

Local Photographs of Interest to Readers of The British Whig

PTE. LLOYD KIRKLAND.
Son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kirkland, Athens, Ont., who went overseas with the 156th Battalion, now in England.

PTE. WILLIAM HALLETT.
Son of James Hallett, of Lyn, who went overseas with the 59th Battalion, now in France.

PTE. PETER NEDDOW.
156th Battalion, who left Seeley's Bay last fall. Now in England.

PTE. CLIFFORD KIRKLAND.
Son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Peer, of Phillipsville, Ont., attached to 59th Battalion, now in France.

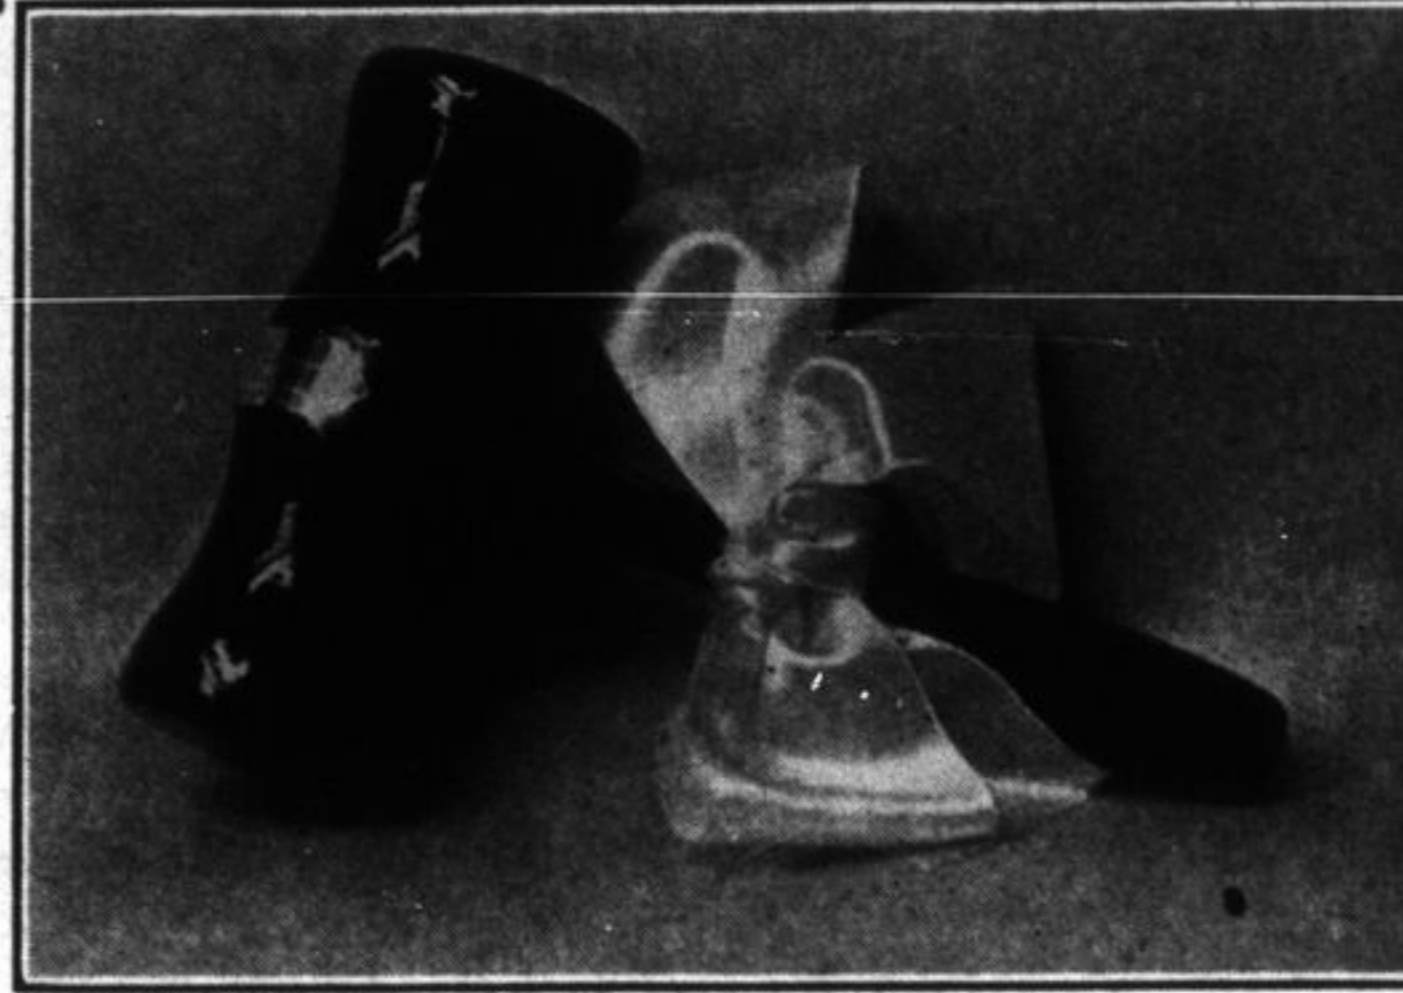

Group of Indians on their way northward, passing through the Kapuskasing German Internment Camp, New Ontario.

TROOPER K. HERMISTON,
Kingston, in England with the 8th C. M. R.

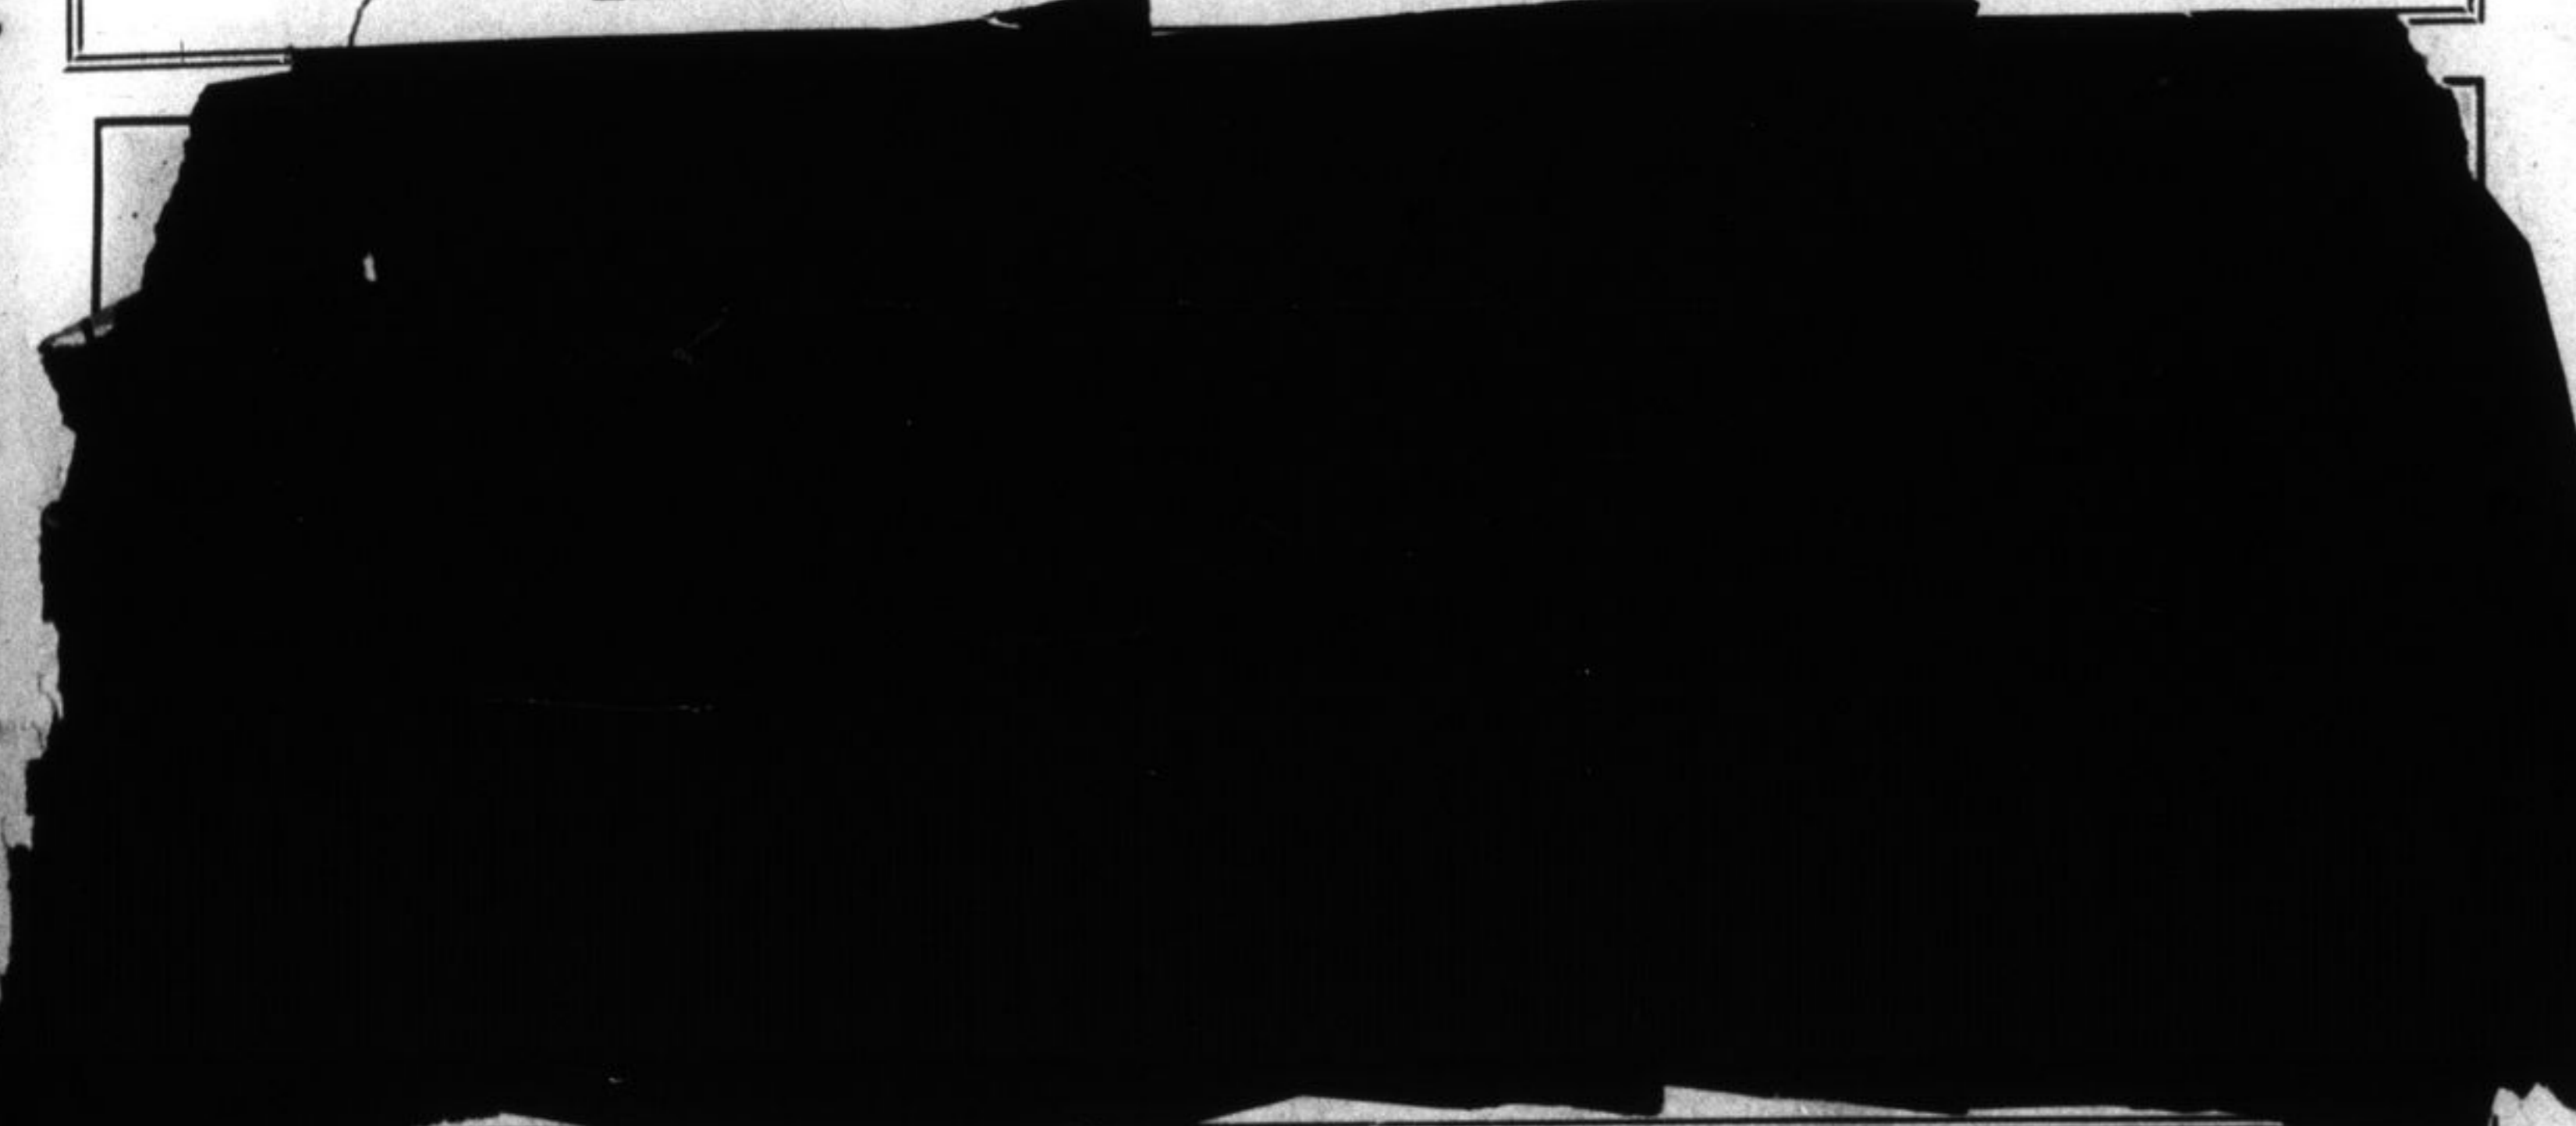

—Photo by Blakemore Studio, Kingston.

HISTORIC GAVEL.

Presented to Canadian Press Association by W. F. Nickle, M.P. It is made of wood taken from room in British American Hotel where the Association was organized in 1859. It was accepted by J. G. Elliott, of The Whig, President of the Association.

No Cold Feet in This Family Either Inherited or Acquired. Father and Three Sons Overseas

Four Sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boswell, Durham St.

PTE. LEONARD BOSWELL, of the C. A. M. C., who received the military medal on his birthday, May 18th, from General Sir Julian Byng for meritorious conduct and devotion to duty. Pte. Boswell left Kingston as a despatch rider with the 21st Battalion.

CORPL. STANLEY BOSWELL,
Now in France with a draft from the 146th Battalion.

PTE. EDWARD BOSWELL, who served for a year and a half with C. A. S. C. He was then declared medically unfit and discharged.

PTE. ARTHUR BOSWELL,
Chauffeur for General Phipps Hornby, in the Imperial Army.

SAPPER WM. COOKE,
Who went overseas with 6th Field Co., Canadian Engineers. He has been in the trenches two years, and is now ready to return to trenches after being in hospital in England for some time. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cooke, 2 Alvington Ave.

PTE. D. M. KIRK,
Parham, Ont., Canadian Mounted Rifles, wounded May 29th. He went overseas in October, 1916, with the 146th Frontenac Batt.

THE LATE ROSS SIMPKINS,
Yarker, Ont., boy killed in action in France.

SERG'T. E. F. JONES,
Kingston, went overseas with the 8th C. M. R., but was later transferred to 5th C. M. R. Has been reported missing since October 1st 1916, formerly in "B" Battery R. C. H. A. His wife resides at 118 Bagot Street.

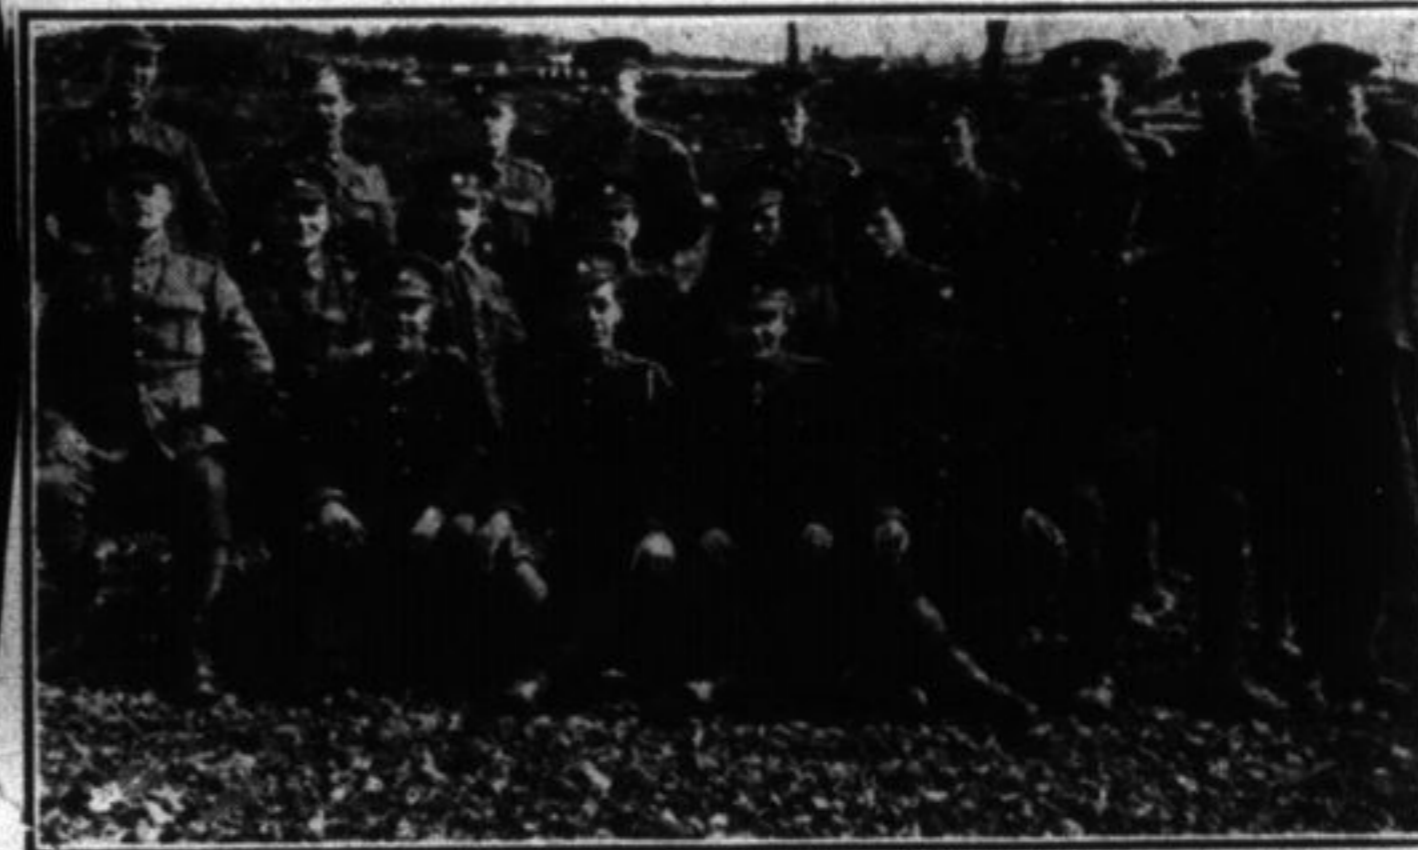

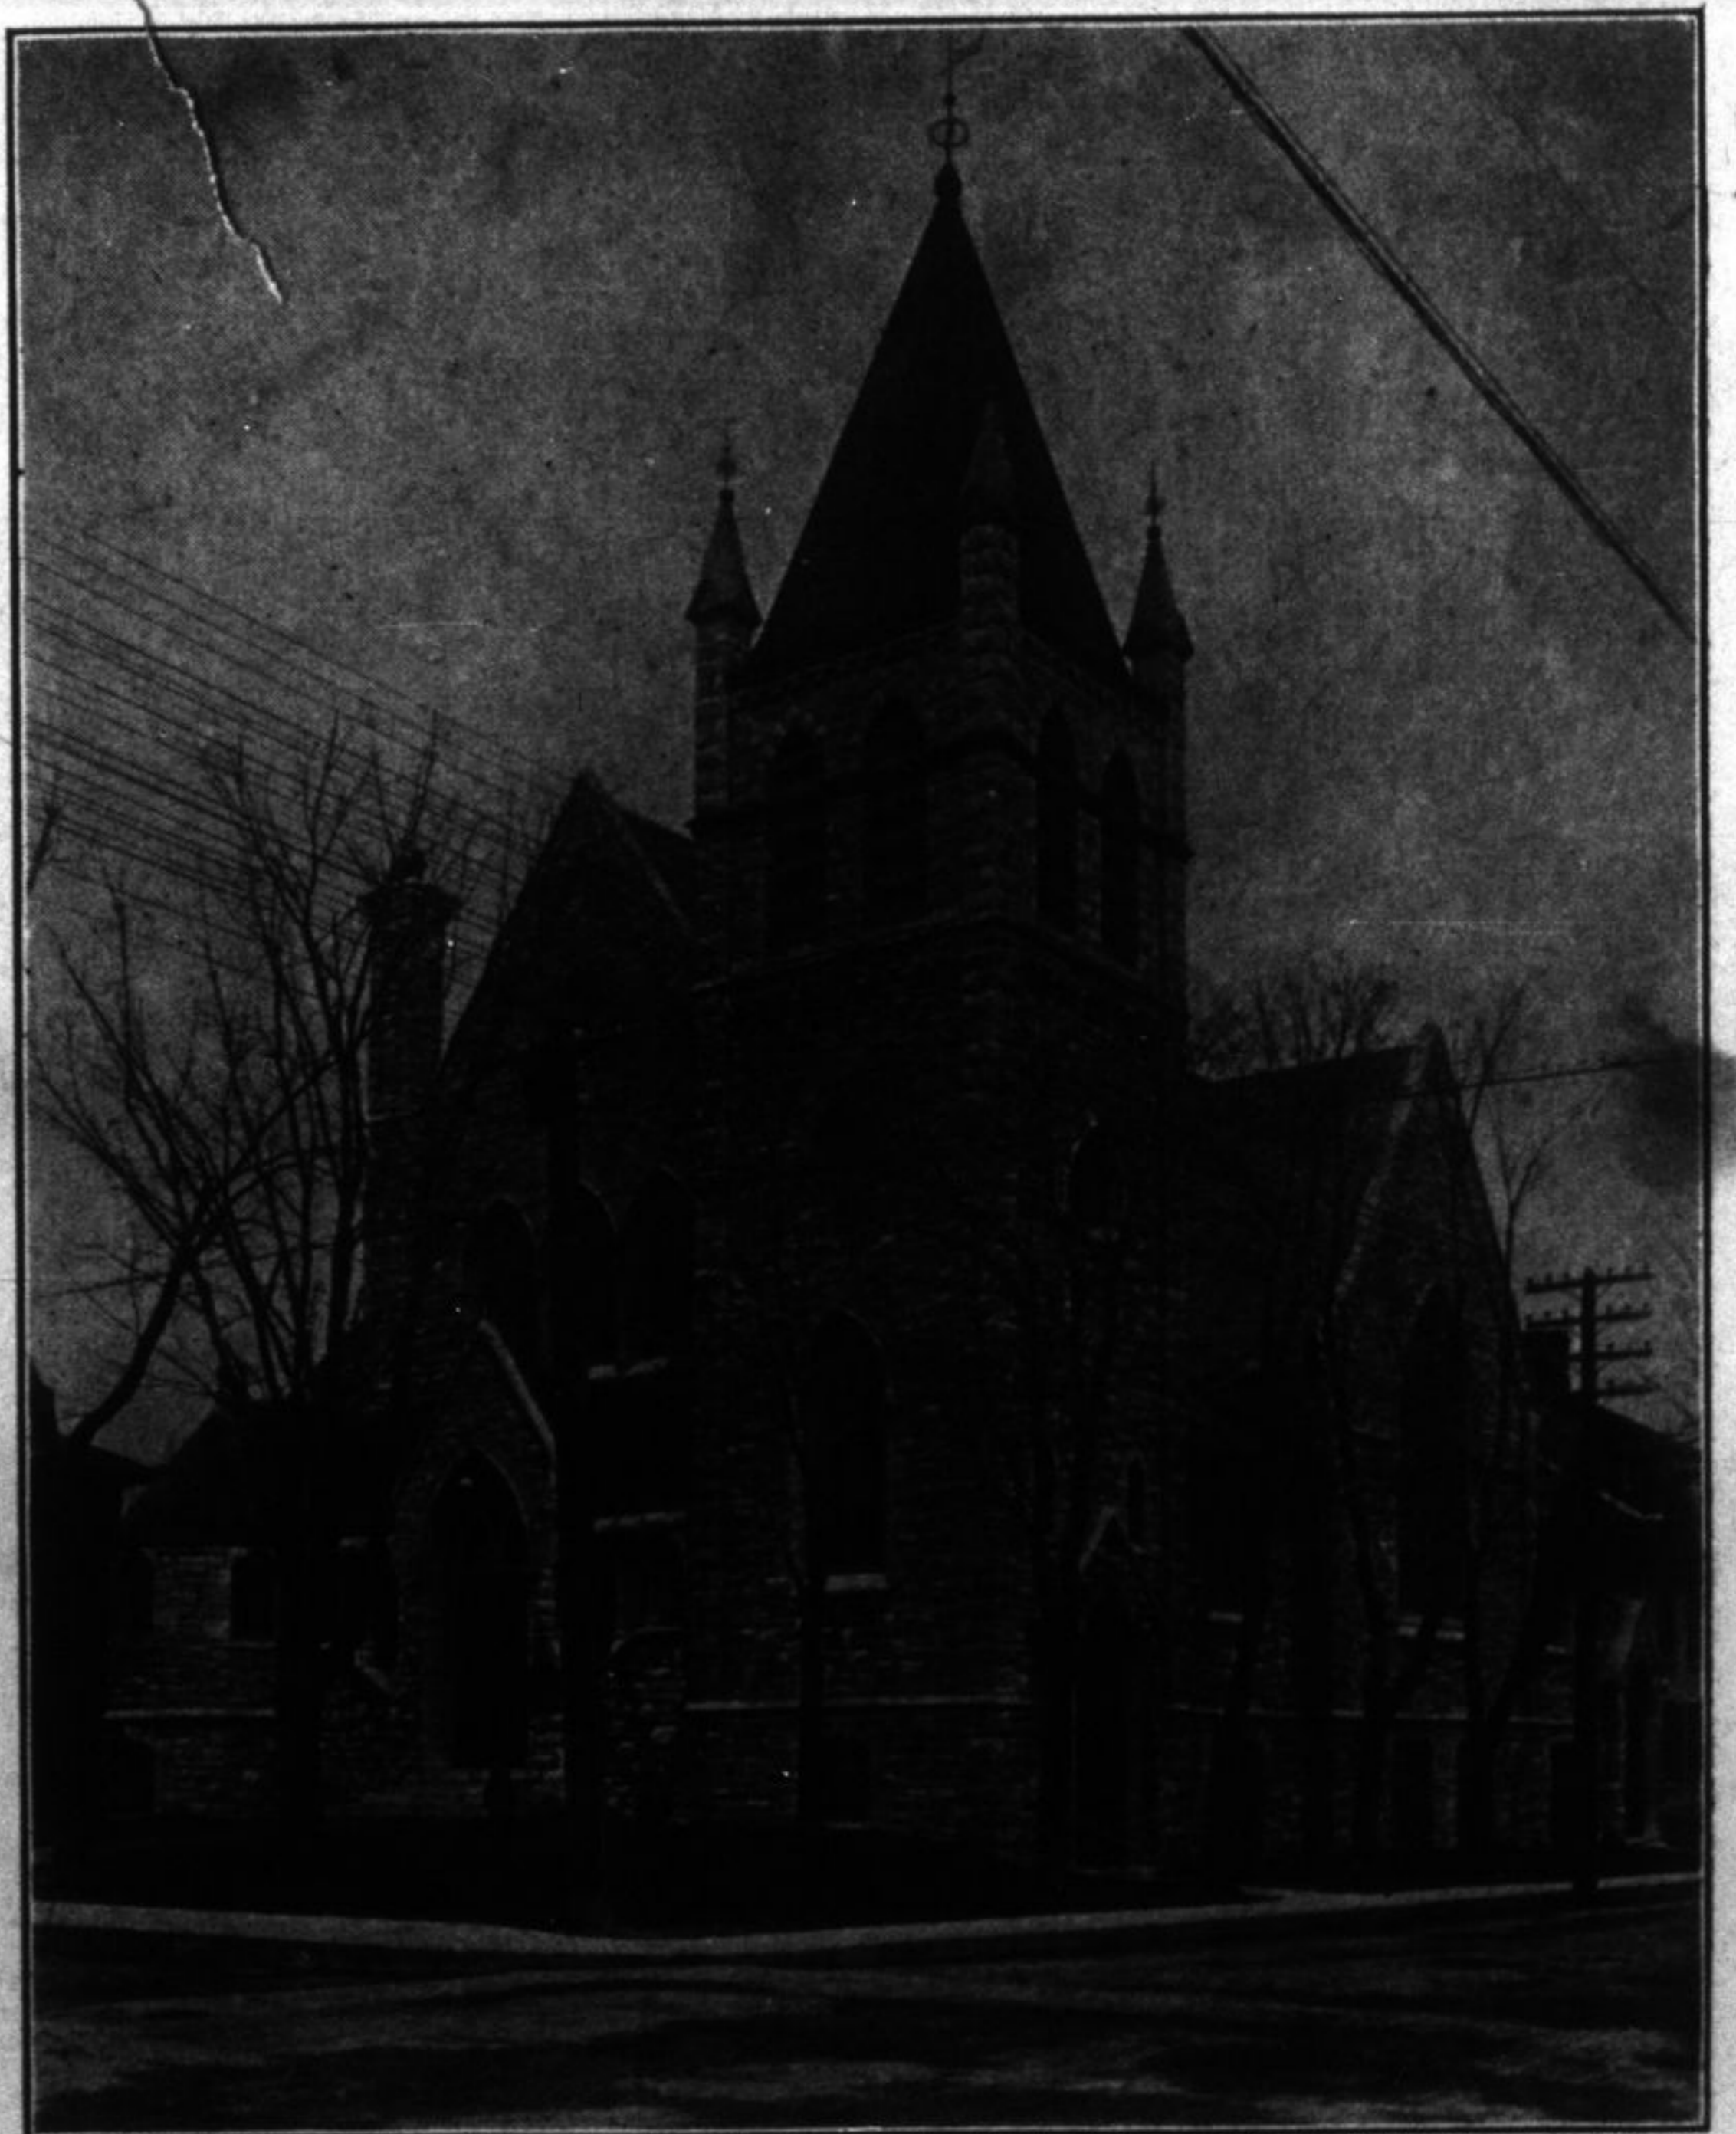

Photo sent by Pte. T. D. Haig (at extreme left of group), nephew of Geo. H. Darling, Lansdowne, Ont. The photo is of convalescent soldiers at Camp Crowborough, England. Most of these men have been on the firing line. Piles of wood and roll-ways of logs can be noted in the background.

SERG'T. FRED NEAL.

Now serving with Queen's University Battalion, has a record of twenty-four years in the British navy, fourteen years continuous service, and ten years on the reserve force. He left his home in Bristol, England, when a boy of fourteen, and joined the navy.

QUEEN STREET METHODIST CHURCH.
Whose pastor, Rev. J. D. Ellis, was recently elected president of the Montreal Methodist Conference.