place since November last. In a letter to the "Pine Knot," the battalion paper, Major L. F. Hoarard states that "we have enlisted over 2,000 men, and from the first of the year we have sent overseas fifty-two officers, 184 N.C.O.'s, and 1,726 men, making a total of 1,962 of all ranks. When the final draft leaves this week, sixteen officers and about 25 other ranks will be added to the number."

STEAMERS COLLIDE IN DETROIT RIVER.

Natironco, Well-known in This Port, Hit Passenger Boat.

The steamer Natironco, of Toronto, well known in this port, having carried coal here, was sunk in the Detroit River Tuesday morning, in collision with the passenger steamer Eastern States. The latter was bound for Cleveland, but sustained a damaged bow, and returned to Detroit. There were no casualties.

The Natironco was built in 1892, and was 225 feet long. She lies close to the channel, near the Canadian shore.

CONSPICUOUS GALLANTRY And Devotion to Duty Lieut. Walkem Wins Military Cross.

A letter from Lieut. H. Walkem, R.E., received by his father, reads as follows:

"I have been shown the recommendation for the Cross given me in January last which reads as follows: 'For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty under fire during twelve months continuous work in the front line.' 'We are in a part of the country the Huns held and it would go to your heart to see the wanton damage they have done. Mind, this part has never been shelled or fought over. They simply evacuated it. Nine-tenths of the ordinary trees and all the fruit trees are cut down or girdled, all the houses have been burned or blown up, and even the shrubs and plants in ornamental gardens have been pulled up. We are camped close to what was once a town of about 5,000 but there is now not a whole building in it."

SERGT. McCULLAGH HIT.

Wounded Over Five Weeks and is Now on Official Casualty List.

Just one month and eight days ago Sergt. William G. McCullagh, transport section of the 21st Battalion, was wounded. He was in hospital, and six stitches were used to close the wounds on his left side and face. After having returned to the firing line for some time the official announcement of the casualty was made to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. McCullagh, on Tuesday several days after a letter had been received from him.

Other Kingston district men who are on the casualty list are C. A. Neilson, Outer Station, whose condition was reported in the Whig a few days ago, a W. G. Chambers, Barriefield, and H. Strickland who could not be identified.

Soldier Cannot Recover.

W. Campbell, who resides about three miles from Seeley's Bay, has received word that his son, Pte. Ernest Campbell, lies dangerously ill in Bethnal Green Military Hospital, London. He received a letter from Rev. Henry Parrott saying that his son was receiving every attention but that there is no hope of his recovery as he has a bullet in his head.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At the Grand.

To-night will positively be the last chance to see Harold Lockwood and May Allison at the Grand in "Mister 44." These two popular stars in this charming tale of love and adventure in the Great Outdoors, constitute one of the most delightful photo-plays seen here in some time. Other feature photo-plays and feature vaudeville complete this excellent programme for to-night only. For the last half of this week the Grand has secured a feature that is claimed to be one of the dramatic achievements of the year. Miss Genevieve Hamper, one of America's most accomplished and convincing stage stars, will have a leading role in a William Fox Production, "Tangled Lives." J. Gordon Edwards, the veteran director of Fox pictures, screened the picture at Kingston, Jamaica. Stuart Holmes appears again as the suave villain of yore, and Claire Whitney is also included in the support. The latest Pathe News and Comedy Reels, and two first-class vaudeville acts, round out this bill for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

At Griffin's.

Manager Whitty, "Griffin's Theatre," has arranged for the presentation of Mary Pickford's new Artcraft picture, "A Romance of the Redwoods." This production was staged under the personal direction of Cecil B. DeMille, who also wrote the story in collaboration with Jennie Macpherson. The art of Mary Pickford the super-star combined with that of Cecil B. DeMille, the producing genius, means a new standard of excellence on the screen. In direct contrast to her previous triumph, "A Poor Little Rich Girl," Miss Pickford's newest vehicle presents a red blooded story of the West, replete with dramatic situations.

At the Strand.

A large and appreciative audience attended the Strand last evening to see Mr. Desmond in his latest and best Triangle success, "Paddy O'Hara." The story flashes with humor and excitement throughout its rapid fire action. Mr. Desmond in the title role is seen at his best as a gay reckless war correspondent for a big London newspaper, who is assigned by his superior to get authentic news from the war front in the Balkans. He not only secures a journalistic "scoop" but bears off a princess whose father has been forced from his castle by his enemies. Comedy reels and "The Purple Mask" in conjunction with "Paddy O'Hara" will be exhibited for the last time to-night. For the last three days of the week Wm. S. Hart will be seen in "The Desert Man."

Grant Police Reporter.

Or the Trunk Mystery, a dashing detective story full of exciting happenings. "Hash the Hash Ann" from "The Black Cat Magazine," also Rose Mary Theby in "Green Eyes," concluding with a jokes and jabs comedy at the King Edward to-night and Thursday.

The Late L. O. Beaudry.

On Tuesday morning the funeral of the late Louis Ovide Beaudry place from his late residence on Queen street to St. Mary's Cathedral where a solemn requiem mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul. Rev. Father C. J. Mea officiated both at the cathedral and at St. Mary's cemetery where interment took place.

The service was attended by many friends of the deceased, who was held in high esteem. Those who acted as pall bearers were: Augustine Currier, Montreal; Oliver Giroux, Fabien Giroux, Coteau Station, J. B. King, D. Lamarche, and B. Davey.

WATER BETTER THERE THAN ON THE ASPHALT.

Paving Man Says There is Nothing Wrong with Princess Street Work.

J. F. Driscoll, of the Foley and Gleason Company, of Ottawa, is in the city with regard to alleged defects in the block portion of the Princess street paving. Near Wellington street, water remains in the track allowance after rains. This, he says, is unavoidable. The paving is done according to the best engineering plans, and the little water that gets into the track allowance does no harm. It is better there than lying on the asphalt. Mr. Driscoll gives City Engineer McClelland great praise for the splendid work done on University avenue. He expressed surprise that such an excellent piece of paving could have been done under such handicaps as the civic engineering department labored last fall.

Dewart Leases House.

William T. Dewart, head of the chain of stores of the Mohican Company, has leased "The Ledges" at Alexandria Bay for his summer home. He will take possession of the residence shortly. He is a member of the well known Dewart family of Ontario. He was born in Fenelon Falls but moved while a young man to New York City.

He fills successfully the important position of general manager of the Frank A. Munsey Company, in addition to his interest in the Mohican concern. He obtained a position in a saw mill when a lad and during this time he picked up his education at night.

Given Sick Leave.

Archibald Strachan, Collector of Customs, has been granted sick leave, and has gone to visit his son, in Ely, Minn. Thomas Gaskin, chief clerk, is acting as collector.
