SOLDIER LOST SPEECH

BUT RECOVERED IT AND WENT BACK ON FIRING LINE.

Pte. Thomas F. Holland has been on Casualty List Three Times and is Now Suffering From Shell Shock.

Pte. Thomas Francis Holland, whose mother resides at 114 Johnson street, and who is a brother of Arthur Holland, driver for the Canadian Express Company, has had a thrilling experience at the front. He went overseas with the 58th Battalion from Niagara-on-the-Lake. His wife lives in Montreal.

Mrs. Holland has just received word that Pte. Holland is laid up for a third time suffering from shell shock. He has been on the casualty list three times, and on one occasion was buried by a shell, and on another occasion lost his speech as a result of shock, but when he returned to the trenches on June 1st he had regained his speech.

Pte. Holland has four brothers serving overseas, and one sister. Two of the brothers saw service in the South African war.

Arthur Holland wanted to go overseas too, but he could not pass the medical test, and as a result he has been forced to stay at home, much against his will.

Military News

Capt. F. Hancock, Y.M.C.A. 21st Battalion, was at Barriefield camp over the week-end. The captain has been back in Canada for a number of months.

Prisoners at the Infantry School will likely continue work at the trenches in the laying of mines, etc. It is now being planned to have two more mines fired, one on either side of that exploded Saturday. Communication and other trenches can then be dug, connecting up this new front line.

Rural Dean Spencer, and son of Reeve James Hademan, and H. R. McHowell, manager of the Standard Bank, all of Camden East, were at Barriefield camp on Monday morning.

Capt. W. J. S. Sharpe returned on Monday from Ottawa.

Dr. J. W. Edwards, M.P., was a visitor at the camp on Monday.

Arrangements are being made for forming a district band. There will be a bugle band section started this week.

Retreat is being sounded at 7.55 p.m., this week.

One must have authority to keep a dog within the camp limits, according to a recent order. Officially there are now five dogs at Barriefield as follows: "Nitro" an Ayredale owned by Capt. E. Campbell, Special Service Company; "John" a bull dog owned by Lieut. W. H. Slinn, 5th P.C.C.F.; "Skinner" a cocker dog owned by Lieut. F. McCarthy, No. 5 P.C.C.F.; "Jack" a collie owned by Sergt. W. Simms and the rest of the officers, N.C.O.'s and men of No. 3 A.M.C. Depot; and finally "Dutch" a Boston bull terrier owned by Pte. H. S. Kennedy, No. 3 C.O.C.

The School of Signalling and Wireless will likely be opened in the near future as the equipment is now being installed.

Capt. F. A. Palmer left on Monday for Omomee on engineering duty.

Capt. W. J. McManus, District Adjutant was in Trenton on Sunday.

There are now twenty-eight enrolled in the motor mechanics' class, which is being carried on at Queen's University for the men of the Mowat Richardson and Elmhurst homes. Prof. Gillette is giving instruction in this work. The carpenter shop will be under Mr. Lake and classes in elementary work under A. R. Walker.

No time of the arrival of the first consignment of men to the New Queen's Military Hospital has been received yet, although it is expected at any time. The first meal is being served this (Monday) evening, with dinner being given to the nurses and staff for the first time.

KINGSTON HERO GOT MANY WOUNDS

Gunner P. Breiter Suffered Thirty-Six at the Hands of the Huns.

There is one Kingston hero at the front, who has had his share of German fire. He is Gunner P. Breiter, who was reported wounded on June 4th. His mother, who lives at 17 Charles street, has just received a letter from him, from Ward 8 Military Hospital, Colchester, Essex, Eng., in which he states that he is getting along nicely.

Here is what Gunner Breiter received in one fight that sent him to the hospital: Twenty-five wounds in his back, four in his knee, three in his head, and four in his hand. And this is the second time Gunner Breiter has been wounded. It is not expected that he will be sent back to the firing line when he recovers. He has certainly done his "bit."

Two Cards From Germany. "I beg to acknowledge the receipt of a parcel the date of which was unreadable, but for which I am very grateful," was the message on a card received from Corpl. Alan A. Beddoe, 2nd Canadian Battalion, now a prisoner at Zerbst, Anhalt, Germany. Pte. Clovis Bourdelle, 10th Battalion, also wrote acknowledging a parcel from the American Consul.

Miss L. Hutchings, Westport, is visiting friends in Kingston.

At the Theatres

At the Grand.
For to-night the Grand offers an excellent bill with a programme varied enough to please everybody. Miss Mabel Talliaferro, the sweetest of stars, is seen in one of the best screen dramas of her career. The part is wonderfully suited to her. She is a poor Irish lassie, whose father, before his death in the "Old Country," urges her to go to America and look up a wealthy young clubman, who is under obligations to him. She becomes entangled in a strange "quadrangle" of love and intrigue. The four characters are: a man without a soul, an adventuress, a young man whose fortune and happiness are the spoils sought for, and a witty, clever little Irish immigrant girl, "Jerry," who battles with great odds and wins out in a manner that is startling. All who enjoy good, clean comedy cannot afford to miss the second Lonesome Luke two-reel comedy, "Lonesome Luke the Plumber." This comedy is a scream from start to finish. The ever popular Pathé News, and feature vaudeville round out this fine programme for to-night, to-morrow, and Wednesday.

At Griffin's.
Having scored with a pronounced success as the vivacious little English actress in the days of the powdered wig and courtly manners, "The Wining of Sally Temple," the charming Lasky star, Fannie Ward, will now be seen as a modern and clever young society woman in the photo-dramatic adaptation of the clever comedy, "A School of Husbands," which will be the Lasky-Paramount picture at Griffin's to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday. Also the fourteenth episode of "The Secret Kingdom" and a hilariously funny "Lonesome Luke" comedy will be shown the first three days of this week.

The Guilty Party.
This is the title of the second O'Henry story reproduced in motion pictures, also "The Girl from 'Frisco," will be shown at the King Edward Theatre to-night and Tuesday. Usual admission in the afternoon.

TWO MEN AND BOTTLE.
Thomas Shields told Magistrate Farrell in the Police Court on Monday morning, when charged with being drunk, that he had secured his liquor from a man who had a bottle in a laneway on Queen street. He declared that he did not pay for the liquor, but that the man who knew him had shared the bottle with him to give him a treat.

The Magistrate remanded the accused for a day.
A Long Wooden Pump.
Eganville, June 25.—On the old Costello place at Brudenell, J. P. Seesley, Pembroke, and his assistant, Mr. Burke, put in a wooden pump last week which is sixty-three feet long. The pump was installed for Mr. Bennett. It is perhaps the longest wooden pump in any well in this district.
