TEN STRAIGHT GAMES IS LIMIT THIS YEAR

Phillies Have Done Best in Consecutive Winning in Present Pennant Races.

Ten straight victories is the best record of consistent winning that has been hung up in either of the big leagues to date. If consistency is the prime factor in grabbing the pennant, Philadelphia, New York and Chicago should be locked in the final struggle in the National and the White and Red Sox in the American, on the face of records as they stand to-day. Against the well known consistency formula, however, is the record of the Braves, who once drove their way to a championship by a sudden up-heaval toward the tag end of the season. The Phillies so far have thrown themselves to one winning streak of ten games. The Cubs have accomplished nine straight ones, while the Giants' best is six in a row.

The Phillies have an added record of five straight, while the Giants have knocked down this many victories in a row a couple of times. The second best mark for the Cubs is three.

The Red Sox come nearest the Phillies' mark of ten straight ones, having come out on top in nine straight games on two streaks of winning. The White Sox have downed the opposition eight times in a row on two occasions. The Red Sox haven't had much time to accomplish side records, but they managed to get away with a run of three. The White Sox have done a four-time parade.

Not the Athletics, but the Senators, hold the record for consecutive losses, having massed a count of ten without a victory. The Athletics' worst run is eight defeats, just one more than Wilbert Robinson's one time fearsome Dodgers have turned in.

Bender Back With Phillies.

"Chief" Bender, the veteran Indian pitcher, who was unconditionally released by the Philadelphia Nationals early in the season, is to be given another trial by Manager Moran. Bender accepted Moran's terms and joined the Phillies in Brooklyn. The salary he is to receive was not announced. Since his release Bender has been pitching for independent clubs.

Baseball Briefs

"Umpires try to be fair and the close decisions even up in the end," says President Frazee of the Red Sox. "I strongly favor clean baseball."

Walters, the Yankees' kid catcher is the best thrower in the American League.

When the Boston Red Sox begin to hit look sharp for a winning rush.

Donovan's pitchers are coming back to winning form. Fisher, Mo-gridge, Cullop, Shawkey and Caldwell ought to check the enemy in future.

Jack Barry is hanging on to Pitcher George Foster in spite of the latter's lame arms. Barry's patience may be rewarded.

Pockinpaugh is one of the Yankees' best pinch hitters. He is batting more successfully than ever before.

If Fritz Maisel could hit in the 300 class he would excel all of the other big league second basemen. He is a corking good fielder.

Boston is in gloom. The Braves are walking in the Slough of Despond and the Red Sox have lost eleven out of their last eighteen games.

Hugh Jennings is in the coaching lines again. The Tigers have struck their gait.

Griffith and Mack are fighting tooth and nail to keep out of Ban Johnson's cellar.

With the Giants running rough shod over the Braves, George Stallings is the saddest man in Massachusetts.

Mamaux of the Pirates still is a doubtful factor. If this great pitcher should suddenly come to life Pittsburgh would celebrate.

"Hank" Gowdy, catcher of the Boston team of the National League, left New York yesterday for Columbus, Ohio, where he recently enlisted in the Ohio National Guard.

Robert Becher, left fielder for the St. Louis Nationals, has refused to join the Louisville American Association team, though the St. Louis Club has arranged to pay the larger share of his $6,200 salary while he played with Louisville.

William Leard, an infielder with the Seattle Club, has been purchased by the Brooklyn Nationals and will report at once. He will play short-stop in place of Olsen, who will be shifted to third base during the illness of Mowrey.

LONGBOAT BEATS BRITISH

Canadian-Indian Rediscovers Himself in Race at Front.

Canadian Headquarters in France, June 29.—Sports held by the army with which the Canadian corps is connected resulted in the rediscovery of Tom Longboat, the famous Canadian Indian runner. In a three-mile cross country race Longboat romped home well in advance of some of the most famous British and Canadian runners, without even extending himself. He had a great reception from his regimental comrades. The tug-of-war competitions were won by a British Columbia battalion and the Canadian heavy artillery, with the English infantry and artillery teams in second place. The British won the artillery drive easily, a Canadian battery taking second place.

New Endurance Record.

Erwin Baker, of Indianapolis, motorcycle racer, it is claimed, established a new endurance record for 24 hours at the Cincinnati speedway, when he covered 1,386 miles against 1,153 miles made by Allan T. Bedell. Baker's riding time was 22 hours 26 minutes. He made 19 stops and altogether spent one hour and 24 minutes at the pits for gasoline and repairs. The official timers were furnished by the American federation of motorcyclists. Baker, it is said, broke all previous records for 24 hours by one hour 19 minutes and 30 seconds. His average speed per hour was given at 57 1/2 miles.

Genuine — PURE

Genuine diamonds—pure stones—are valuable. Imitations are worthless. To the average man it is hard to tell the difference. When we buy diamonds the name of a reliable merchant is our guarantee for a genuine—pure—stone.

So with cigarettes. Pure tobacco in the cigarette you are going to make your regular smoke is a valuable asset to health. Cigarettes made of added ingredients are only imitations—naturally pure tobacco cannot be improved upon.

Why experiment with cigarettes any more than you would with diamonds? Smoke CRAVEN "A." This name on a cigarette is your guarantee of purity.

Pure, mild, high grade, selected Virginia leaf. Properly mellowed by age, and correctly blended to bring out all the best qualities of the tobacco in the different grades used.

You cannot buy a finer or purer Virginia cigarette than CRAVEN "A" at any price.
