TO ENLARGE THE MOWAT ANOTHER BIG EXTENSION OF INSTITUTION DECIDED ON.

Pump and Engine House, New Pavilion of the Largest Type and an Immense Store House to be Built.

The Mowat Memorial hospital, which is now under the command of the Military Hospitals Commission, is to be made the finest of its kind in the Dominion of Canada. This is the only institution over which the M. H. C. C. has absolute control during its occupancy, and the authorities at a recent meeting in Ottawa, made the decision to put the very best into it. On Friday tenders for a new pump house, engine house, etc., were called for and this will be erected immediately.

It is understood that shortly tenders for a pavilion of thirty-two beds, which will increase accommodation from 160 to 200, will be asked for.

In addition, an immense store house for storing all kinds of non-perishable supplies will be built.

Capt. W. L. Symons, architect, is expected in the city in a few days to take up these matters.

Replics Pouring In.

The Whig's Phone Contest advertisement, which occupied all of page twelve last evening, has evoked a great deal of discussion and interest throughout the city and country districts. The answers have been coming in all day, and go to show that there are a great many people in the city who know how to write good advertisements and how to state the excellent service each individual store can give.

J. A. Gorrie, Manager of the Bell Telephone Company, told the Whig to-day that their service was well nigh tied up all last evening owing to the hundreds of calls that were sent in as to who these phone numbers represented. That part of the solution was one of the easiest. Each contestant, moreover, had to give the correct name and address of the firm and state the character of the service they rendered the public. Some splendid answers are being received.

Remember, there are three prizes to be given, namely, $5, $3, and $2. Neatness in forming the reply will count for much. There is still plenty of time to send in your solution, which should be written in the space provided for it in the issue of Friday, the 22nd. Though your answer may be the last one to be received, you stand a good chance of winning the prize if the neatness and character of the reply are above the ordinary. Additional copies of the Whig containing the advertisement may be had at the Business Office.

It should perhaps be mentioned that no member of the Whig staff or of their families is permitted to enter the contest. The judging will be done by a committee of three disinterested persons, whose names will be announced later.

At the Theatres

At The Grand.

An appreciative audience was enthusiastic over the strong bill offered at the Grand last night. Miss Genevieve Hamper played the leading role in a gripping Fox feature, "Tangled Lives," and played it with ease and smoothness. Miss Hamper has been on the stage all her life, and has been Robert Mantell's leading lady for five years. She is supported by an excellent cast which includes her husband, (Robert Mantell), Stuart Holmes, and Claire Whitney. A corking good Victor comedy, "The Woman in the Case," brought forth many laughs, while the Universal Screen Magazine depicted several new and useful inventions, the Terrapin hatchery, domestic science, and concluded with a cartoon comedy, "On the Trenches in Africa". The latest Pathe News proved very popular. Miss Norma Telgmann rendered several popular selections on the violin. Madeline & Simpson offered a very classy dancing act; the "Prince Militaire" caught the fancy of the crowd. This same bill will be repeated to-night.

At Griffin's.

Greater even than the adorable "Gwen" in "A Poor Little Rich Girl", is Mary Pickford's characterization of Jenny Lawrence the little Boston girl, who explores the wilds of the west in "A Romance of the Redwoods" is the verdict of all who have had the pleasure of witnessing "A Poor Little Rich Girl" in this great picture her supreme success. On the same bill is shown that sterling actor George Bohan in his latest Famous Players production "The Bond Between." Mrs. Vernon Castles' many admirers were more than pleased with her wonderful acting in the sixth episode of the famous serial "Patria". This bill will be repeated to-night.

At The Strand.

A large and appreciated audience witnessed a bill of exceptional merit at this popular playhouse last evening. William S. Hart in "The Desert Man" was seen at his best in this latest Triangle success. The story concerns a man of will, who comes to the little town of Broken Hope, so called because of its desolate, depopulated condition and the hopelessness of its inhabitants. He takes charge of its affairs drives out the town bully and re-christens the place Belleville donating a new era in its life. #### A FORMER CASHIER SENT TO PRISON

Horace W. Morse, Clayton, Pleads Guilty to Banking Law Violation.

Horace W. Morse, former cashier of the First National Bank, at Clayton, N.Y., was sentenced to serve five years in the federal prison at Atlanta, in federal court at Syracuse. Mr. Morse pleaded guilty to a violation of the banking act.

He was charged with releasing a shipment of seeds to the Agricultural Products Corporation, Cape Vincent, which was under the management of E. N. Jackson, without a bill of lading covered by a bank draft. It is said to have been the custom to ship the seed to Cape Vincent, when a draft would be immediately sent back to cover the bill of lading. There was a delay in sending back of the check and the practice was revealed.

Mr. Morse was cashier of the Clayton bank for thirty years. His friends in that village say that the violation of the law was only technical, and that no one ever profited by the transactions. They declare that it was simply done to expedite matters and not a cent was embezzled. Technically, however, it was a violation of the law and the minimum sentence was pronounced by the court. The residents of Clayton are greatly stirred up over the matter and express the deepest sympathy for Mr. Morse.
